

OCTETTE OF DANCERS BIG SUCCESS OF "COLONIAL BEAUX AND BELLES"

Carefully Drilled and Graceful Young Women Win Audiences With Their Intricate and Sprite-Like Steps—Training of Gymnastics at Club Makes Attractive Girls Hit of Show.

Among the many big successes of the recent production of the "Colonial Beaux and Belles in Dixieland" which was put on at the Helig Theater on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the biggest was the pony ballet, a dancing octet of attractive and graceful young women, who had been so carefully drilled in their intricate and sprite-like dances that they had all made them the hit of the show.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC WILL RING IN CITY TODAY

Practically Every Church in Portland Where Yuletide Is Celebrated Has Special Programme Arranged.

CHRISTMAS music will be a feature in the services of the churches today, although there will be special music in the churches Christmas morning. In practically every house of worship in Portland, where the Christmas tide is celebrated, special music has been arranged and weeks of rehearsal and individual training will reap its reward this morning and tonight.

CHARITY TO TAKE TIME OF MANY CLUBWOMEN

Activities of Past Week Close Sessions for Year, Entertaining and Relief of Poor Attracting Attention. Shakespeare Study Club Has Session.

Mrs. E. R. Preble, President Shakespeare Study Club.

BY EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES. NUMBER of important club meetings were held during the week, but for the remainder of the year there will be but few among the women's clubs.

The general meeting of the Portland Psychology Club Thursday in the Hotel Multnomah, the Coterie's meeting on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. E. Covert, the regular session of the Daughters of the Confederacy in the Hotel Portland on Thursday were among the events of interest.

During the luncheon Mrs. Ine Townsend-Wells and Miss Nina Joy, accompanied by Miss Maud Gesner and Miss Clair Odick, sang several delightful numbers.

After the review Colonel Robert Miller gave a short address on the "Influence of Shakespeare." This ends the analytical study of "Romeo and Juliet."

The Delphian Club recently organized at the home of one of the members, met Tuesday night at the home of Miss Nellie Thompson, 1155 East Harrison street.

The Delphian Club will begin the study of "Hamlet" after the holidays. Great credit is due Mrs. Roy Peterson, chairman of the committee, and her able assistant, Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens, for the brilliant success of this affair.

At the general meeting of the Portland Psychology Club, in the assembly room of the Multnomah Hotel, on Thursday, Mrs. Florence Crawford spoke on the "Psychology of Bodily Expression." She said: "Few as yet fully realize the importance of bodily expression, and know that it is as palpable and as necessary that we express beauty in form as it is for a lily bulb to give forth its perfect beauty."

The Women's Political Science Club will meet Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock for the transaction of business and current events. At 3 o'clock H. W. Stone, secretary of the Oregon Men's Christian Association, will address the club.

course of the evening a lady said to very well-known, approached Mr. Zangwell and remarked: "Do you not think, Mr. Zangwell, that Chicago rather leads in culture?" Mr. Zangwell made no reply and kept on talking to someone else.

A few years ago I had the pleasure of being Mrs. Addams' guest at the meeting of the Women's Club in the City of Chicago. The fact that the club was exclusive made her words all the more impressive.

"Culture is not necessarily the possession or profanation of the divot. There are many Italian women near the settlement who are as truly cultured as any women I know."

Let the ultimate aim of efficient men is to be their nature and the aim of cultured woman is to be their mind.

The College Equal Suffrage League has disbanded. At a meeting of the league held Thursday in the Medical building it was decided by a unanimous vote that having served as a factor in the accomplishment of the object which called for its organization, it is now dissolved.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the Coterie's all-day meeting, held in the home of Mrs. E. E. Covert, on Wednesday. The gathering was not a mere social affair, but a serious and important one.

The Psychology Circle, No. 7, has held its session for the last two weeks at the home of Mrs. Mary Benner, 207 East Fifteenth street, and Mrs. John Douglas, 1155 East Harrison street.
