MRS. SMITH TOLD A SECRET YESTERDAY

"There's really no secret about it," said Mrs. Smith to the other ladies at the club. "In the first place, this Suit isn't tailor-made and I didn't pay $50 for it, either."

"The last time I saw all you ladies, about a month ago, I told you I'd found a new way to buy clothes. And here's the secret: I went up to Cherry's lovely big store two days ago and bought this Suit on Credit."

"Now, don't interrupt me with those exclamations. There's nothing mysterious about it at all. Cherry's is that pleasant store you have heard about that sells smart apparel on installments. You pay a part of the price when you make the purchase and the rest by the week or month."

"The price of this Suit was just $22.50—and I saw some even lower than that. You see, they have a half-price sale on everything. It's the very latest in every respect, as you see. Now that I have told you the story, it's up to you to make the best of it. If any of you ladies need a Suit as badly as I did."
