AID EDITOR, IS ADVISED

SENDING IN NEWS COURTESY TO DISTRICT, SAYS MR. ALLEN.

Teacher of Journalism Urges People to Get Behind Home Paper and Make It Agency in Helping Community.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 16.—(Special.)—"It is not enough for a live community that advertising should be correctly used to stimulate business and to promote general prosperity. The home newspaper is a social and intellectual thing as well as a medium of business. One cannot serve the community better than by seeing that interesting items get to the editor. The editor is no mind reader; call him up and tell him to do so in the neighborhood of the publisher alone but to everyone in the district who might be interested in your little item."

IRRIGATION PLAN UP

Bonds Guaranteed by State or Nation Proposed.

NEED OF BILL IS BROACHED

Jones Measure, Now Before Congress, Goes Only One-Third of Way, Argues J. H. Wilson, in Suggesting State Legislation.

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 15.—(To the Editor)—Referring to the Irrigation Assembly which has just recently met in Portland, and to the propositions being made that the Legislature shall fix some tax levy on all the property of Oregon to furnish money for irrigation purposes, I desire to make a suggestion. Over one-half of the wealth of Oregon is west of the Cascade Mountains, where the trouble is to get rid of water instead of needing more. It seems hardly right to tax land which needs no irrigation to raise money to irrigate a few sections here and there which are worthless without water, and which in comparison with the general wealth are a negligible quantity.
