and Mrs. S. Julius Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Simon, Mrs. Isam White, Dr. Rosendorf, Nathan Strauss, Mrs. A. J. Meier, Adolph Wolf, Mrs. E. Rider and the hosts. The evening was passed with music and card playing. Last night at the Armory the annual

Automobile Show opened brilliantly, tremendous crowds of interested spectators sauntering through the big Armory, admiring the handsome cars, the latest models being shown. Milady is especially interested in the luxurious fittings and upholstery of the coupelets and limousines, in many instances the furnishings carrying out the owner's favorite colors. Wednesday evaning will be society night, matrons and maids reserving this night for the entertainment incidental to the show. The list reserving this night for the entertainment incidental to the show. The list of patronesses includes many enthusists, and is as follows:

W. B. Ayer
W. C. Alvord
P. H. Flynn
J. A. Foullhoux
W. B. Pechheimer
A/S. Fleming
L. H. Adams
A. J. Gelsy
L. R. Albes
Weenst Ames
Werest Ames
Wells Gilbert
R. A. Herman
George Good Weils Gilbert
George Good
H. D. Green
P. W. Goodwin
James H. Grey
R. L. Greenleaf
Franklin Griffith
M. H. Gerson
C. Edward Grolle
I. Sieldsmith Ull Groen Glider G. Gauld ark W. Gill raham Glass foosald W. Green Fred H. Green W.lliam House Leon Hirsch Max H. Houser R. R. Hoge

J. C. Hare John H. Hall Ralph W. Hoyt Solomon Hart S. W. Herrman Edward Hirsch Ida Hirsch

chen Kline

Frohman
L. Finley
C. Mears
W. Metzger
e Meter
ius L. Metzger
e Mcter
ius L. Meter
L. Malarkey
McCamant
F. McNaty
J. Montgome inswaller er Marks
J. Mayer
Mosessohn

C. W. Tallot
H. R. Tallot
H. T. Taggar!
Robert Tegan
Louis H. Tarpley
Heorge Taylor
Joseph N. Teal
E. L. Thompson
E. F. Tucker
W. E. Thompson
E. F. Tucker
W. E. Thompson
H. W. Van Duser
W. O. Van Schuyer
W. D. Van Schuyer
W. D. Van Schuyer
W. W. Wilbur
W. F. Woodward
L. J. Wentworth
W. B. Warren
C. T. Whitney
H. C. Wilson
H. White
W. T. Williamson
Calvin S. White
J. Frank Watson
K. A. Wyld
Jonah R. Wilse
J. R. Wilse
J. R. Wilse
J. R. Wilse
P. L. Warren
G. W. Weidle
P. L. Warren
G. W. Weidle
W. H. Warrens
G. W. Simott
H. A. Sargent
H. H. Strong
F. T. C. Stevens
G. H. Smith
Hen Selling
Emanusi Sichel
Emanusi Sichel Meter Meyer A. McKenna J. Malarkey Murphy McDougali McGinn B. Malarkey ald Mackay J. Mackenzie C. Mason
R. Mason
y W. Matson
N. Menefee
L. Mills
F. Morey
B. McFaul

Ben Selling
Emanuel Sichel
Ella Stevens
C. F. Swigert
C. J. Smith
F. L. Stinson
Gustav Simon
Martin Winch
C. E. S. Wood
Orskine Wood
Ot S. Wolfenson
Martin Winch
C. E. S. Wood
Other Wood
Other
Ot Riddell

A. Sargent M. Sawyer R. Sewall M. Sherwood, Jr. A. Shindler E. Sitton Mr. and Mrs. William Ehrman presided at a charming dinner Wednesday evening at their home, followed by a party at the Orpheum Theater. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fleisch-ner, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger and Mrs. Harriet Meyer. Mrs. Joseph Greenberg, of San Fran.

elsco, a charming and popular matron, has been extensively feted since her ar-rival in this city. Practically each day has brought forth a bridge party, sometimes preceded by luncheon, and again evening parties have been the

funchen Küne

C. Kahn

Fannf Kumm

Alma D. Katz

f. I. Keeney

f. H. Kern

f. P. Kavanaugh

A. E. King

Richard Kirk

Frank Kiernan

Bushnell-Photos

In compliment to the noted English actor, Sir Johnstone Forbes-Robertson, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch entertained a few close friends at tea Thursday at her order, always with bridge as the main anecdotes of his personal experiences. diversion. She is the house guest of Among the guests were Miss Mary the Misses Jacobs, on Twenty-fourth and Johnson streets, who also entertained in her honor. Others who have complimented this attractive visitor during the week are Mrs. Bernard Neustadter, Mrs. Ben Selling, Mrs. N. D. Simon and Mrs. C. L. Bamberger.

-Photo by Grove. and Mrs. F. Willard Bond, of Pendleton, Who Has Been Vis-

and, Miss Decr. William Thrift

Lerr, William Thrift

Early in February Mrs. Charles T.

Whitney will leave for California to pass the balance of the Winter.

She will be joined later in the month by Mrs. William Hamilton Toaz, who been stationed with her husband.

Harold Minor acted as best man, and to the battleship Florwedding march. Mrs. Ralph Robinson and Mrs. Edward Reid sang preceding will the ceremony.

Toas, in the East, Lieuwedding march. Mrs. Ralph Robinson and Mrs. Edward Reid sang preceding the ceremony.

The reception which followed important to pass the pass of the ceremony.

The reception which followed important to pass the pass of the ceremony.

The reception which followed important to pass the pass of the ceremony.

The reception which followed important to pass the pass of the ceremony.

The reception which followed important to pass the pass of the will be passed to the ceremony. Mrs. Solomon Hirsch entered of the close friends at tea Thursday at her handsome home. The celebrity was entertained a great deal during his brief visit in this city. One of the interesting affairs was the luncheon presided over by Mr. and Mrs. William Trufant Fester, of Reed College, Friday at the University Club. Sir Johnstone kept the guests intensely interested by relating will join her husband, and remain for a visit with her mother. Later she will go to San Francisco when the Florida sails for that port, and it is probable she will come North to this city, her former home.

Miss Anna Marie Schacht and G. Albert Haehlen were married Thursday night at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

A choir of 25 voices singing the wed-A choir of 25 voices singing the wedding march from "Lohengrin," led the procession. The wedding music was played by Helmuth Krause, and preceding the ceremony, Miss Heien Fromme sang "O Promise Me." A violin quartet, consisting of Miss Elsie Lewis, Miss Florence McElroy, Joseph Heiler and Mr. Eric, played "Bridal Minuet," composed by E. O. Spitzner.

Gunther Krause and Eugene Hahn were the ushers. Miss Lillian Zeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Zeller, was ring bearer, Miss Madeline Haehign and Miss Harriet Krueger were the flower girls.

and Miss Harriet Krueger were the flower girls.

The bride, attended by Miss Hedwig Haehlen, sister of the bridegroom, was attired in a handsome gown of white charmeuse, elaborated with shadow lace. From a headdress of orange blossoms hung a filmy wedding vell to the hem of a court train. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Hedwig Haehlen wore a gown

Miss Hedwig Haehlen wore a gown of pale blue crepe de chine, and carried pink roses. Arnold Zeller was the best man.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Haehlen, the parents of the bridegroom. The color scheme throughout was pink and white with clusters of carnations.

Miss Alice Dabney entertained with a delightful dance Friday evening at her home in Mount Tabor, her guests including about 36 of the sub-debutants set. The rooms were decorated prettily with quantities of Oregon grape and clusters of pink carnations. Each girl received a colonial bouquet and the boys were given boutonnieres.

The invitational list included: Misses Margaret Platt, Martha Hoyt, Evelina Magruder, Barbara Macey, Ethel Malpas, Amy Robinson, Dorine Wyld, Helen Page, Helen Jones, Dorothy Collins, Dorothy Condon, Katherine Laidiaw, Nancy Holt, Mary Morrison, Susan Chenery, Consuelo McMillan and Katharine Schnabel; Robert McNary, Harry Stevens, Royce Greatwood, Robert Warrens, Carter Magruder, Edward Thompson, Eric Peterson, Brazie Effinger, Wayne Stewart, Lansing Laidiaw, Preston Holt, Charles Stolte, Charles Schnabel, Frank Nau, Alfred Parker, Bob Morrison, Reed Ellsworth, Willard Wells, Ned Hyskell and Lawrence Porter.

In honor of the recently appointed Japanese Consul to Portland, K. Kumasaki, Mr. and Mrs. Orange M. Clark presided at a charming and elaborate dinner party Thursday evening. The appointments of the table were carried out in the Japanese colors, an artistic arrangement of brilliant red carnations and freesia forming the principal adornment. In addition to the honored guest there were Mr. and Mrs. John F. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson W. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George B. McLeod, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sifton, P. Urabe and the hosts, who have but recently returned from a brief visit to California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Latta's interest-Mr. and Mrs. John Latta's interesting house guest and relative, Miss Latta, from Sociland, was the complimented guest at Mrs. George S. White-side's pretty luncheson on Thursday. In addition to Miss Latta, covers were laid for Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mrs. Latta, Mrs. Thomas E. Erskine, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke, Mrs. Margaret Burrell-Biddle, Mrs. David A. Shindler and the hostess.

Mrs. John G. Edwards also complimented Miss Latta with a charming luncheon during the week, her guests numbering 12.

Mrs. John G. Edwards also complimented Miss Latta with a charming luncheon during the week, her guests in umbering 12.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the informal tea for which Miss Maisie MacMaster was hostess Friday afternoon at her attractive home in Ardgour, honoring Miss Marian Davisson, popular and much-feted house guest of Miss Claire Wilcox. Brightly hued blossoms suggesting the early approach of Spring were used effectively about the rooms, and the pretty table was presided over by Mrs. Alfred A. Aya. The guests included: Miss Davisson, Mrs. Landon Randolph Mason, Mrs. Charles C. Hindman, Miss Claire Wilcox, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Cornella Scame Sullivan and Robert J. Mackenzie, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Cornella Scame Sullivan and Robert J. William Scalille Hart, Miss Evelyn Carey, Miss Sallie Hart, Miss Evelyn Carey, Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Barbara Mackenzie, Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Louise Burns, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Charlotte Laidlaw, Miss Isabella Gauld and Miss Allsa MacMaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell left for a Cecil Bruner roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell left for a mount or pure format with velvet, and worn with small black velvet hat and corsage of the family and close friends. Time for the East for an extended true for the brade suit, tribude and the guests included members of the table was exquisitely appointed, and two velves that and corsage of the family and close friends. Time for the East for an extended true for the brade suit, tribude and two velves that and corsage of the family and close friends. Time for the East for an extended true for the brade suit, the part of the parents of the family and close friends. The table was exquisitely appointed, and the guests included members of the family and close friends. The table was exquisitely appointed, and the guests included members of the family cella Gauld and Miss Allsa MacMaster.

Mrs. J. Coulson Hare was a charm-

Mrs. J. Coulson Hare was a charming hostess on Monday afternoon to the members of the Monday Musical Club and honor guests Madame Valaire, of Paris, and Mrs. J. W. Saddler, of Aurora, Or.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson arranged a most delightful musical programme, after which elaborate refreshments were served in a Japanese tea garden. Mrs. Hare was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Taft and Mrs. E. M. Baker. In the tea garden, Mrs. Lee Arnett served punch, Mrs. G. J. Frankel and Mrs. Lillian Conser presided at the tea table, assisted by Mrs. Suzanne Patterson, Mrs. E. L. Pettis, Mrs. W. B. Hare and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Many beautiful gowns were worn.

and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Many beautiful gowns were worn.

Mrs. Hare received in an imported white charmeuse with overdress of duches lace and a corsage of red roses.

Little Frances Hare, daintily gowned Little Frances Hare, daintily gowned in white dotted swiss, opened the door for the guests. The musical programme consisted of trios by Marie Chapman, violinist; Miss Josephine Wagoner, 'cellist: Miss Katherine Kern, pianist, contralto solos, Mrs. Virginia Hutchinson; dramatic readings, Mrs. Percy Louis: accompanists, Miss Martha B. Reynolds and Miss Ruth Crittenden.

Mrs. John Francis Shea left Wednesday night for New York to visit her ars. John Francis Shea left Wednes-day night for New York to visit her son, Frank Shea. Later she will go to Louisville to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Castleman, returning to Portland via Los Angeles and San Francisco to visit another daughter, Mrs. Roland Chapman. Mrs. Shea will be away shout three months. be away about three months.

At a charming home wedding Wednesday evening Miss Eleanor Menefee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Menefee, became the bride of Linwood B. Cornell. The ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Boyd, and was followed by a large reception. About 60 relatives and intimate friends attended the coremony, and 200 addi-

CHARMING YOUNG BRIDE OF

Mrs. G. Albert Hachlen.

Ask for SCRIP -- a mile in travel for a dollar in trade

—the quaintest, prettiest Spring Hats in many a year

-Another bevy of charming creations have just come in from New York and will be on special display Monday. Exclusive models, personally selected by our Mr. Kerble, who has been in New York now over a month.

-Here's just a hint of the smart features EXTRA

One fetching Tipperary shape of blue straw, crown draped in ropes of colored beads. Black draped face veil.

Black lace and net flaring sailor, with wreath of black patent leather flowers. Chin-Chin Sailors—very smart straws.

New Japanese straws in Puritan, Belgian Padre and Tipperary shapes.

Little theater bonnet of blue velvet and pink rosebuds.

—Among the newest shades are the Belgian blue, sand and putty.

—Come and try on these charming Hats tomorrow. Your inspection cheerfully invited, whether you wish to choose a Spring Hat now or later. -As usual, prices extremely moderate!

See many of them in our windows today.

MONDAY!

To $17.50 Coats

$6.95

Coats in mixtures and plaids. Stylish and serviceable. Coats that sold up to $17.50, Monday $6.95 SUITS that sold up to $30.00-for quick

$10.00

-that sold up to $47.50-for quick

$14.95 selling

selling

One big lot splendid

HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 23.—
(Special.) — Misa Helen Hargreaves, the 17-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Hargreaves, will be graduated this week by the Hood River High School.

Miss Hargreaves has been prominent in her class work and in debating. Her name was engraved on the debating cup given the High School last Spring by the Hood River Woman's Club. Miss Hargreaves will leave next week with her father, formerly, paster of the Immanue.

merly pastor of the Immanuel Federated Church of this city, who leaves to take an Iowa City pastorate. Miss Hargreaves plans to enter Iowa University Imme-diately.

was followed by a large reception. About 69 relatives and intimate friends attended the ceremony, and 200 additional were asked for the reception.

The Menefee home in Irvington was delightfully artistic with floral decorations of green and white; huge palms, smilax, ferns and greenery were interspersed with white carnations and chrysanthenums, and twinkling amid the greenery were myriads of ting electric lights.

The bride, a charming and pretty girl, with exquisite coloring, was attiffed in a beautiful robe of ivory satin, with bediee of princess lace and tule, with bediee of princess lace and tule, with bediee of princess lace and tule, the long square train being edged with little plaitings of tule. Her veil was arranged in mob cap fashion, and was adorned with orange blossoms. A shower bouquet of orchids, bride roses, lilles of the valley and ferns completed her attractive costume.

Miss Charlotte Patterson was maid of honor and was attired in pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films alice. Her bouquet was of bridesmaid roses.

Harold Minor acted as best man, and the prosacement a month ago.

The wedding was to have taken place after Easter, but the bridegroom's business affairs necessitated a trip East shortly, so it was decided to have on the process and place are popular socially, and have been extensively enciency and the process of the relievance of the pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films of honor and was attired in pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films of honor and was attired in pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films of the valley and ferns completed her attractive costume.

Miss Charlotte Patterson was maid for seed, and the process of the pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films of honor and was attired in pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films of the valley and ferns complete the pale pink satin Francaise, embellished with films of the valley and ferns complete the process. The wedding was to have taken place at trip East shortly, their engagement a month ago.

The Chanticleers have postponed their January party until February 16, for which they are making extensive preparations.

Mrs. Abraham Meler entertained 1 friends at a charming and elaborate dinner party Saturday night as a sort

Any Coat in the House For Men and Women

$29 Values $35 to $55 Celebrated English Lines OVERSTOCKED

K. S. ERVIN & CO., LTD. Second Floor-Selling Bldg.

Use It for Baby

Santiseptic prevents and in-stantly relieves chafing or irri-tation. Keeps baby's skin sweet tation. Keeps baby's skin sweet and fresh, Heals overnight. Is sanitary, safe and refreshing. Better than powder for baby. You'll like its cleanly, healthy odor

Every mother should have supply, 50c, All druggists.

One of the interesting dancing parties of the season being looked forward to is the annual formal ball of the Portland Rowing Club, to be held next Thursday night in the assembly room of the Hotel Multnomah. This will be the third of the series of annual parties given by the rowing men. The committee of arrangements consists of Messrs. H. C. Chickering, Jacques Letz, Joseph F. Reisch, Rudolph F. Moliner, Arthur A. Allen and Edward Sammons. The patronesses will be Mrs. William J. Patton, Mrs. Percy E. Stowell, Mrs. Lewis H. Mills, Mrs. Herbert E. Judge, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur and Mrs. H. C. Chickering.

The annual meeting of the Drama League will take place in the Hotel Portland on Wednesday evening. Be-fere the election of officers, Dr. C. H. Chapman will read George Bernard Shaw's play, "Tygmalion." All mem-bers are urged to attend.

Another of the delightful parties for the children of the Irvington Club will be given Friday evening at the club. These parties are always well attended and have in every case proved delightfully jolly and interesting. Patronesses for Friday's event are Mrs. R. D. Carpenter, Mrs. John F. Logan, Mrs. Wilfred P. Jones, Mrs. Walter A. Goss and Mrs. Marion Versteg.

The Portland Rowing Club will give its third annual ball on Thursday even.

The Portland Rowing Club will give its third annual ball on Thursday even-ing at Hotel Multnomah. Patronesses are: Mrs. W. G. Patton, Mrs. P. E. Stowell, Mrs. H. G. Chickering, Mrs. R. W. Wilbur, Mrs. H. E. Judge, Mrs. L. H. Mills. Members of the commit-tee in charge are: A. A. Allen, Jacques Letz, E. C. Sammons, F. R. Newell, H. G. Chickering, J. F. Riesch and R. F. Mallner.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the week was presided over by Mrs. Byron E. Miller on Tuesday, followed by bridge. Eight tables were arranged in the prettily decked drawing-room for the games, and luncheon was served at the same tables. At each cover was placed a dainty pink basket with a placed a dainty pink basket with a tiny French bouquet fastened to the handles. Red carnations, poinsettias, Oregon grape and paims were used ef-fectively about the rooms. High scor-ers at each table received a kewpie doll, and card honors fell to Mrs. H. T.

Only one more week of this wonderful once-a-year opportunity in rug buying.

ENTIRE STOCK ORIENTAL RUGS 1/4 OFF

We are confident that one-fourth off from our original regular low prices affords by far the best opportunity to purchase Oriental Rugs of the same quality than any other sale offers in the city.

This has been proven in the past by those who have been in the market for rugs and who have made a strict investigation of all salesand all present and future rug buyers are requested to do the same for their own satisfaction and benefit.

Cartozian Bros. IMPORTERS OF ORIENTAL RUGS.

473 Wash., Bet, 13th and 14th.

Engraved Stationery, Cards Announcements

Second Floor Gill's

THE J. K. GILL CO., Third and Alder, Booksellers, Stationers and Complete Office Outfitters.

Drawing to a Close Prices Lower Than Ever

IEBES' FURS are recognized as the best in quality and style. A Liebes garment is a style criterion. In buying a Liebes Fur you save the middleman's profit - and at this sale you can buy for less than the net wholesale cost of most fur dealers. Every guarantee satisfactory or your money back! Inspect at Your Leisure.

Fur Coats, Neckpieces, Muffs, Sets, etc.-All Sacrificed