"COSTLY" ECONOMY IS FELT IN CURRY COUNTY

Nation's Retrenchment in Mail Service Regarded as Blow to District's Development.

The life of the ploneer has its pleas

The life of the ploneer has its pleasures, yet it always has had and always necessarily will have its hardships. Though the lines of the frontier are gradually closing in, growing smaller and dimmer each year, it has The control of the first interval and the control of the control o

OLD BEACH, Curry County, Or. | term "exorbitant taxes," from which Feb. 5.—(To the Editor.)—I real they are demanding relief, and the wily

Gold BEACH, Curry County, Or, Item "exorbitant taxes," from which less Curry County's insignificance and lack of importance due to the lack of votes in the great political game which leads to the seeming careless indifference and unconcern to what are only the just and right claims of this one particular district. Aution of the foundation principle of our Government, equal rights and instruction of the foundation principle of our Government, equal rights and justice to all.

Neither am I delided by the belief that many other sections of the West which have become the victims of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, But I do write to the present the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, and the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, and the principle of the present "highbrow" Administration, and the principle of the present of the principle of the present the principle of the present of the principle of

Where there were three routes to the railrond a year ago there is only one now, and it is the most indirect of the three.

As it is now, all mail must go by directly and the state is now, all mail must go by directly and the rest of the problem is as intricate as the problem is as intricate as the problem is as intricate as the problem of old. "How old is Ann." It is a "cinch" before you could reach an outside postwith a letter and recent and an additional than a letter and recent and a state of the problem is as intricate as the problem is as intricate and the problem is an interest of problem in the problem is an interest and problem in the problem is an interest and problem is an interest and problem in the problem is an interest and problem is an interest and problem in the problem i

PORTLAND, Feb. 11.—(To the Editor)—Just a word in regard to the much-discussed jitney question. I believe the main reason that jitneys are welcomed by the public is the fact that the streetcar company does not furnish the right type of car for its patrons. Compare our streetcar system with that
