

Miss Cecil Miller MEMBERS OF CHI OMEGA FRATERNITY WHO WILL ENTERTAIN WITH SILVER TEA WEDNESDAY

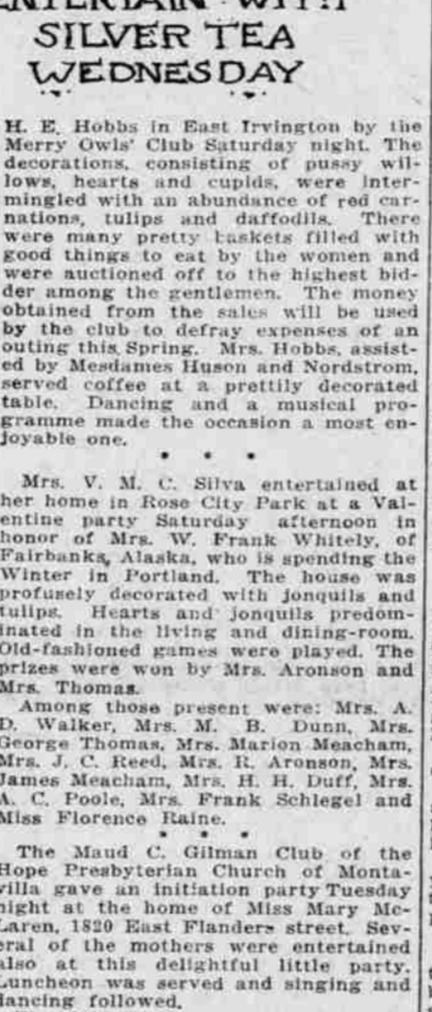

Mrs. Herbert Barber

(Continued From Page 2.) to Kansas City, Kan., and were married. The 25th anniversary of this marriage was happily celebrated at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Sawyer last night in the presence of 150 members of the Christian Church and friends from Vancouver and Portland. The Sawyer home was artistically decorated with lilacs, representing lavender and old lace, and old flowers. As Miss Verda Smith played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" the bride party descended the old-fashioned staircase. First came Rev. A. D. Skaggs, past 70 years old, on whose arm leaned little Park Sawyer, bearing the wedding ring. Mrs. Edwin Beckwith, of Portland, a sister of Mrs. Sawyer, was matron of honor, carrying a large bouquet of carnations and roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Lillian Goodnight, Ethel Smith, Beverly Sharp, Ona Knight, Vera Reynolds and Grata Smith, carried bouquets of tulips. Miss Jessie Lynne Sawyer attended her mother and Harold Sawyer attended his father, and the bridal couple slowly passed through the lines formed by the bridesmaids on either side. The bride wore her wedding dress of 25 years ago, with a veil and carried a large bouquet of pure white carnations. Under soft lavender light, which cast a soft glow over the principals, Rev. Skaggs and the bride couple exchanged each other's fingers rings symbolic of their vows of 25 years ago. Miss Beverly Sharp sang "My Morning" and "Because." Mrs. E. L. Crawford, of Portland, sang "Happy Day" and "Annie Laurie." Following the shower of congratulations, refreshments were served in the dining-room, which was decorated in hearts. Many silver gifts were presented, including a silver electric coffee percolator, a sugar and creamer, from the congregation of the Christian Church. The ring given to Mr. Sawyer by his wife is a family heirloom. The bride's hair was styled in the fashion worn by Mr. Sawyer's mother at her marriage. The 47th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barker was celebrated at their home, 250 East Fifty-third street, Tuesday. They were married February 16, 1868, in an Eureka county, Iowa, located in Albany, Or., the following year. The house was decorated with Spring flowers and ferns in large bowls, the reception table was a large oval table, where an elaborate dinner was served. The bride and groom were assisted by Mrs. B. J. Barker and Mrs. Sarah Moore. The following were present: Mesdames Cora Boulaner, Elizabeth Dunning, Ella L. Lovejoy, Anna Manning, Dora Twigger, Millie Pugh, Carrie Holman, Margaret Hooker, Reekka Trice, Mary E. Taylor, Cecelia Koerber, Caroline Beck, Fidelity I. Mann, Cynthia Crider, Ray Holman, Margaret Becker, Sarah E. Moore, Anna Lucy, Olive Epper, Frances M. Campa, Wilhelmina Hoffman, Ida Bosler, Iona Shryock, Sara J. Wagner, Rose Merriman, Mary L. Coleman, Claudia E. Lawrence, L. A. Flower, F. Paula and Clarke, Helen Z. Evans, J. D. Gray, Mary Cooke, Emma Wingert, Margaret Lewis, B. J. Barker, Carrie Bryson, Mattie Griffith, Pearl E. Young, Pearl Hughes and Ollie F. Stephens. At the home of Mrs. E. P. Preble, 875 East Twenty-ninth street North, the women of the Alameda Park Club gave their most elaborate party of the present season on Tuesday evening. Dinner was served at 8 o'clock, covers being laid for 40. In the entertainment, which followed, each guest contributed his quota and the result was amusing and most original. The color scheme of the decorations, carried out in pink hearts of graduated sizes, blossoms, and greenery, was charming. This effect was enhanced by the costumes of the women, all representing pink Valentines, the beautifully decorated tables and the soft light from pink-shaded candles. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Reichtold, Mr. and Mrs. Milos Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Oakleaf, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Preble, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Sharpe, Mrs. Charles Seeburger, Dr. and Mrs. Ewald K. Scott, Rev. and Mrs. Oswald W. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Varney, Mrs. Catharine Westaway and Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wilson. One of the most enjoyable social dances of the season was the "hop" given Friday at Cottillon Hall. It was

Miss Cecil Miller

Miss Sybil Brown

an elaborate Valentine's party, with hundreds of hearts and streamers forming the decoration. A large crowd enjoyed the new feature, the throwing of serpentine and confetti. The committee on inter-school "hops" announces its next party as an elaborate Easter party on April. Many plans of novelty, similar to other parties, already are being planned. The committee that planned the dance includes the Misses Corrine Kellogg, Virginia Brown, Bertha van Dersamer, Marion Hoban, Alice Campbell, Helen Bracht, Marie Beach, Edna Holcomb, Lucile Dudley, and Eugene Belland, Layman Bennett, Lee Waldron, Carl Caesar, L. L. Pickens, Theodore G. Omond, E. J. Dalton, W. R. Money, F. J. Nielson, George A. Harding, T. H. Stanton and Misses Nieta Harding, Fannie G. Porter, Kate L. Porter, Bessie Dalton, C. Barclay Pratt, Maude Anderson, Merle Keck, Helen Dalton, Eleanor Brodie, Hester Dannemann and Margaret Nielson. The Blake McFall Society of Applied Psychology gave a dinner at The Hill, Twenty-third and Washington streets, Monday night. The following officers and members were present: President, O. W. Mielke; vice-president, General Manager Blake, McFall and Company; vice-president, F. C. Wasserman, secretary and treasurer, Blake, McFall Company; secretary, A. C. Wright; treasurer, D. M. Pannett; Clinton L. Shorne, Arthur D. Hoefeld, T. J. Canavan, J. C. Cormack, W. L. Walsh, Bruce Hollingsworth, C. C. Johnson, T. S. Nisbet, Earl R. Fliske, H. S. Searle, George Gothardt, W. T. Barber, J. F. Bell, H. P. McCullough, H. J. Johns, F. Crowther, R. L. Carson, R. R. Vinson, W. F. Gotthardt, Willis Hembrer, F. Dunham, D. Yatesman and Kenneth O'Loane. An elaborate Valentine's party was given last Friday night by the Triads, their clubrooms presenting a gala appearance for the occasion, being most attractively adorned with hundreds of red hearts festooned across the room, Cupids and great bunches of pussy willows. The evening was passed dancing the latest dances, after which a supper was served, the tables being prettily and appropriately decorated for the occasion. The committee in charge was: Ruth Brady, Catherine Franey, Anita Geisness, Fay Kandle, May Thayer and Isabelle Murphy. Mrs. B. Davis and Mrs. E. McOmber acted as patronesses. About 75 young people participated in the club's hospitality. Miss Freda E. H. Leltner entertained with a Valentine party at her studio, on Saturday. Musical numbers preceded the affair and a vocal solo by little Miss Dorothy Hill was enjoyed. Following the programme the afternoon was passed in games. Refreshments were served. The following were present: Mayte Lawrence, Dorothea Kester, Madelyn Walker, Dorothy Fisher, Dorothy Hill, Annetta Lawrence, Maxine Walker, Dorothy Hainey, Helen Gableson, Clara Lane, Helen Orville, Theodore Koster, Collis Sutherland, Leland Luft, Charles Walker, Lewis Fisher, LuTrelle Penn. An event of last week was the delightful Valentine basket party given at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs.

Spring Millinery Display Styles to Suit the Most Original and Critical Tastes

Exclusiveness and distinctiveness are both pictured in our Spring Creations--and best of all, our hats tell a tale of fair merchandising and low prices --We think you could find no prettier hats in America --It will be a pleasure to show you about, particularly so tomorrow The Wonder Millinery At Morrison and Fourth Streets school, "Just Before the Battle, Mother," by Arthur Harbaugh; recitation, by Adele Jones; "Maryland, My Maryland," by Mrs. Mitchell; recitation in costume, by eight boys and girls of Madeline school; "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," by Mrs. J. S. Bradley; address, "The War and its Lessons for America," by William D. Wheelwright; "The Star-Spanned Banner," poem by Miss Nina Lawler, choir and audience. The Kansas Jayhawker Society of Oregon will meet February 26 in Masonic Temple, West Park and Yamhill streets. The principal feature of the entertainment will be an illustrated lecture by C. C. Chapman, of the Portland Commercial Club. Views of the scenic places of Oregon and the agricultural resources of the state will be shown. The views were taken expressly to be exhibited at Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco and are the finest obtainable. Members of other state societies are invited to join with the former residents of the Siskiyou State in the entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Pettit, of 7929 Thirtieth street, entertained the Avenue Club, a five hundred club, Tuesday. Prizes were awarded to Harry C. Pettit, Mrs. F. M. Siefert and George Gardner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Catherine Senn, Francis Jacobberger, Vincent Jacobberger, Clement Alstock, Malcolm McLean, George Mayo, Willie Brooks and Carl Senn. Games were played and Master Carl Senn rendered a number of violin selections. He is a student at the Columbia University and is well known to the musical people of Portland as a violinist. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Theodore Senn. Mrs. M. C. Silva entertained at her home in Rose City Park at Valentine party Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. Frank Whitely, of Fairbanks, Alaska, who is spending the winter in Portland. The house was profusely decorated with jonquils and tulips. Hearts and jonquils predominated in the living and dining-room. Old-fashioned games were played. The prizes were won by Mrs. Aronson and Mrs. Thomas. Among those present were: Mrs. A. D. Walker, Mrs. M. B. Dunn, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Marion Meacham, Mrs. J. C. Reed, Mrs. R. Aronson, Mrs. James Meacham, Mrs. H. H. Duff, Mrs. A. C. Poole, Mrs. Frank Schlegel and Miss Florence Raine. The Maud C. Gilman Club of the Hope Presbyterian Church of Montavilla gave an initiation party Tuesday night at the home of Miss Mary McLaren, 1829 East Flanders street. Several of the mothers were entertained also at this delightful little party. Luncheon was served and singing and dancing followed. The club members present were: Mrs. Maud C. Gilman, Mrs. Hallett, the Misses Gretchen, Dickinson, president; Sylvia Lee, vice-president; Opal Hallett, secretary; Louise Dumas, treasurer; Laura Dumas, Mary MacLaren, Rose Garretti, Arema Morrison, Eva Johnston, Ethel Coleman, Laura Gard, Ruth Dunagan, Florence Funk and Gertrude Weiralt. The Ladd's Addition Kindergarten party held last Friday afternoon in the Evangelical Church was one of the most enjoyable parties for children this season. It was in the nature of a Valentine entertainment. Miss Edith Potter, director, was assisted by Miss Hazel Cleveland, pianist; Miss Hazel Wood, assistant. Twenty-five children enjoyed stringing hearts, playing games and listening to fairy tales. Little Miss Margaret Johnson, escorted by Master Robert Thornton, carried a prettily decorated basket filled with Valentines, which she distributed to the guests. A group of young friends of Master Carl Senn surprised him last Tuesday night on his 17th birthday with a party. The following made up the party: Lucille McFarland, Elizabeth McLean, Alice Lahala, Dorothy Mountain, Julia O'Donnell, Helen Hendricks. A pleasant evening was enjoyed last Thursday at the home of Miss Ann Walker, on Terrace road, when the trio, "Bill" Barth, Sid Wetman and Owen Durkin, furnished music. Miss Shannon also rendered vocal and piano selections. Those enjoying the hospitalities were the Misses Marie Shannon, Alice Walker, Ann Walker, and Sid Wetman, Owen Durkin, "Bill" Barth, Edwin Runquist, Ivon Hutton and Mr. Still. A much entertained bride of the past week was Mrs. Don Howe (Bertha Koontz), formerly of The Dalles. Several affairs were given in her honor, among which was a theater party at the Orpheum and a dinner at the Hotel Benson. Around the table which was especially decorated for the occasion were seated Mrs. Don Howe, Mrs. Raymond M. Carse, Mrs. George W. Sitt, Mrs. Charles Duncan and Mrs. Rosa Block. Mr. and Mrs. Howe left for Seattle, where they will make their future home. The Fleur-de-lis "500" Club was elaborately entertained by Mrs. J. M. Capek Thursday afternoon. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. C. H. Johnston, Mrs. W. H. Bewley and Mrs. Dakins. Those present were: Mrs. R. L. Bewley, Mrs. W. H. Bewley, Mrs. F. E. Berry, Mrs. E. S. Blair, Mrs. J. J. Curran, Mrs. J. M. Capek, Mrs. Dakins, Mrs. C. H. Johnston, Mrs. W. S. MacSwain, Mrs. J. P. Merrill, Mrs. E. R. Thomas, Mrs. J. P. Van Over. Mrs. T. F. Harrington entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club with a luncheon at the Sunset Hotel grill. Covers were laid for Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, Mrs. W. M. Seward, Mrs. Lewis Tibball, Mrs. Hugh Platt, Mrs. Justin W. McCachron, Mrs. William A. Miller, Mrs. James Morrell, Mrs. Clinton Mooney, Mrs. Catching, Mrs. Frank Hodson, Mrs. Rainey and the hostess. Miss Esther Peterson entertained a Valentine card party at her home, 21 East Fifteenth street, on Friday. The house was artistically decorated with hearts and ferns. The guests were Miss Ruby Proccm, Miss Helen Miller, Miss

Your Freckles

Need Attention in February and March or Face May Stay Covered. Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use ethine--double strength. This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of ethine--double strength--and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.--Adv.

Ladies' Suits $40 DE BLANCHE LADIES' TAILOR Globe Bldg. 408 Washington St.

DRESS FORMS Moulded over your own figure. You can finish your garment from collar to hem without a personal fitting. Ask about them. Yourform Mfg. Co. 629 E. 59th St. No. Tabor 5846

Phone Your Want Ads to The Oregonian Main 7070, A 6095