

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION LOOKS UP IN HER WORLD

Multnomah County Sessions, to Be Held in Centenary Methodist Building on February 25 and 26, Hold Many Features of More Than Passing Interest.

An event that will gain the attention of a large number of churches in this county is the Multnomah County Sunday School Association convention, in Centenary Methodist Church, February 25 and 26. Many special features will be held during the two days, and the sessions will be of more than passing interest.

Of importance will be the lecture on the modern Sunday school to be given by a distinguished visitor, Rev. John H. Matthews, of Seattle. The session devoted to the Graded Union of Sunday School Workers will be a helpful feature of the convention, and it is anticipated that there will be found inspiration and practical suggestions that will be invaluable to teachers and those planning to teach.

The young people of today must be interested and their lessons at Sunday school must be made attractive. To hold them and keep them interested is the aim of the Graded Union.

Rev. W. Bacon, of the First Christian Church, will be the orchestra to assist in the convention programme. Mrs. H. H. Wright will preside at the organ and singing will be led by D. J. W. McMichael and Rev. Frank W. Gorman. Dr. McMichael is an enthusiastic leader, who met with the Graded Union at Westminister Church. Rev. W. Gorman is a singer well known in Oregon.

The programme in full follows:

Jessie M. Honeyman, of La Grande, gave an address on Honolulu, the Hawaiian Islands. Mrs. Honeyman had visited the islands and spoke interestingly.

At the current events class, which meets in the First Presbyterian Church at the close of the morning preaching service every Sunday, the discussion next Sunday will be led by Rev. Manning, secretary of the Associated Charities. His subject will be "Social Service Work." An opportunity will be given to those who attend to enter into the discussion at the close of the address.

The Waverly Heights Congregational Church, Woodward and East Thirty-third street, will hold a special song service at 7:30 Sunday night in memory of America's most noted woman song writer, Fanny J. Crosby. "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Saved by Grace," "Welcome to Me" and other well-known songs will be sung by W. P. Harold Coates and others. The hymns, instrumental music and choruses will be by the Fraser Family Trio. Rev. A. C. Moses will speak on the subject, "Fanny Crosby, Herself, and Her Songs."

CHURCH WORKERS PROMINENT IN THE WEEK'S ACTIVITIES.

Dr. J. Earle Elise, president of the Multnomah County Sunday School Association, will be at the active part in the coming Sunday school convention.

Rev. Benjamin Young, former pastor of the First Methodist Church, will occupy the pulpit of that church this morning and will return to Topeka, Kan., tonight.

Rev. Charles A. Phelps, general secretary of the Oregon State Sunday School Association, will be one of the leaders in religious work in the state.
