STANISLAUS AGAIN IN RUSSIAN HANDS

Roumanian Report Says Advance of Austrians in Galicia Is Checked.

WARSAW BELIEVED SAFE

Petrograd Deduces That Germans Arc Using Their Perfect Railway System to Reinforce Line in Poland at New Point.

LONDON, Feb. 27 .- News that the Russians had recaptured Stanislaus was received in London today from Hertza, Roumania. It was said also that Kon mea had fallen into Russian hands. The importance of this news is due to the indication it conveys that the Austrian advance into Eastern Galicia had been definitely checked. definitely checked.

Heavy fighting preceded the recapture of these two towns. The Russians occupied Stanislaus on Friday. Advancing in force from that point, they attacked the Austrian position at Kolomea. The Austrians offered determined resistance, but finally were forced to give way. Warsaw Regarded as Safe.

The Russian staff believe that War-saw is safe for the present from at-tack, the German center having been tack, the German center having been turned from its original purpose of advancing on that point, which Germany is said to desire to hold for political as much as for military reasons. Admiralty Issues Statement. The British Admiralty today issued the following statement:

"The entrance to the Dardanelles was guarded by four principal forts, namely, Cape Helles Battery, Fort Seddul Bahr, Fort Orkhanich Tabla and Fort Kum Kalossi Tabia, which will be described for convenience as A, B4, C and D These forts were armed as follows: A, two 9.2 guns; B, six 10.2 guns; C, two 9.2 guns; D, four 10.2 and two 5.5

guns.
"The weather having improved, although the wind was still from the southwest, the attack on these forts was resumed Thursday morning, Februs 1988 and 1988 and ruary 25, at 10 o'clock.

"The Queen Elizabeth, Agamenon, Ir-restatible and Gaulois began by delib-erately bombarding forts A, B, C and D, respectively, at long range.

"Fort A replied. One shell, at 11,000 yards, hit the Agamemnon, killing three and seriously wounding five. The Irresistible and Gauleis made excellent practice on Forts C and D, while the Character Elegabeth concentrated with Queen Elizabeth concentrated with great accuracy on Fort A, putting both of its guns out of action by about "The Suffren and Charlemagne next delivered an attack on Forts C and D, advancing to within 2000 yards of them. It was then seen that they were in no condition to offer an effective resist

"The Vengeance, Triumph and Albion were then ordered into complete the reduction of the fortifications. All four were reduced by 5:15 P. M.

"Sweeping operations, covered by a division of battleships and destroyers, were immediately begun. The enemy set fire to a village at the entrance as darkness fell.

"A report also has been received of the operations of February 26. The straits had been swept up to four miles from the entrance. The Albion and Majestic, supported by the Vengcance, proceeded to the limit of the swept area and began an attack on a fort and some new batteries on the Asiatic

The fire in reply was ineffective. After being shelled from inside the straits, the enemy retired from the forts at the entrance and in the afternoon demolishing parties were landed at Kum Kaie and Seddul Bahr (Seddel Bahr) from the Vengeauce and Irresistible. Forts A, B and C were then completely and fort D were partially demolished.
