

SAUCILY TRIM IS KHAKE-KOOL SILK COSTUME FOR TRIG MILITARY MAID

Brass Eagle Buttons Are in Evidence on Short Jacket, Known as Joffre Coat—Belt of Red Suede With Leather Straps Goes With Full Skirt Above Unadorned Pumps.

Most Military Is This Frock of Khaki-kool and Scarlet Silk

To Be Smart, The Tailleur Must Be Sharp

SAUCILY trim and trig as the heart of a military maid could wish is this little costume of the new khaki-kool silk in natural tone with coat linings and pipings of scarlet pussy willow taffeta.

The belt is of red suede with red leather straps, and the full skirt with its new side pockets is short enough to show stockings of natural silk and new pumps without vestige of bow or buckle.

BY LILLIAN TINGLE. Portland, Feb. 4.—Will you kindly tell me of some way to cook calves' brains besides frying and creaming? We find those a little monotonous.

any way in which you are in the habit of using sweetbreads. I don't know that the following is what you want, but you might try it. Some of the crumbs are sometimes soaked in a little sherry, or rum, or mustard, any of which will give a "crisp" sort of taste to a bread ice cream. Another way is to use equal parts brown bread crumbs and macaroni crumbs, or one-third bread crumbs, one-third macaroni crumbs and one-third finely chopped nut meats.

Portland, Feb. 11.—Will you please give me the recipe for K bread, as it is being now used in Germany?—Inquirer. I cannot, of course, give the exact formula used by the German bakers.

egg yolks, one cup vinegar. Beat together and cook over hot water until thick. Cool in a covered glass jar. When wanted for use dilute with a small quantity with cream, or beat in a little melted butter and dilute with milk, or beat in oil and milk, or whip cream, or cream and whipped egg to secure the proper consistency for the particular salad you are making.

Lent Is Time to Recuperate From Bustle of Year.

THE melancholy days of Lent soon will be upon us and we shall hear the sighs of many women bewailing the lack of social activity and wondering what on earth to do with their time.

Lent is pre-eminently a time for rest. One woman who occupies a position in the gay occupations of society said the other day that she looked forward to Lent as the most enjoyable time of the year.

Whether you have any faith in any religious cult or not you could do nothing better for your health than adhere to the fast ordered by some of the churches. This is especially true of those who wish to reduce, nor will it do any less than fatten those who wish to gain weight.

Then the Spring styles are usually in before Lent begins and it is a good time to plan your Spring clothes, to make waists and dainty Summer dresses. One thrifty woman makes her Christmas presents for the next year in Lent.
