DRIVE BY COLTRIN HITS FOR BEAVERS

McCredie's Men Show They Have Batting Eye as Yore in Game With St. Mary's.

FISHER SMASHES HOMER

Hig's Bad Toss in Ninth Lets College Boys Tie Score, but He Redeems Self With Single, Paving Way to Victory.

FRESNO, Cal., March 6.—(Special.)—Like the Bobbie Coltrin, one of McCredie's new men from the Northwestern League, won the first practice game of the season against St. Mary's College here today by a long sacrifice fly in the ninth inning. The score was 7 to 6. Coltrin was easily the star of the contest, although Gus Fisher hit one out of the park.

Aside from delivering the hit that broke the tie in the last inning, bringing across Naughton with the winning run, Coltrin secured two singles and a double in five times at the plate and scored two runs. More than this, Bobbie fielded his position without an error, getting three assists and one put-out.

Hitting was heavy, a total of 21 swats being recorded. Fisher smashed out the first circuit breaker, a home run to left field. The recruits showed up well in hitting. Stumpf got a double and Murphy took two singles.

Errors Are Costly.

Murphy pulled one bad throw, however, that cost a run, and Hall threw one away at the plate.

It was a regular see-saw game. St. Mary's started off with two runs and Portland scored two more runs, and Coltrin by the fifth inning the college boys had evened the score. Portland took the lead in their half of the fifth and St. Mary's waited until the first of the ninth to tie the game.

Higginbotham, who replaced Rieger in the seventh, was saving them through, as he was desirous of ending the game as soon as possible.

Wilson opened the ninth by going out to Davis, who had replaced Hall at first. Higginbotham let Childs walk, who was out when Wilson hit to Coltrin. The recruits to catch Wilson off first, Higginbotham hurled the ball over Davis' head and Wilson reached third.

Hamilton walked. Guisto shot a fast one down to Murphy and Wilson scored with the tying run.

At the opening of the ninth, Higginbotham reduced the deficit by driving a single a foot, inside first base. Naughton hit to Childs, who forced Higginbotham at second. On the next pitch, Naughton attempted to steal, but he was caught by Coltrin. Naughton landed on third. Coltrin ended his good work of the day by poling a long fly to Maroni. Naughton beating the throw to the plate.

In the opening inning Childs slipped the first ball pitched to left for a double. Wilson hit an infield single and stole second. Both scored when, with two out, Murphy fielded Maroni's roller down third base line and threw it away at first.

In their half, the Beavers evened the score. Naughton flew out to Maroni. Coltrin singled to left. Doane flew out to right. Coltrin scored second. Stumpf pitched to center field and Naughton landed on third. Coltrin ended his good work of the day by poling a long fly to Maroni. Naughton beating the throw to the plate.

It was a game lost, pure and simple, because of the pitching, although when the thermometer dropped for the heavy hitters it took a downward slant as well for the infielders, who missed up the ball in such noteworthy fashion as to help in the general result.

The final showed 8 to 5 against the Seals.

D. RESTA IS VICTOR IN DEMONIC RACE

Vanderbilt Cup Contest Results in Disaster to Speed-Mad Drivers.

DEATH MOCKED ON CURVES

Burman One-Steps to Start Only to Be Wrecked—Wilcox and Pallen Drive as Tortoise and Pass Many Hares Before Finish.

EXPOSITION GROUNDS, San Francisco, March 6.—(Special.)—Repeating his performance in the Grand Prix race of a week ago, D. Resta, in his big Peugeot car No. 9, won the Vanderbilt cup race this afternoon in 42:17, nearly seven minutes ahead of Howard Wilcox in his Stutz No. 25, at an average speed of 87 1/2 miles an hour. Wilcox was second, closely followed by Eddie Tuller, Ralph De Palma in his Mercedes was fourth with William Carlson in his Maxwell fifth.

Bob Burman, who was in second place for many laps, was obliged to retire from the race when his car overturned on the curve at the race-track. Burman escaped injury, but his mechanicals' legs were broken. Barney Oldfield was obliged to stop several times during the race on account of engine trouble, which put him out of the chance to win the Vanderbilt.

More than 100,000 persons witnessed the race. The day was a typical California one with a blue sky and no wind. For hours before the start at 12:30 there was full expectation that the state poured in with the crowds to witness the greatest automobile race ever run.

Hares Drive Like Demons.

The race was thrilling from every standpoint. Late in the afternoon, with wheels almost locked, the cars ran. Never before in the history of racing has such a race been run. The racers drove like demons down the straightaways.

Capricious St. Francis, the patron saint of San Francisco's sunshine and shadows, elected to give a setting for the Vanderbilt race exactly contrary to that given the Grand Prix. Three hours of that race was run in a driving storm, with favorable wind under typical Spring conditions.

It is a curious thing that, where it was the confident prediction last Saturday that the morning would be a fair day, there was full expectation that the race would be a disaster.

MAJORITY, DESPITE BURNS ON HANDS, IS ABLE TO PITCH THREE INNINGS.

PLEASANTON, Cal., March 6.—(Special.)—The Oaks spent the morning at batting practice and sliding. Bill Mack returned from Oakland with both hands in bandages as a result of his battle with the clubhouse fire Thursday. Bill has two or three large blisters on each hand, but they aren't bothering him much this afternoon when he worked three innings for the Yans in their game against the Regulars. Ray Boyd is another pitcher who has about got the kinks out of his arm and from the way he is cutting the ball around seems sure of a job with the Oaks.

Neither Rowdy Elliott nor Dutch Kiewitter were in uniform today. Dutch has been bothered with chills, while Rowdy suffered all night with a bad attack of cramps. The Oaks will leave tonight for Oakland for a game with the White Sox tomorrow.

ILLINOIS ADDS TO HONORS.

CHICAGO, March 6.—By defeating the University of Chicago basketball team, 19 to 18, here tonight the University of Illinois five won the Western college conference championship. Illinois' athletes during the past year have won the baseball, football, track and now basketball championships of the conference.
