Dendlock Is Possible.

The Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to the budget and has cut the general appropriation bill $50,000. A deadlock is possible.

Speaker Conner questioned the right of the Senate to recall the first concurrent resolution and referred the matter to the rules committee for dead. ter to the rules committee for deci-sion. The reason for the Senate's action to rescind was that the House, having passed the budget and appro-priation bills, might decide to act on it western states, with a view to sub-mitting a practical plan beneficial to farmers. The commission will meet a month before Congress reconvenes to Demands Concerning Territory Have Chance of Consideration if Not Too Brusque-Greek Cabinet Ministers Resign.

BERLIN, via London, March 6.—The Italian situation is occupying the at-tention of serious-minded public men. Many newspapers give prominence to long dispatches from their Rome cor-respondents, who dwell on the insist-ence with which Italy is likely to press demands for territorial compensation for possible Austrian gains on the Balkans.

It is declared in well-informed Au-strian circles that Italy has presented Austria Inclined to Acquiesce.

A few weeks ago it seemed as if any suggestion along this line would be met with a flat refusal to cede an inch of Austrian territory, no matter by what euphonious phrase, such as "frontier regulation," it might be designated. At the present time, however, there are signs that Austria is more inclined to enter into the discussion, provided the Italian proposals are not presented in too brusque a form.
