REGENTS TO STUDY OREGON'S REQUESTS

Development of University to Be Attended by Vigorous Economy.

FEW SALARIES INCREASED

Question of Moving Law School to Eugene, Enlarging Departments and Putting Up New Buildings Put in Hands of Committee.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., March 13. — (Special.)—Internal strengthening, steady development and rigorous economy were the watchwords of the board of regents of the University of Oregon today, when they met to determine the policy along which the university should proceed under the millage tax, which goes into effect April 1.

The details of the policy proved so complicated, however, that the whole question was placed in the hands of a committee consisting of Regents Miller, Dixon, Hamilton, Churchill and Newell to go over thoroughly and report to a second meeting which will convene within two weeks.

Salaries Are Increased.

Besides appointing the special committee the regents completed three items of business. They increased to $2500 the salary of Professor John F. Bovard, of the department of zoology, who is now in the East and is considering an attractive offer from one of the large Eastern universities, and would have accepted unless inducements were offered here, and they gave to Mrs. E. S. Parsons, assistant professor, the rank of full professor with voting power in faculty meetings and in increase of $200 a year in salary. She, also, is the recipient of pressing offers elsewhere, and it was desired to retain her services. The board also signed a voucher for the current payment on the seven-acre tract south of the athletic field, which was purchased last year.

Eleven Regents Present.

Eleven of the 13 regents were present at the meeting. They were: Federal Judge Bean, president; Governor Withycombe, Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, of Dallas; William Smith, Baker; Frederick V. Holman, Portland; Milton A. Miller, Portland; S. H. Friendly, Eugene; W. K. Newell, Gaston; A. C. Dixon, Eugene; Charles H. Fisher, Salem; James W. Hamilton, Roseburg. Those unable to be present were: Ben W. Olcott, Secretary of State, and J. A. Churchill, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The issues of the construction of additional new buildings on the University of Oregon campus, the employing of a large number of new professors and instructors and the issue of bringing to Eugene the entire University of Oregon law school came before the board.

Three New Buildings Wanted.

The buildings contemplated are one for the school of music, one for the school of commerce and one for the school of education. These may all be combined in one, or may be united in two buildings, if the board adopts the plan of the president. Their construction, if granted by the board, is expected to take place within the next two years.

In the tentative report of the president two additional instructors are asked for in the school of architecture at salaries of $2000 each and $500 for equipment.

"Final action was asked at this time on the part of the board for the organization of a complete law course in Eugene. The first-year law, reported the president, "was offered a year ago; the second was added this year, and a class is ready for the third."

Members of the board of regents said that the board will decide within a few days whether or not Eugene is to get the entire law school or none. The sentiment is said to favor Eugene.

An additional instructor at $2500 is asked in this department under the present condition.

Additional Instructors Desired.

Three additional instructors are asked in the department of economics and sociology at $2700. The extension department asks another man at $1800. The school of journalism asks the installation of an $8000 printing plant and an instructor in printing at $1500. Additional courses in art are asked at an expenditure of $1500.

Additional instructors were reported needed as follows: Education, one at $1600, one at $1200; rhetoric, one at $2500; library, one at $900; Latin, one at $1400; zoology, one at $1000.

The board granted the expenditure of $750 for an exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

BRICE WALLACE NOW IS 88

Four Generations Celebrate Birth of Former Linn Treasurer.

ALBANY, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—With all of his eight children and relatives to the fourth generation present Brice Wallace, ex-County Treasurer of Linn County, celebrated his 88th birthday last Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Marshall, in this city. He has 31 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren, many of whom attended the celebration.

The eight children are W. L. Wallace, S. O. Wallace, F. E. Wallace and Mrs. Jennie Keebler, all of Lebanon; Robert Wallace and Mrs. Bertha Hawkins, of Portland, and Dr. J. P. Wallace and Mrs. A. B. Marshall, of Albany.

Mr. Wallace was born in Anderson County, Tennessee, in 1827, and came to Oregon in 1877. He settled on a farm near Lebanon and has resided in this county ever since. For the past few years he has been staying with his daughter, in this city. He served as County Treasurer of Linn County from 1892 to 1894.

PEACE SERVICES ORDAINED

Archbishop Christie Fixes March 21 as Date for Ceremonies.

Archbishop Christie, head of the Catholic archdiocese of Oregon, has ordained that special peace services shall be held on Passion Sunday, March 21, in all Catholic churches and chapels in accordance with a decree issued by the Secretary of State January 10.

The Archbishop announces that services shall be held in the following order:

In the morning, immediately after the last mass, the most blessed sacrament shall be exposed, after which the psalm miserere mei, Deus (Psalm 50) shall be sung with the antiphon: Da pacem, Domine, in diebus nostris, quia non est alius qui pugnet pro nobis nisi tu, Deus noster, followed by the versicle: Fiat pax in virtute tua; the response, et abundantia in turribus tuis, and the collect, Deus, a quo sancta desideria, etc. The most blessed sacrament shall then remain exposed for public veneration till evening. It is our earnest desire that arrangements be made whereby children also shall take prominent part in the public adoration.

In the evening before the reposition of the most blessed sacrament the third part of the rosary is to be recited, followed by the appended prayer, expressly composed by the holy father in order to obtain the benefit of peace; then the litany of the saints, according to the form prescribed for the devotion of 40 hours in the rituale Romanum. Immediately after the litany shall be sung the tantum ergo and benediction of the most blessed sacrament.

It is our express desire that no comment regarding the war, other than an earnest exhortation to prayers for peace, be made in any church on Passion Sunday or publicly at any time, in any place, by priests of our archdiocese.

DUNKIRK LEAVES TODAY

NOTORIOUS FORGER BEING TAKEN TO OMAHA FOR TRIAL.

Posing as Robert H. Duke, Son of Tobacco Manufacturer, Forged Drafts Are Negotiated.

In the watchful care of Detective Frank Williams, of Omaha, Robert H. Dunkirk, alias Duke, alias Drake, forger of note, who was captured in Portland last Sunday by City Detectives Tackaberry and Hellyer, will leave for Nebraska at 10 o'clock this morning. Dunkirk is wanted in Omaha for passing a bogus check for $500 on I. W. Van Haussen, manager of the Laemmle Film Service in that city.

Robert H. Dunkirk
Alias Robert Drake, Alias Robert Duke.

Dunkirk was captured in Portland on information sent from Omaha and since his capture has been connected with several other check-passing exploits found neatly recorded in a black diary which he carried.

Dunkirk's favorite strategy was to pose as Robert H. Duke, son of a millionaire tobacco magnate, and even had cards and stationery engraved with his name and that of the American Tobacco Company, of New York. He is also suspected of obtaining $1100 on a draft in Milwaukee and $5000 on a draft in Memphis, both drafts being forgeries.

Detective Williams has been in Portland several days, but only received the necessary extradition papers yesterday.

BINGER HERMANN TO SUE

Ex-Representative to Wage Fight for Frank Arant.

ROSEBURG, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—Binger Hermann, ex-Representative in Congress from this district, has signified his intention to bring suit against the Government in behalf of Frank Arant, deposed Crater Lake National Park superintendent, to recover back wages which he avers are due to Mr. Arant.

Mr. Arant in 1913 was asked by Secretary Lane, of the Interior Department, to resign in favor of Will G. Steel. Mr. Arant refused to resign on the grounds that he held office under the classified Civil Service. The matter was taken before the Civil Service Commission, and it ruled in favor of Mr. Arant.

Ex-Attorney-General McReynolds held differently, however, and upon his ruling Secretary Lane had Mr. Arant removed by a Federal Marshal.

ST. PAUL WOMAN DIES

Mrs. A. R. Coleman, 35 Years Old, Survived by Husband, Daughter.

ST. PAUL, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—Mrs. Anna Coleman, wife of A. R. Coleman, a prominent farmer of this section, died at the family home, two miles east of St. Paul, Wednesday, after a lingering illness of several months. Mrs. Coleman was born in Minnesota September 23, 1880, and came with her parents to Oregon in 1893. She was married to Mr. Coleman in 1901.

Mrs. Coleman was active in church and social circles. She is survived by a husband and an 11-year-old daughter, Mildred. The funeral was conducted from the St. Paul Church this morning and burial was in the local cemetery.

LEAP FREES ARRESTED MAN

Alleged Assaulter at Roseburg Escapes From Second Story.

ROSEBURG, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—By requesting to change his clothes, Virail Saxton, of Yoncalla, yesterday escaped by jumping from a second-story window after he had been placed under arrest by Constable Church. Saxton's arrest was sought by C. W. Ohlson, who charged him with assault with a dangerous weapon.

When Mr. Church went to Saxton's home he found his man seated on the front porch. After hearing the warrant read Mr. Saxton requested the privilege of changing his clothes. When he did not return in a reasonable time the officer went to investigate.

Fruit Meetings Planned at Lebanon.

ALBANY, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—In the interest of the establishment of a fruitgrowers' association in this section of the state, a delegation of Albany merchants will go to Lebanon next week to hold meetings. It is expected that 50 local men will make the trip, accompanied by the Albany band.
