

HOOKER SERIES NEAR

Vancouver's Chance to Win Championship Good.

OTTAWAS IN GOOD SHAPE

Frank Patrick's Bunch Has Advantage of Having Had Long Rest and of Being Familiar With Larger Ice Ring.

VICTORIA, B. C., Mar. 20.—Every lover of baseball in the United States knows and has experienced the feeling of interest that prevails just preceding the opening game of the world's series...

The Ottawa club, after its long journey across the continent, arrived on the coast today, the management declaring every man in the squad as fit as the proverbial fiddle to put up a struggle that will result in the world's championship resting with the East.

Vancouver Has Advantage. Having the advantage of several strong work-outs against picked teams in Portland and in Victoria, being more familiar with the larger ice rink and being completely rested from the three-month ordeal of the regular season, Frank Patrick has a bunch that will step into the fray next Monday night ready to play on or off its feet, despite the absence of Captain Griffiths whose ankle was broken recently.

Judging by the numerous inquiries made of the Vancouver management and the general opinion of those who are certain that capacity business will prevail at every contest. The seating capacity of 7500 at Vancouver should be taxed at every game and at prices ranging from 50 cents to $2, with an assured average of $1 for every one of the 7500 enthusiasts who will be there.

As for Frank Patrick and others who control the decisions of the world's champions, there will be plenty of returns for setting together a championship squad. Out of the receipts of the first three games, $25,000, $25,000 and $25,000 are guaranteed to be paid the Eastern champions for expenses. Thus $75,000 would remain, to be divided between the two teams, 40 per cent to the victor and 30 per cent to the loser.

Six and seven-man hockey will prevail. Pacific Coast rules holding good in the first, third and fifth games, while six-man hockey will be played in the second and fourth games.

CO-EDS TO HOLD TRACK MEET University of Washington Girls Are Practicing for Contests.

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, Wash., March 20.—(Special).—The women of the college, under the Women's Athletic Association, are planning to hold a track meet this Spring on the outside track.

There is considerable rivalry between the classes and the elementary science department, all of which will have teams entered. A large cup will be given to the winners of the meet. There are so many candidates for the teams that the events will be run off in relays and the winners in each will compete for the final places.

AGGIE CHANCES FADE

Hope Held by Stewart to Beat Oregon Is Slim.

LOSS OF STARS IS HEAVY

Majority of Candidates Pounding Away at Track Yet Have Not Shown Ability to Win Points in Conference Work.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 20.—(Special).—Our chances to defeat Oregon at track this year are less bright than they have been for a number of seasons.

The withdrawal of Dewey and Moses is one reason for "Doc's" gloom. The Aggie coach had Moses picked to give the team a boost, and the other Conference hurdlers a close race, and at the same time was confident that Dewey would lead the mileers. Both of these men have withdrawn from college, leaving the track situation about 40 per cent more in the gloom than it was.

Many on Team Untried. With the exception of Hobgood, Cole, Johnson, Reynolds, Kaddery, and possibly one or two others, the Aggie team this year will be composed of men who have not yet shown an ability to win points in Conference competition.

Kaddery Alone in 440. In the 440, Kaddery is the sole performer on the Heaver list. Rumor has it that "Kad" trotted through the quarter in less than 53 seconds on the hard Army track the other day. He is in prime condition.

Five sections were designated as places for holding sectional doubles track championships, as follows: Pacific Coast, Western, Eastern, Southwestern and Northwestern.

Newberg Defeats McMinnville. NEWBERG, Or., March 20.—(Special).—The Newberg High School basketball team last night defeated the McMinnville team, 27 to 9.

CHINESE MYSTERY

Howe, Oriental Boxer, Working Secretly to Meet Gordon.

GOOD CARD IS MADE UP

Imperial Club Promises Excitement for Ring Fans Friday—Wille Mack Being Groomed to Meet Eddie Flannigan.

Every effort is being made by Matchmaker Charley Jost, of the Imperial Club, to make the amateur boxing card the club will stage in Arion Hall next Friday better than any seen in Portland.

The headline event will be furnished by Abe Gordon, the Portland 100-pound champ, and Jimmy Howe, a highly touted Chinese boxer from Walla Walla. The Chinese boy is working "out in secret" at the club and as no one is allowed to see him through his passes the fans are wondering just how much of a chance he has with the clever newboy.

Another bout that should draw big is also being listed. Willie Mack, the hard-hitting Astoria boxer, is being groomed to meet Eddie Flannigan, who showed his class recently by winning a decision over Jimmy Moscow.

Following the Imperial Club's smoker the new Pastime Amateur Club will hold a show the following Friday. The headliner for this club will be furnished by Oscar Carlson and the winner of the Mack-Flannigan set, in the opinion of boxing experts Carlson is the best 142-pounder in this neck of the woods and a bout between him and either of the other boys would prove alluring to the fans.
