

Society

Miss Florence Valguth, a hostess of recent date for a bride-elect, and Miss Francis Schade, her honor guest.

rooms were aglow with Spring blossoms, and the attractive tea table presided over by Mrs. Oscar Menefee, Mrs. Frederick Alva Jacobs, Mrs. George F. Russell and Mrs. Joseph Nathan Treadwell. A bevy of the younger belles assisted about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frothingham, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, returned to their home in the East Wednesday. There was no formal entertaining for the visitors, owing to Mrs. Frothingham's indisposition. They are taking an extensive wedding trip.

Messages of sympathy are finding their way to Donna Maria Mercedes Tomacelli on the sudden death of her father, Don Giustino Tomacelli. Tomacelli, Eug. de la Torre, de Monasteraci, which occurred in Naples the end of January. News of the death has just reached here where Donna Tomacelli has many friends. She visited here last Summer, coming to the coast with Miss Julia Chester Wells, of New York. They first were guests of the latter's brother, Eben P. Wells, and of Samuel Hill at Maryhill. Later they visited Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph and Miss Hazel Dolph.

Among the prominent Portland folk who are sojourning at Coronado Beach are: Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis, Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Shevlin. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. McDonnell are also at Coronado and will leave the first of April for Pasadena, a week later coming to Portland for a visit.

Miss Failing and Miss Mary Furbush Failing were hostesses for a charming dinner party last night at their home.

Dr. and Mrs. Otis Buckminster Wight are entertaining interesting visitors, Mrs. W. O. H. Martin and Miss Margaret Martin for a few weeks, another sister of Mrs. Wight. They have just come up from San Francisco.

One of the prettiest luncheon tables at the Waverly Country Club was that presided over yesterday by Mrs. Alma D. Katz and Mrs. Everett Ames complimenting Mrs. Martin and Miss Martin, and Mrs. J. Thomas Dovey, of Seattle. Mrs. Adams' house guest. Covers were laid for 22.

Elaborate preparations are being carried out for the grand ball and card party for which the Cathedral Aid Society are acting as sponsors. The affair will be a brilliant event of Easter Tuesday, April 6, at the Cathedral school ballroom, which is one of the finest in Portland. The balcony, which permits of an excellent view of the dancers, will be arranged with card tables for those who find pleasure in that delightful pastime, both bridge and 500 being provided for, and the same time the players may watch the panorama of gaily-gowned dancers. Those who desire to make reservations for card tables may do so by notifying any of the committee, who are: Mrs. Edward Boyce, Mrs. Mary F. Daly, Mrs. P. J. Flynn and Mrs. J. W. Sweeney.

The decorating committee is planning to have the room most artistic, and in one of the side rooms refreshments will be served. Those in charge of this feature include Miss Helen Flynn, Miss Irene Daly, Miss Clarisse Wiley and Mrs. G. P. Corbett. Presiding at the tables, alternating during the evening, will be: Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. Thomas E. Erskine, Mrs. A. D. MacDougall, Mrs. Joseph R. Wiley, Miss Mary McKay, Mrs. David M. Dunn, Mrs. Joseph McCusker, Mrs. P. H. Flynn, Mrs. Mary F. Daly, Mrs. F. Alex Mayer, Mrs. Katherine Daly, Mrs. P. J. Flynn, Mrs. John Barrett, Miss Gertrude Springer, Miss Eglantine Mousiss, Miss Adele Mousiss, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Elean Smith, Miss Rachel Smith, Misses Mabel and Frances O'Brien, Miss Catherine Therkelsen, Miss Nona Law, Miss Annie O'Brien, Miss J. O'Neil, Miss Mary O'Donnell, Mrs. William O'Donnell, Mrs. John Driscoll, Mrs. L. W. Therkelsen, Mrs. John O'Shea.

Assisting in serving will be the Misses Katherine and Charlotte Laidlaw, Violet Erskine, Blanche Buska, Ruth Kiernan, Helen McCusker, Lucille Dunne, Mary Jessup, Katherine Cahalan, Halanand and Flanagan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Ball and charming little daughter, Miss Deborah Ball, left Wednesday for an extended visit in California. They plan to pass most of the time at Pacific Grove, where Mrs. Ball's mother, Mrs. Phyllis, has been wintering, the entire party motoring about Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Barge E. Leonard (Madge Seyster) are being felicitated upon the arrival of a daughter who will be named Madge Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Carey and daughter, Miss Evelyn Carey, returned early last week from a trip to California and the Hawaiian Islands. They visited both the San Diego and San Francisco Fair, and were delightfully entertained in the latter city. Miss Carey visited Miss Ruth Zelle and Miss Beatrice Nickel, both of whom have been guests of Miss Carey in this city at different times, and she also visited Miss Louise Belle, another prominent San Francisco belle.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter John Burns and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Miss Louise Burns and Mrs. Harry Davis, Jr., with Mr. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Davis, Sr., returned to

Mrs. O.C. Borglumeyer, who entertained recently for a bride-elect.

Portland last week after an extended visit in the South. Miss Claire Wilcox, who also has been visiting in the southland for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Wilcox, returned with the Burns family. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox went East for a few weeks' visit.

Mrs. C. C. Overmire presided at one of the luncheons at the Waverly Country Club on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Norris, the latter known in the literary world as Kathleen Norris, author of "Mother" and several other equally well-known works, passed a few days in Portland last week en route to New York. While here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fairfowl.

One of the most successful parties of the college year was the dinner dance given by Alpha Xi of Kappa Alpha Theta Saturday evening at the Hotel Oxburn, Eugene. The dining-room was artistically decorated with yellow daffodils, carrying out the fraternity colors.

The patrons were: President, Mrs. P. L. Campbell; Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. Charlotte Steffa and Miss Mary Perkins.

The invitational list included: Misses Louise Corbin, Joannette Wiggin, Verna Barker, Esther McCulloch, Ruth Watters, Helen Manning, Josephine Bracons, Naomi Marcellus and Alice Coravall, of Portland; Emma Bennett, of The Dalles; Myrtle Albright, Hazel Erickson, and Barbara Steiner, of Salem; Merle Hamilton, of Roseburg; Mamie Gillette, Nora Manerud and Mable Manerud, of Eugene; Art Lutz, Horace Cardinell, Ned Vilas and George Vilas, of Corvallis; Keith Powell, of Salem; Frank Scalfie, Lloyd Bayly, Wayne Slater, Robert Bean, Lemar Toose, Don Newbury, Loyie Bigbee, Hollis Huntington, Fred Kiddle, Edmund Simmins, Dean Walker, Frank Wray, Ernest McCown, Charles Dunger, Art Lewis, John Beckett, Bert Jerard, Robert McMurray, Alexander Bowen, David Hawkins, Howard Hall.

Celebrating the birthday of Dr. E. E. McDaniel, chief surgeon of the Hill line, his sister, Miss Birdie McDaniel, arranged a charming party on Friday evening at their home in Melinda avenue. The affair was a "stagnant" and the guests included the head officials of the rock-throwing club, George Pierson, vice-president, representing the president, L. C. Gilman, who is en route to Philadelphia; C. E. Johnson, Paul McKinnon, George Nelson, A. Vermylly, H. H. Keck, W. W. Wilkes, S. F. Clarke, J. Freck, W. F. Turner, A. M. Lupter, A. J. Davidson, P. H. Pohl, H. Shedy, J. Dickson, D. C. Freeman, H. H. Cross, E. P. McDaniel, Dr. R. McDaniel, S. G. Rees and Dr. E. E. McDaniel.

The table was most attractive, a huge low arrangement of pink and white blossoms being electrified and adorning the center.

SEASIDE, Or., March 20.—(Special.)—Many of the Portlanders and others who joined in the great crowd that flocked to Flavel to greet the arrival of the steamer Great Northern, after the ceremonies were over, instead of returning to Portland that evening, took advantage of the occasion and passed the week-end at Seaside. For the most part, many of them had been regular Summer visitors, but had never been here during the season of high tides, now that they are again in its tide, and a period when the sea was storm-tossed and the surf was running high. All were amply repaid for their side trip, or "Old Neptune" performed. There was a seven-foot tide and a wind that was almost a gale, tossed the surf mountain high and afforded the visitors a sight seen at no other time of the year.

The week-end visitors who registered at the Hotel Moore from Portland, were A. Kell, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Metzman, Mrs. T. Nordby, Mrs. W. J. Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. De Goyler, E. E. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wenzler, L. J. Shell, H. A. Burnard, H. E. French, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown, Mrs. A. B. Graham, Miss K. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Haskins, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McClure, and Mrs. E. B. Williams, Mrs. Deikel, Mrs. Hemik, H. G. Huntington, C. W. Huntington, S. V. Johnson, H. H. Wilson, Alva Pike and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatzmeyer, Harry H. Everson, Three Forks, Mont., and his sister, Miss Harriet Everson, of Portland; W. L. Pullan, Clatskanie; Mr. and Mrs. T. Ellis, Rainier; Charles Kibler, Spokane, and L. J. McKel, Woodland, Wash.

Miss Greta Butterfield, of Portland, who is visiting her father A. E. Butterfield, the house-guest of Edward Pool, was the inspiration of a delightful surprise birthday party Tuesday evening. A party consisting of Miss Butterfield, Miss Moulton, Miss Parish, Dr. Moss, Mr. Butterfield and Mr. Pool, passed the

(Continued on Page 4.)

Mrs. I. Frohman and daughter, Miss Louise, who left for Pasadena, Cal., have shipped their motor car to that point and plan to motor to San Francisco to attend the Fair. Later they will take short trips around the southern city.

Mrs. Iam White and companion, Miss Edith Nyan, have opened the former's cottage in North Beach and are enjoying a rest for a few weeks.

Mrs. F. A. Ross presided at a charming luncheon at the Waverly Country Club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Merrick, of Duluth, who is the house-guest of Mrs. C. A. Homan.

Mrs. C. T. Cooke, of Seattle, accompanied by her daughter, Margaret, is making a round of visits to Portland friends. During the past week she has been the guest of Mrs. L. Williams, 180 McMillen street.

Frederick A. Taylor and Miss Anna Bashaw surprised their many friends last Sunday afternoon by quietly visiting the Westminster Presbyterian parsonage, where they were united in marriage by Rev. Henry Marcotte. Mr. Taylor is engaged in the art furniture business, and Miss Bashaw has charge of the office in his store for some time.

Frederick A. Taylor and bride.

Carson Bigbee, Harold Sexton, Jack Montague, James Ayers, Walter Church, Charles Thies, Charles Thomas, William Snyder, Cord Sengstake, Merlin Batley, Harold Tregillis, Thomas Boylen, William Schwan, Harold Fitzgibbon, Maurice Hill, Homer Egan, Robert Fitzmaurice, Clark Burzard, Bert Ford, William Vawter, Edgar Keithley, Guy Carlson, Charles Hilden, Deibert Stannard, Raymond Rowland, Bryan De Ryan, Blair Holcomb, Anson Cornell, Thomas Campbell, George Schaefer and Fulson Tallman.

Kappa Alpha Theta is one of the oldest women's fraternities and the chapter at the University of Oregon numbers many prominent Portland girls among its members. The active members are: Misses Genevieve Shaver, Marjorie McGuire, Bernice Lucas, Helen Jane Hamilton, Hazel Rader, Erma Keithley, Ruth Rothrock, Gertrude Taylor, Louise Adams, Maude Newbury, Madge Barry, Alice Gram, Alice Bingham, Myrtle Smith, Margaret Hawkins, Louise Manning, Julia Platt, Virginia Peterson, Ruth Bradley, Charles Peterson, Beulah Hayes, Mable Smith, Frances Heath, Mary Chambers, Katharine Watson, Cleome Carroll, Marjory Williams, Malba Williams, Ruth Roche, Grace Bingham and Helene De Lano.

Mrs. Frederick B. Moore, who has been in the city for several weeks, where her niece, Felice Lyne, gifted opera singer, was appearing in concert, returned to Portland last night accompanied by her sister, Mrs. F. Lyne, and Felice Lyne. The party will leave tomorrow for Honolulu and will be further accompanied by the noted singer's grandmother, Mrs. Theodosia Forbush, of Kansas City, who has been making her home here for several months. They expect to be gone about a month. Miss Lyne will also appear in concert in that city, and later will go to Australia.

While in Salt Lake the youthful prima donna was extensively entertained, one of the most elaborate affairs in her honor being the tea for which Mrs. Florence B. Whitney was hostess. At this affair Miss Lyne shared honors with her mother and sister. It was a large and charming affair, about 150 women calling to greet the interesting and attractive trio.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn returned Thursday from an extended trip in Arizona and southern California. They were the guests at Tucson, Ariz. of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. von Klein Smid at the State University and later visited San Diego, Pasadena, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Complimenting Mrs. M. D. Olds and Miss Florence Olds, of Sheboygan, Mich., Mrs. Orange M. Clark entertained with a charming breakfast on Wednesday. Shamrocks and other St. Patrick's day novelties were in evidence and decks the attractive table around which were seated Mrs. George H. McLeod, Mrs. W. Y. Masters, Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, Mrs. A. L. Jackson, Mrs. Albert M. Brown, Mrs. Wilson W. Clark, Mrs. Louis Schaefer, Mrs. William Donald, Mrs. John M. Pees, and of the young girls, Miss Helen Whitney, Miss Harriet Jellison, Miss Alto Clark, Miss Masters, Miss Burns and Miss Morgan.

After the breakfast, which was at 11 o'clock, bridge was indulged in for a few hours, and an artistic musical programme was part of the entertainment, to which Mrs. Wilson W. Clark, Miss Sybil Brown and Miss Bertha Masters contributed. Miss Gladys Morgan gave a clever reading. Other affairs have been planned for the rest of the Olds' stay in Portland.

Mrs. Charles F. Berg and her small daughter, Caroline, left for Evanston, Ill., yesterday after passing several months with Mrs. Berg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberg, in Evanston. They will be joined by Mr. Berg in San Francisco where they will remain for a month before returning to Portland.

Rev. John Worick, a Civil War veteran, from Wisconsin, has come to Portland to be with his brother, J. Worick, who is also a veteran of the Civil War.

Mrs. Mary K. Pfordner, of Hood River, spent several days in Portland at the home of her sister, Mrs. Della G. Mickleth.

Sympathy is being extended to the family of Mrs. Joseph Bradley Bradley in the death of her husband, which occurred Tuesday morning at his home in Providence, R. I. The Bradleys left here about two years ago and were prominent in society. Mrs. Bradley is the daughter of Mrs. Sophia Walters and sister of William Walters and Mrs. Ben Holman, of this city.

Among the Easter week social functions that is creating interest is the Old People's Home silver tea, which will take place Easter Monday, April 5, at the Home. The tea is under the direction of the board of directors, who will be assisted by prominent members of the community.

Mrs. I. Frohman and daughter, Miss Louise, who left for Pasadena, Cal., have shipped their motor car to that point and plan to motor to San Francisco to attend the Fair. Later they will take short trips around the southern city.

Mrs. Iam White and companion, Miss Edith Nyan, have opened the former's cottage in North Beach and are enjoying a rest for a few weeks.

Mrs. F. A. Ross presided at a charming luncheon at the Waverly Country Club on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Merrick, of Duluth, who is the house-guest of Mrs. C. A. Homan.

Mrs. C. T. Cooke, of Seattle, accompanied by her daughter, Margaret, is making a round of visits to Portland friends. During the past week she has been the guest of Mrs. L. Williams, 180 McMillen street.

Celebrating the birthday of Dr. E. E. McDaniel, chief surgeon of the Hill line, his sister, Miss Birdie McDaniel, arranged a charming party on Friday evening at their home in Melinda avenue. The affair was a "stagnant" and the guests included the head officials of the rock-throwing club, George Pierson, vice-president, representing the president, L. C. Gilman, who is en route to Philadelphia; C. E. Johnson, Paul McKinnon, George Nelson, A. Vermylly, H. H. Keck, W. W. Wilkes, S. F. Clarke, J. Freck, W. F. Turner, A. M. Lupter, A. J. Davidson, P. H. Pohl, H. Shedy, J. Dickson, D. C. Freeman, H. H. Cross, E. P. McDaniel, Dr. R. McDaniel, S. G. Rees and Dr. E. E. McDaniel.

The table was most attractive, a huge low arrangement of pink and white blossoms being electrified and adorning the center.

SEASIDE, Or., March 20.—(Special.)—Many of the Portlanders and others who joined in the great crowd that flocked to Flavel to greet the arrival of the steamer Great Northern, after the ceremonies were over, instead of returning to Portland that evening, took advantage of the occasion and passed the week-end at Seaside. For the most part, many of them had been regular Summer visitors, but had never been here during the season of high tides, now that they are again in its tide, and a period when the sea was storm-tossed and the surf was running high. All were amply repaid for their side trip, or "Old Neptune" performed. There was a seven-foot tide and a wind that was almost a gale, tossed the surf mountain high and afforded the visitors a sight seen at no other time of the year.

The week-end visitors who registered

AN OLD FASHIONED
Garden furnishes the inspiration for this season's styles—
quaint, picturesque, beautiful.

Monday March 22,
You are welcome to the Emporium's
SPRING SHOWING of New WEARING APPAREL
and MILLINERY for Women.
In modernized 1830 styles—

SUITS-DRESSES-COATS-BLUSES
and
A Bouquet of Spring Millinery
lovely as the first flowers—fresh, dainty, full of early Spring color—

with the chic and charm of
Paris Garments
and Bonnets

EMPORIUM
124-126-128 Sixth St.
Just a Step off Washington

Women Attention!

Now is the time to order your Easter Suit.

WOMEN'S HAND- TAILORED $35 We Guarantee Style, Finish and Workmanship

A splendid line of new goods to select from.

Huffman & Grant
United Tailors
BROADWAY AND ALDER STREETS

Color Your Last Year's Straw Hat With COLORITE

Makes Old Straw Hats Look New

Splendid for fixing up Ladies' and Children's Hats

EASY TO APPLY
Dries in 30 Minutes Waterproof and Durable

Jet Black	Navy Blue	Burnt Straw
Dull Black	Cadet Blue	Brown
Cardinal Red	Sea Green	Violet
Cerulean	Lavender	Yellow
	Natural

is also suitable for coloring Satin, Silk and Canvas SLIPPERS; also BASKETRY

Insist on COLORITE Look for the yellow package

Department and Drug Stores Sell it or send 25c. in stamps to Dept. M CARPENTER-MORTON CO. Boston, Mass.

Non-Plastique Nature's Vegetable Jelly The Fountain of Youth What It Does Each treatment removes the wrinkles, corrects sagging and deep lines. In 15 Minutes. Builds up the tissues underneath. Prevents wrinkles from developing. Nothing known to science its equal. Send for booklet or call at office—gives a complete outline of all Nilla-Mary toilet preparations which represent the highest possible standard of purity.

Office & second floor, 542 1/2 Washington St. Portland, Oregon. Free demonstrations wanted Also on sale at Woodard, Clarke & Co.

The Corset
—says Dame Fashion, "Must not convey a visible expression of its presence." The sides present pleasing feminine lines of softness, the back and front are suggestive of natural curves. To fit you along these lines is our business, not an incident. Be it a Royal Worcester at $1 to $3.00, or the world-famous Bon Ton at $3.50 to $10, or one made especially for you, you may be assured of perfect style combined with comfort and economy at this—the Corset shop of Portland.

Gravelle
DON TON 346 Washington St., Morgan Bld.

Phone Your Want Ads to
The Oregonian
Main 7070, A 6095