

Society

Mrs. Joseph Leopold

(Continued From Page 3.)

day at Flavel and on their return home they found the house decorated in pink and the color scheme followed out in the floral decorations. A birthday cake, with tiny pink candles adorned the center of the table.

The first Friday after Easter, April 9, has been chosen as the date for the third party of the "Follies Dances."

The "Follies" were introduced at the Multnomah Hotel last Fall and have been increasing in popularity with each party. The attendance at these interschool gatherings is becoming so large that the next of the series will be held at the Cotillion Hall, where both the main hall and the banquet-room will be used for the occasion.

As there have been only few dances for several weeks the announcement of the "Follies" is creating much interest among the younger set.

The committee on refreshments is planning an elaborate supper to be served in the banquet hall. The committee in charge has decided to make this event the last dance of their series for this year.

Mrs. Nina Larowe presided at a luncheon at the Hotel Norontia for the Maxwellton Card Club Tuesday. In rooms decorated prettily in yellow the afternoon was passed playing 500. Those present were: Mrs. Catherine Maxwell, Mrs. A. P. Watson, Mrs. Anna Watson, Miss Harriette Eddy, Mrs. S. Bernard, Mrs. Mary Hurley, Mrs. Norris R. Cox, Mrs. Crosby and Mrs. Nina Larowe.

A social affair of especial interest in college circles of the University of Oregon, at Eugene, is the formal dancing party which is to be given by the girls of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority at Hotel Osburn, March 27. Among the guests who will be present are popular members of the younger society set, both of Portland and Salem.

Congratulations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leigh (Margaret Gibson) on the arrival of a son, born March 10.

One of the boxes at the Orpheum Theater on Wednesday afternoon was occupied by Mrs. Thomas R. Conlon and her guests, who were Mrs. Charles Hardesteher, Miss Viola Hardesteher, Mrs. Joseph Maus, of Seattle, a former Portland belle, who is being much entertained on this visit; Miss Margaret Raeder, Miss Constance Piper, Miss Lillian Morgan, Miss Anna McKay Brown, a newcomer from Denver who is rapidly gaining in popularity in local society.

Rather a unique affair is being sponsored by several members of the Portland Shakespeare Study Club, the Messadames J. Coulson Hare, J. C. LaBarre, Waldemar Seton and Harvey O'Byrne. They will present "A Midsummer Night's Dream" that is, the theme of this beautiful Shakespearean production will be carried out as far as the fantasy and musical parts are concerned. The balance of the comedy and different parts also will be presented, but in detail the features being the fairy and musical specialties. The proceeds will be used for the exigency of the Shakespeare Club, to unify the study of Shakespeare in this city. The affair will be given in the auditorium of Lincoln High School on the evening of Friday, April 9.

Patrons of the German Red Cross Society have made elaborate preparations for the card party that will be given on Thursday evening at 7:30.

The next Drama League meeting will be held Wednesday at Hotel Portland. Mrs. Thomas Charles Burke will read "Children of Earth," by Alice Brown.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the first dance and card party given Tuesday evening, March 16, at the new Bnal Brlth building, on Thirteenth street, by Portland Lodge No. 416, Independent Order of Elks.

Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. M. Baruh, Mr. and Mrs. D. Germaus, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Politz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Goldenberg, Mrs. Julius Kramer, Mrs. L. Coblenz, Mrs. S. Rich, the Messadames Ethel Cohn, Helen Coblenz, Frieda Baruh, Edna Binawanger, Madeline Stone, Amy Brunn, Rae Goldsmith, Rita Prager, Daisy Dobson, Elias Goldsmith, Miss Moyses and Miss Jacobs, Otto Kramer, Julien Coblenz, Harry Feldman, Dr. M. M. Bettman, Milton Frederich, Albert L. Stone, Alfred Hexter, Nathan Simon, Dr. Adalbert G.

Those present were: Alta Pearce, Pauline Klukis, Ruth Murali, Julia Remlinger, Elizabeth Poage, Elsie Henning, Bertha Hennig, Coletta Bartholomy, Ruth Grayson, Mrs. Ernest Preston, Mrs. J. H. Lynch, Mrs. M. Grayson, Dan Craig, George Mundy, Paul Van Wyk, Russell Starr, Edward Arpin, Emil Bowser, Ernest Preston, J. H. Lynch, Harry Grayson.

Mrs. Frank Healy and baby

St. Patrick's day. There were five tables arranged for bridge, honors falling to Mrs. Robert Wright and Mrs. K. S. Erwin. After the game Miss Marion Atwater sang. Miss Helen Witzel presided at the piano. Those enjoying Mrs. Witzel's hospitality were: Mesdames W. A. Hathway, R. S. Erwin, Henry Atwater, Robert Berger, Robert Wright, C. L. Boss, J. J. Kadler, E. G. Titus, A. U. Wright, T. C. Warner, L. Raeder, A. W. Person, E. M. Simonton, F. J. Haines, W. C. McBride, W. E. Pearson, J. U. Davis and Miss Pearl F. Cole, of Astoria, and Miss Marion Atwater.

The women of the German Red Cross Society have made elaborate preparations for the card party that will be given on Thursday evening at 7:30.

Messages have been received here to the effect that the engineers arrived safely at the Presidio, in San Francisco, and they are busily engaged in getting settled for their stay there. Nothing has been heard here whether or not the Twenty-first Infantry will go to the Panama-Pacific Exhibition, but some believe that the engineers will be sent on the morning of about July 1. The Twenty-first will be sent down to take their place.

Mrs. L. C. Bennett, wife of Captain Bennett, delightfully entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Young and her daughter, Miss Polly Young, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Covers were laid for 12 and the guests were: Mrs. Young, Miss Polly Young, Mrs. Samuel Y. Ham, Mrs. L. E. Hinchman, Mrs. David J. Baker, Mrs. Wilson Chase, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Peter C. Field, Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. James M. Hobson, Jr., and Mrs. Walter O. Boswell. Violets and pink roses were used in decorations.

Mrs. Ruthford S. Hartz gave a bridge party Thursday afternoon. St. Patrick's day decorations being used. At the tables were: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Raymond E. Ingalls, Mrs. W. H. Gill, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. C. T. King, Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, Mrs. Peter C. Field, Mrs. Glass and Mrs. R. C. Moore. The prizes were won by Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Brooke and Mrs. Glass. Mrs. Baldwin, having low score, received the consolation prize in the afternoon. Mrs. Young, Miss Polly Young, Mrs. M. P. Tyler and daughter, Miss Mary Tyler, of Vancouver; Miss Cloridan and Miss Chambers dropped in for tea. Mrs. Hartz was assisted in serving by Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Glass. Mrs. Field poured tea and Mrs. Brooke served the loaves.

A novel dinner party was that presided over by Captain E. R. Budd on Friday evening. It was a fish dinner of many courses and his guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Coe A. McKenne and R. L. Stevens.

Rose Courson Reed's student recital, which will be a social event of tomorrow night at the Heilig Theater, promises to be one of the notable soirees of the season. The programme is an elaborate and artistic one and many parties from La Grande, Baker, Salem and Astoria will arrive in the city to attend the concert.

Last week the Rose City Dancing Club gave the closing party of the season on Thursday evening at Christensen's Hall. The ballroom was especially attractive with brilliant decorations in keeping with St. Patrick's day and quantities of fragrant Easter lilies suggesting the end of the Lenten period.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Moore, Mrs. G. W. Chaspin, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cofford, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stringer, and Mrs. G. T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Skiff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCrillis, Albert L. and Miss Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groh, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart, H. H. Hayek, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Blasing, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dusey, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ingham, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pierce, Otto J. Kraemer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dick, Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Robinson, W. C. Shearer, R. W. Irvine, E. B. Hyatt, A. E. Jackson, Edward Cornell, F. R. Drexler, J. E. Hopson, W. W. Banks, G. C. Bramer, L. D. Hunter, F. A. Freeman, E. G. Leiby, C. F. Byrne, Miss Bayley, Messrs. and Mrs. W. V. Logan, H. E. Carr, Walter Scott, E. V. Littlefield, J. O. Elwood, C. J. McPherson, W. S. Dulmage, E. A. Hartman and F. A. Gaddis also were present.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST
Mrs. Young and Miss Polly Young, wife and daughter of Colonel George S. Young, commander of the Twenty-first Infantry, returned to Portland last night after being in the East on an extended visit since last October. They came from Detroit and Chicago, where Mrs. Young was sister-in-law to the late Trip, who resided in New York, West Point, Washington, D. C., and other Eastern cities. When they left Chicago the city had been visited by a snow storm.

Captain Edgar A. Fry, now inspecting the organized militia in Minnesota, has obtained a month's leave of absence, beginning April 1. He will visit his old home in Kansas, take a trip to Texas and to San Francisco before returning to his home here.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Ruthford S. Hartz entertained at a St. Patrick's day dinner Wednesday night. The center-piece was a basket of lilies of the valley. The favors were miniature hodgepodge carriers for the women and Irish hats for the men. The guests were: Captain and Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Captain and Mrs. Herbert C. Gibner, Captain and Mrs. C. T. King, Captain and Mrs. Harry A. Hegeman, Miss and Lieutenant Paul W. Newgard.

An informal "how-to" was held Friday night. Excellent music was furnished by the orchestra from the Twenty-first Infantry band.

Messages have been received here to the effect that the engineers arrived safely at the Presidio, in San Francisco, and they are busily engaged in getting settled for their stay there. Nothing has been heard here whether or not the Twenty-first Infantry will go to the Panama-Pacific Exhibition, but some believe that the engineers will be sent on the morning of about July 1. The Twenty-first will be sent down to take their place.

Mrs. L. C. Bennett, wife of Captain Bennett, delightfully entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Young and her daughter, Miss Polly Young, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Covers were laid for 12 and the guests were: Mrs. Young, Miss Polly Young, Mrs. Samuel Y. Ham, Mrs. L. E. Hinchman, Mrs. David J. Baker, Mrs. Wilson Chase, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Peter C. Field, Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. James M. Hobson, Jr., and Mrs. Walter O. Boswell. Violets and pink roses were used in decorations.

Mrs. Ruthford S. Hartz gave a bridge party Thursday afternoon. St. Patrick's day decorations being used. At the tables were: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Raymond E. Ingalls, Mrs. W. H. Gill, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. C. T. King, Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, Mrs. Peter C. Field, Mrs. Glass and Mrs. R. C. Moore. The prizes were won by Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Brooke and Mrs. Glass. Mrs. Bald-

Spring Suits, Coats, Street and Afternoon Dresses

Women's and Misses' Spring Apparel is now being shown on the Third Floor, introducing the smartest ideas in design, materials and coloring, together with clever interpretation of the new models in Tailored Suits, Silk Suits, Golf, Motor and Sport Coats, Silk Dresses and Separate Skirts.

The most favored woolen materials are serge, gabardine, poplin and shepherd check. The silk fabrics include crepe de chine, silk poplin, gros de Londre, crepe de meteor and taffeta.

Week-end arrivals from New York will be on display tomorrow morning.

—Suits $17.50 upward
—Coats $9.85 upward
—Dresses $14.50 upward

SPECIAL:-- Women's and Misses' White Chinchilla Coats, $9.85

BEN SELLING Morrison at Fourth A Shop for Gentlewomen

Deutsches Haus for the benefit of their war fund. Tables will be arranged for whist, 500 and bridge-whist.

Informal dancing will round out the evening's gaiety. Prizes will be awarded the high scorers at cards, and refreshments will be served.

A novel dinner party was that presided over by Captain E. R. Budd on Friday evening. It was a fish dinner of many courses and his guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Coe A. McKenne and R. L. Stevens.

Rose Courson Reed's student recital, which will be a social event of tomorrow night at the Heilig Theater, promises to be one of the notable soirees of the season. The programme is an elaborate and artistic one and many parties from La Grande, Baker, Salem and Astoria will arrive in the city to attend the concert.

Last week the Rose City Dancing Club gave the closing party of the season on Thursday evening at Christensen's Hall. The ballroom was especially attractive with brilliant decorations in keeping with St. Patrick's day and quantities of fragrant Easter lilies suggesting the end of the Lenten period.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Moore, Mrs. G. W. Chaspin, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cofford, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stringer, and Mrs. G. T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Skiff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCrillis, Albert L. and Miss Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groh, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart, H. H. Hayek, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Blasing, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dusey, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ingham, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pierce, Otto J. Kraemer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dick, Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Robinson, W. C. Shearer, R. W. Irvine, E. B. Hyatt, A. E. Jackson, Edward Cornell, F. R. Drexler, J. E. Hopson, W. W. Banks, G. C. Bramer, L. D. Hunter, F. A. Freeman, E. G. Leiby, C. F. Byrne, Miss Bayley, Messrs. and Mrs. W. V. Logan, H. E. Carr, Walter Scott, E. V. Littlefield, J. O. Elwood, C. J. McPherson, W. S. Dulmage, E. A. Hartman and F. A. Gaddis also were present.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST
Mrs. Young and Miss Polly Young, wife and daughter of Colonel George S. Young, commander of the Twenty-first Infantry, returned to Portland last night after being in the East on an extended visit since last October. They came from Detroit and Chicago, where Mrs. Young was sister-in-law to the late Trip, who resided in New York, West Point, Washington, D. C., and other Eastern cities. When they left Chicago the city had been visited by a snow storm.

Captain Edgar A. Fry, now inspecting the organized militia in Minnesota, has obtained a month's leave of absence, beginning April 1. He will visit his old home in Kansas, take a trip to Texas and to San Francisco before returning to his home here.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Ruthford S. Hartz entertained at a St. Patrick's day dinner Wednesday night. The center-piece was a basket of lilies of the valley. The favors were miniature hodgepodge carriers for the women and Irish hats for the men. The guests were: Captain and Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Captain and Mrs. Herbert C. Gibner, Captain and Mrs. C. T. King, Captain and Mrs. Harry A. Hegeman, Miss and Lieutenant Paul W. Newgard.

An informal "how-to" was held Friday night. Excellent music was furnished by the orchestra from the Twenty-first Infantry band.

Messages have been received here to the effect that the engineers arrived safely at the Presidio, in San Francisco, and they are busily engaged in getting settled for their stay there. Nothing has been heard here whether or not the Twenty-first Infantry will go to the Panama-Pacific Exhibition, but some believe that the engineers will be sent on the morning of about July 1. The Twenty-first will be sent down to take their place.

Mrs. L. C. Bennett, wife of Captain Bennett, delightfully entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Young and her daughter, Miss Polly Young, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Covers were laid for 12 and the guests were: Mrs. Young, Miss Polly Young, Mrs. Samuel Y. Ham, Mrs. L. E. Hinchman, Mrs. David J. Baker, Mrs. Wilson Chase, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Peter C. Field, Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Mrs. James M. Hobson, Jr., and Mrs. Walter O. Boswell. Violets and pink roses were used in decorations.

Mrs. Ruthford S. Hartz gave a bridge party Thursday afternoon. St. Patrick's day decorations being used. At the tables were: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Raymond E. Ingalls, Mrs. W. H. Gill, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. C. T. King, Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, Mrs. Peter C. Field, Mrs. Glass and Mrs. R. C. Moore. The prizes were won by Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Brooke and Mrs. Glass. Mrs. Baldwin, having low score, received the consolation prize in the afternoon. Mrs. Young, Miss Polly Young, Mrs. M. P. Tyler and daughter, Miss Mary Tyler, of Vancouver; Miss Cloridan and Miss Chambers dropped in for tea. Mrs. Hartz was assisted in serving by Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Glass. Mrs. Field poured tea and Mrs. Brooke served the loaves.

Mrs. George C. Rockwell, wife of Lieutenant Rockwell, and three children left Wednesday night for Los Angeles, where she is to visit her mother, Mrs. Lockhart, for two or three months.

Mrs. G. Lane Tansyhill, of Portland, tomorrow afternoon will give a lecture on "Current Topics" before the Current Topics Club, which meets every two weeks at the home of Mrs. David O. Baker. Mrs. Tansyhill has given a series of lectures during the winter, the lecture tomorrow being the last.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Proebstel, of 244 East Forty-fourth street, entertained a large number of friends and relatives at an elaborate dinner party Tuesday. The affair was given in honor of George W. Proebstel's 74th birthday. He is one of the earliest pioneers of Oregon, having crossed the plains with his parents in 1852. At Weston, Ore., he was for many years a hardware dealer and a prominent citizen, having served Umatilla County as State Senator two consecutive terms. A unique fact concerning the dinner is that the added ages of the 15 people present amounted to 1984 years. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George W. Proebstel, Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Proebstel, Mrs. John Rowland, Mrs. Mary Von Atta, Frank Von Atta, Mrs. William Omsally, Mrs. Asplund, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Tamselle, Mrs. Ruth Tamselle, Jacob Wagonblast, Mr. and Mrs. James Wagonblast, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Proebstel, Margaret Proebstel and John Cook.

The Wisconsin Society of Oregon held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening, with more than 300 members in attendance. This state society now boasts of more than 500 on the membership list and is one of the live wires in the Portland boosting campaign. The evening was devoted to plans for the coming clam bake.

also a committee of 10 was appointed by President McCarthy to co-operate with and assist in affairs given by the Federation of State Societies. The committee includes: D. L. McKay, J. C. Koss, E. V. Hillius, Mrs. H. Winchester, Mrs. Frank McKay, Mrs. F. S. Scribner, Miss M. Kinney, Mrs. H. Haven, H. Stahl and S. McDonald. A solo by little Miss Bertin, piano solo by Mr. Nathan and soprano solo by Mrs. Gabriel Pullen, followed by refreshments, cards and dancing. The next meeting of the society will be held April 15 at Cotillion lodge hall.

The library of Lincoln High School was the scene of an informal reception Friday afternoon, when the pupils of Miss Wood's room entertained their mothers and teachers.

The room was lavishly decorated with Oregon grape and daffodils. Miss Wood greeted the guests and introduced M. M. Davis, who gave the address. A short vocal programme was rendered by Miss Martina Kelly and Miss Geraldine McGilhen, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Capell.

Miss Alice Hester, Miss Henrietta Bettinger and David McCord gave a charade of "The Merry Wives of Windsor" presided at the tea table, assisted by the other pupils of the room. One hundred guests were present. The committee members in charge were: Alice Hester, Henrietta Bettinger, David McCord, Philip McCord, Philip McCarthy and Callista Elliot, chairman.

A birthday surprise party was given in honor of Harry Holzkraue at the home of Miss Emma Tormohlen, 408 Birch street, Saturday night. Games were played and the prizes were won by Miss Sadie Weston and Julie Buck. The latter part of the evening was spent in dancing.

An elaborate supper was served. The center piece was a birthday cake with lighted candles surrounded by red carnations.

The guests were the Misses Eva Jeanette, Ruth Chaffin, Martha Jaekel, Winifred Weston, Gertrude Soufack, Blanche Parks, Harriet Weston, Evelyn Baker, Mabel Saxton, Sadie Weston, Mrs. Jaekel and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Formoehler, Messrs. Bruce Baird, Jack Brady, Al Weston, Guy Dykes, Julie Buck, Clarence Forestberg, Edward Brady, Leo Chaffin, Dud Werschkul, Henry Rowlands and M. Stout.

One of the pleasant surprise parties of the week was that tendered the members of Marguerite Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, Tuesday evening by the charter members, the occasion being the celebration of the 16th birthday of the camp, also the regular monthly birthday party. After a short meeting the charter members took possession of the hall and gave a fine programme of musical selections and readings, followed by several games, after

"YOU WANT YOUR SPRING SUIT You Haven't the Money, but Cherry's Will Trust You."

"To my mind, Virginia, that's all there is to it. A woman either has the money to buy a suit when she needs it, or else she hasn't. With me it doesn't matter, for I BUY MY CLOTHES ON CHERRY'S INSTALLMENT TERMS. You try it, Virginia!"

"Haven't you noticed the girls coming forth, one by one, in their Spring Suits? I thought I wanted one like 'em, with a straight little box jacket, till I saw Mary's, with a coat cut in that charming ripple effect. Even when I saw them all at CHERRY'S it was pretty hard to decide at first."

"And no wonder! Of course, all the new shades are there, and all the sizes, and every new idea and 'classy' feature. CHERRY'S SPRING COATS are as fascinating as their Suits. Go to see them tomorrow sure and you will find just what you want. Their place is at 333-351 Washington street, in the Pittock block."

Remember $45 $45
You can get a $45 Spring Suit for $45. See them before you buy.

J. K. STERN
LADIES' TAILOR
437 Alder Street.

TRY SANTISEPTIC
Leaves the skin soft, clean and velvety. Is fresh, sweet and safely antiseptic. It is indelibly pleasing, neither greasy nor sticky. Use it daily and enjoy perfect skin, health and comfort. You'll like its clean, healthy odor. Ask your druggist or by mail 50c. Eubenecht Chemical Laboratories, Portland, Or.

which came the march to the banquet-room. Many complimentary speeches were directed toward the following charter members: Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McGrath, Mrs. Della J. Handlan, Mrs. Agnes Culpas, Mrs. Josie Day, Mrs.

Exclusive Apparel for Women
Pittock Block Portland, Ore.

Closing Out Millinery

In order to make room for other goods we have decided to close out all trimmed hats and discontinue that department.

Liberal Discounts
will be made to dispose of all hats quickly.

Order Your Engraved Easter Cards Now
Engraved Stationery, Announcements, Cards
Second Floor
Gill's
The J. K. Gill Co., Third and Alder.

FLUFFY HAIR TAKES YEARS FROM YOUR AGE
Soft, fluffy hair, becomingly arranged, makes any woman look her best because it softens the outlines of the face and every woman can have dainty, fluffy, healthy hair if she will take the trouble to always shampoo her hair properly. In washing the hair it is not advisable to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about 5 cents a shampoo by getting a package of canthox from your druggist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After it is used the hair dries rapidly, with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth—Adv.

The Real Secret of Rejuvenating the Face
She holds the true secret of facial rejuvenation who has learned how to remove the dead skin particles as fast as they appear. It's a secret anyone may possess. The aged, faded, or discolored surface skin may be gradually absorbed in an entirely safe and rational manner, by the nightly application of ordinary face cream. It's done in a week or less the underlying skin, youthful and beautiful to behold, has taken the place of the discarded outside. Each day there's no inconvenience at all, and no one suspects you are putting anything on your face. The merciful wax procurable at any drugstore (an ounce is sufficient). Is applied like cold cream. In the morning it is erased with soap and water. It's the best thing known for freckles, blackheads, pimples, moth patches, liver spots and fine surface wrinkles.

For the deeper wrinkles an excellent recipe is: Powdered kaolin, 1 oz., dissolved in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Bathing the face in this solution produces quick and wonderful results.—Adv.