Mr. and Mrs. George F. Moore entertained Friday night with a charming announcement party, when the news of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marguerite Eleanor Moore, to Chester Wilber Bourne was made. As the guests entered the house Miss Genevieve Fuller presented the women with a corsage bouquet and bouquets to the men to which were tied cards announcing the betrothal. Miss Moore is a charming girl, and is well known in the musical art. She has a sweet soprano voice of wonderful range, and is in demand at social functions. Mr. Bourne is a prominent Rosarian and is popular in Portland. He is connected with the Rock Island system. The wedding will take place early in June.

At the party an orchestra played during the evening, the guests indulging in dancing, interspersed by solos by the bride-elect. An elaborate collation was served, and the table was attractively decked. Quantities of Oregon grapes, ferns and carnations were used effectively about the rooms.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. enjoyed a jolly juvenile party on Tuesday.

day. The slogan for the evening was the old time-honored "Backward, turn backward, Oh, Time, in your flight," etc. The members were dressed as children, and they all entered into the spirit of the occasion, playing old-fashioned games with abandon and glee. It was most refreshing and restful for the girls who rarely have an opportunity to indulge in good, wholesome frolic. There were numerous Buster Browns, Lord Fauntleroy and schoolgirls, sunbonneted and carrying a jumping rope; also the old-fashioned and much loved mother with frilled basque and hooped skirt, who added dignity to the occasion. The refreshments also were carried out according to childhood's palates, and the party long will be remembered by the happy gathering.

The Massachusetts Society of Oregon held a social and entertainment on Thursday evening last in the Rosarian rooms, Commercial Club. Telegrams were received from Governor Walsh, of Massachusetts, also from Mayor Curley, of Boston, sending greetings. A letter of regret from Blanche Ring, of the Orpheum circuit, was received. Miss Ring is a Bostonian and expected to be present upon "Evacuation Day" (March 17, 1916). Miss Kathleen Booth sang. Through the kindness of Sherman, Clay & Co. there was a Victrola concert during the rest of the evening, while 500 was in progress. Refreshments were served also.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Downing entertained a few friends Saturday night. Five hundred was played and card honors fell to J. E. Harvey and Zaidie Reichwein. Consolation prizes went to A. E. Middlebrooks and Mrs. Emma Mashburn. A collation was served and music selections closed a delightful evening. Mrs. Washburn gave several piano numbers and vocal selections were contributed by Mrs. J. E. Harvey. Those present were: Mrs. E. Mashburn, Miss Zaidie Reichwein, Mrs. Edmond Taylor, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Mrs. Miles, Miss Lane, Mrs. Reichwein, Mrs. William Downing, A. E. Middlebrooks, A. E. Carr, Z. E. Harvey, Dr. B. L. Gullick and W. H. Downing.

Mrs. V. N. Irvin entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. A. Kuntz, Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were gaily decorated in green and white, which were the colors of the day. The afternoon was passed playing "500" honors being won by Mrs. Claude De Pue, Mrs. George Bishop and Mrs. H. W. Mathison after which a light lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. A. Wells, Mrs. H. Weber, Mrs. E. Ruddy, Mrs. A. R. Keesey, Mrs. H. W. Mathison, Mrs. George Bishop, Mrs. J. Kuntz, Sr., Mrs. Albert Kuntz, Mrs. J. Kuntz, Jr., Mrs. Lewis R.
