SOLDIER—RAILWAY PRESIDENT IS DEAD

Charles Francis Adams, Also Widely Known as Historian, Succumbs to Grip.

END IS HASTENED BY AGE

Notification of Affairs of Public Purse and Aid in Development of Portland Among Loyalists
Meeting Him to West.

LINDSEY, Mo., March 30—Charles Francis Adams, junior member of the famous political family, died yesterday in his 84th year. He was 84 years and six months old. His remains will be sent to his home in Concord, Mass., where they will be interred.

His father was the Rev. John Stuart Adams, a well-known political figure in the United States, and his grandfather was the late John Adams, who was president of the United States.

GROWTH OF PORTLAND ADDS

Mr. Adams was born in Portland, Me., and was educated in the public schools of that city. He was a member of the legislature for many years, and was a member of the state senate for a number of years.

More Arrests Likely

SEISMOLOGY AND TEA PLANTS MAY BE EVOLVED UNION HARMING,

The recent earthquake in the Pacific Ocean was caused by the explosion of a large number of tea plants in the vicinity of the city of Portland, Oregon. The plants were destroyed by the earthquake and the damage is estimated at $10,000.

Street Paving CHOSEN

PORTLAND GIRLS WIN RUNNERS AT WALLACE.

The city council of Portland has decided to pave the streets with concrete, which is estimated to cost $100,000.

MILITARY INSPECTION OVER

Oregon City, March 31—The Oregon National Guard has been inspected by the state adjutant general, who found the unit in excellent condition.

SECOND RECITAL PLANNED

Portland Amateur Orchestral Society

The Portland Amateur Orchestral Society will present a second recital on April 10, at 8 p.m., in the Crystal Ballroom, with the Portland Symphony Orchestra.