BIBLE LECTURES

By a Former Portlander.

Mr. W. M. Wisdom, of New York City, a speaker of ability and having large experience with the events of the day and the affairs of the Church, has been secured to give his notable Bible lecture on the subject of "God's Love vs. Eternal Torment," at Woodcraft Hall today at 3 P. M.

"The speaker is an eloquent and devout Bible student and has made a particular study of this subject, and has received high encomiums from the press."—Times-Union, Jacksonville, Fla.

"With quotations from all parts of the Bible, Rev. W. M. Wisdom, traveling evangelist, discussed the subject of a place of eternal torture at the Garrick Theater Sunday afternoon. It was pointed out that the idea of a lake of living fire through which lost souls must pass is not borne out in the original language of the Bible."

"To say that this lecture was entertaining is entirely too tame, it was intensely interesting from beginning to end. His array of Scripture citations was wonderful."—Times, Birmingham, Ala.

"The speaker proved himself to be a close Bible student, spoke with great force and clearness and clinched every point with a 'thus saith the Lord.'"—Tribune, Tampa, Fla.

"A large and interested audience listened to Pastor Wisdom's sermon last night. He showed from the Bible, from which he quoted freely, that God's eternal purpose concerning the human race is to bless, not to further curse them."—Republican, Springfield, Mass.

"He showed how unreasonable, as well as unscriptural, is the generally accepted view of the final punishment of the wicked after they have had what has not yet come to them, a full, fair trial for life."—Times, Kansas City, Mo.
