Tennant Brings Pair In.

Zacher landed at first when Davis fooled a grounder. Ryan hit to Leonard, who threw wild and both runners advanced one. Tennant scored the pair with a beautiful double.

In the eighth frame Shinn started a raily on a double, Orr flied out and Zacher singled. Ryan walked and Tennant doubled, scoring Shinn and Ryan. Gedeon was hit by a pitched ball. Higginbotham relieved Leonard. Barbour singled, scoring Tennant and Gedeon. The net result was four runs, making the score 7 to 6, so McCredle's men, just to make things safe, scored another in the ninth, when Doane came home on a sacrifice by Stumpf.

Federal League teams opened the season today with games in Kansas City, Baltimore, Chicago and Brooklyn Big crowds were present at all games and city and state officials participated in the ceremonies, which marked the formal beginning of 1915 major league

The weather was favorable and the aunching of the outlaws into another year of play was as auspicious as their officials could have hoped for when they set their opening-day games four days ahead of those of the American and National leagues.

In Chicago, William Hale Thompson, Mayor-elect, pitched the first bail and Mayer Harrison, Governor Dunne, of Illinois, and other notables took part in the ceremonies.

Governor Goldsborough made the opening delivery at Baltimore, where Newark made its formal entry into the league.

Kansas City had a great celebration of the retention of its franchise. The City Council procisimed a holiday, many business places closed for the day and the city went to the game. President Gilmore, of the league, was present.

In Brooklyn a big crowd turned out and the usual formalities were observed.

Chicago trimmed the St. Louis team
3 to 1, thereby crediting a defeat to Eddie Plank in his first game as an outlaw pitcher.

Newark won from Baltimore 7 to 8 and Brooklyn beat Buffalo 13 to 9. Pittaburg shut out Kansas City 8 to 0.
