As the close of their season's parties, the Arcadians enjoyed a brilliant evening of dances at Christensen's Hall last Thursday night. Several score young people enjoyed the pretty figures of the special dancing features and at the conclusion of the evening voted the year's events to be a decided success.

It was announced that the Arcadians would organize a similar club for the season of 1915-16 to open with a party in September or October. The membership list already has been opened and next season is expected to exceed the present, both in personnel and in the quality of the parties given.

A post-season dance may be given by the Arcadians on May 6, owing to the many requests made upon the board of directors to hold at least one more party this season. Ralston J. Clary and Fred L. Carlton will be in charge of the arrangements. The affair was the 1914-15 review, at which the spirit of Easter was carried out beautifully, with lilies as the predominating decoration.
