CONTRACTORS PLAN ORGANIZATION.—An enthusiastic meeting of the general contractors of the Portland Builders' Exchange was held in the rooms of the Exchange, Friday night. Availability of effecting a permanent organization of a general contractors' association was considered and a committee appointed to ascertain how such organizations are conducted in other cities. This committee will perfect details for the organization and report at a subsequent meeting.

BISHOP SUMNER VISITS SEALWOOD.—St. John's Episcopal Church, in Sealwood, greeted Bishop Sumner Tuesday night, the occasion being his first visit to the parish and a lay vicar confirmed. After the services a reception was held in the parish house. Bishop Sumner spoke briefly and congratulated the parish upon its increasing condition and spiritual growth, and acknowledged the receipt of a check of $25 to be applied on the debt of the church.

SMALLPOX IN FOREST GROVE.—Smallpox has made its appearance in Forest Grove and in the town of Dilley nearby, according to the report of Dr. J. Stanley Saurman, director of the State Bacteriological Laboratory, who has just returned from a trip of investigation made to that place. Dr. Saurman says that there are probably 10 or 12 cases of the disease. "It is of a mild form, however," he says, "and there have been no deaths."

ST. LAWRENCE PARISH DANCE TONIGHT.—The parishioners of St. Lawrence Church will give their annual Easter supper Tuesday night at the St. Lawrence assembly hall, Third and Sherman street, from 8 to 9 o'clock. Dancing will follow the supper. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church. Mrs. W. J. Smith is chairman. The Young Ladies' Aid society will sing.

TIN CAN ARMY ORGANIZED. Vancouver to Get Into Shape Today for Visitors May 6. VANCOUVER, Wash., April 10.—(Special.)—The Tin Can Army has been organized in this city among the school boys of Vancouver and they will be ordered tomorrow to charge on all empty lots and cause a retirement therefrom of all empty tin cans, and other rubbish. The army has been trained by the Vancouver Woman's Club, which is interested in getting the city cleaned up for the visitors who are expected to be here May 6, when the celebration of the Cello Canal is held, and for passing tourists.

MAN EATS AND THEN DIES. Corvallis Plumber Drops Dead After Being Almost Starved. CORVALLIS, Or., April 10.—(Special.)—Newton Coleman, 57 years old, and a plumber by trade, dropped dead last night on the main business street of this city. The cause of his death is believed to be starvation and exhaustion. He was employed in a plumbing shop in this city last year, but went to California last winter. Unable to get work there, he walked back to Corvallis, at which place he arrived a week ago, practically without clothing and nearly starved. His former employer clothed him and gave him money to buy food. The eating made him sick, but he continued to eat several meals a day. He ate a short time before he died.

BULL RUN LANDOWNER SUES. Portland Asked to Pay $18,000 for Alleged Damage to Property. OREGON CITY, Or., April 10.—(Special.)—The City of Portland is made the defendant in a suit for $18,000 filed in the Circuit here Friday by M. Morehead. Morehead owns an 80-acre tract near the headwaters of the Bull Run pipeline at the base of Mount Hood. He alleges that the city has constructed a road across his land, built a house and other buildings, and damaged the property without his consent. He asks for $15,000 for taking possession of the land and $3,000 for the use and rent of it.
