THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, APRIL 11, 1915.

ROSEBURG, Or., April 10. (Special.)-Caude Profit fed his pigs three times daily. He gave them no patent stock food of any kind and they had no pasture. During the contest he fed his four pigs 355 poinds of oats, 365 pounds of wheat, 20 pounds of oil meal, 368 pounds of barley, and 1869 pounds of separated milk. Neither did the Poland China pig of Wilbur Godlovo have any pasture. It was kept in a small pen and fed twice daily. The feed consisted of mixed diet made of 114 pounds of wheat, 175 pounds of scherts and 17 pounds of tankage. The cost of each of these feeds is given in the report. In addi-tion to the feed purchased he fed some filaree and a little alfalfa hay. He started feeding with milk, wheat and his pigs three Claude Profitt fed started feeding with milk, wheat and Oates explained that all the work so corn. The two pigs fed by Willie Carroll the Port of Astoria for ald. The two pigs fed by Willie Carroll were thoroughbred Duroc Jerseys. The feeding was started with soaked corn and shorts given three times dally. The pigs had no pasture, but ran in a large barren pen. The amount of time used each day in caring for the pigs is given as 30 minutes. The feed for the entire period consisted of 280 peunds of shorts and 700 pounds of corn, with "some swill from the kitchen and some over-ripe fruit which had no value.  NATIVE OREGONIAN BURIED ROAD BLAMED FOR INJURIES AT JUNCTION CITY. Salesman Sucs Douglas County for Accident to Stage. ROSEBURG, Or., April 10.—(Special.) —Alleging that he sustained perma-nent injuries while making a trip from Drain to Scottsburg, on April 11, 1913, R. M. Buttle, a traveling sales-man with headquarters in Portland, value.

Offices and Whitney Elections OLYMPIA, Wash., April 10 .- (Speand was fined set in the first Court. The city says that Henseley was liable to arrest for the reason that the ilquor was not in the original package as required by the ordinance. Attor-ney Cardwell, who represents Mr. Henseley says that the ordinance is unconstitutional because he says it in-vades the rights of the defendant and other people of Oregon. Liquor that is purchased legally. Attorney Cardwell says, can be transported through the streets of the city regardless of the ordinance.

FARM CREDITS NEED TOLD Prominent Business Men of Weiser

to Aid Rural Development.

WEISER, Idaho, April 10 .-- (Special.) -Many of the prominent citizens and business men of Weiser and vicinity have organized a Farm Credits Associa-tion that promises to prove a decidedly important factor in farm development in this section. The movement has been

In this section. If the same time, and as a re-sult a strong membership is enrolled. The plan of the association is for the members jointly to extend to the farm-ers of Washington County, Idaho, and ers of Washington County, Idaho, and Malheur County, Oregon, who are tribu-tary to Welser, such credit as will help them to secure merchandise and imple-ments sufficient to enable them to live while growing their crops and to pro-vide equipment for planting and taking care of the same. Under the present system new people in the community are forced to endure many hardships and are hampered too often in the de-velopment of their homes because they velopment of their homes because they have not established credit and are not in a position to procure on other than cash terms the equipment so badly needed. It is to relieve this embarrass-ing condition that the association was organized.

STATE COLLEGE ELECTS

E. T. Coman, of Spokane, Named

President of Board of Regents.

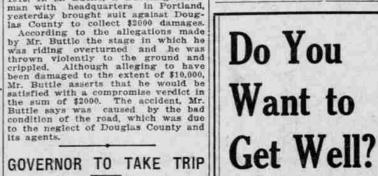

PULLMAN, Wash., April 10 .- (Spe FULLMAN, Wash. April 10.--(Spe-cial.)--At the organization meeting of the board of regents of the State Col-lege this week E. T. Coman, of Spo-kane. was elected president of the board, succeeding James C. Cunning-ham, and W. A. Ritz, of Walla Walla, was elected vice-president, succeed-ing R. C. McCroskey, of Garfield, EdBill Are Main Issues-Republicans Rally to Defense.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 10.-(Spe-cial.)--Next week will witness the real opening of Washington's first refer-endum campaign, with volunteer peti-tion circulators endeavoring to secure the signatures of 19,102 registered voters to hold up some of the most im-portant measures passed by the recent Legislature. Aside from being the first experience of this state with the referendum, the coming 60 day campaign for signatures of this state with the referendum, the coming 60-day campaign for signatures is notable as marking the real opening of the 1916 state campaign. The most important measures against which the referendum is invoked, those requiring initiative, referendum and recall peti-tions to be signed at registration of-flees and the Whitney elections bill re-instating legalized political conven-tions, are all Republican party meas-ures, passed over the veto of a Demo-cratic Governor.

Discredit Velled in Effort.

Progressives and Democrats, seek-ing to have these measures on the bal-lot in the belief that they will discredit the Republicans in the 1916 campaign.

You cannot get well until you can quit catching cold three or four times every season. One cold sets you back more than you can gain in six months.

Peruna will fortify your system against colds.

LISTEN-Mrs. Rosa A. Kiss, of Kansas City (318 Clinton Place), "I can cheerfully recomsays: mend Peruna to any one who is troubled with catching cold frequently. Peruna is the remedy for any one who has a chronic cough or chronic catarrh. It will break up the habit of catching cold.

Grange, farmers' unions and Direct Legislation League, the hast-named be-ing a "paper" organization. The "Wash-ington State Referendum League" is backing a referendum movement against four other measures of less general importance. Old trouble between the labor and farmer representatives of the "joint" ABERDEEN, Wash, April 10.—(Spe-tial.)—Although the Abordeen budget for 1915 is $10,000 under that of 1914. Klamath Falls, and was here when the add building were valued at $1500,000 ender money allowed for all of them for Janu-more allowances, and the total money allowed for all of them for Janu-farmer representatives of the "joint"

Jesse Jay Mays.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., April 10. (Special.)-The funeral of Jesse

(Special).—The function of Jesse Jay Mays was held Monday in the Christian Church with Rev. J. A. Bennett officiating. Infer-ment was in the Oddfellow Cem-etery. He died at his home in Donald, Or., April 3. as the result of a nervous breakdown. The body was taken to his mother's home here last Sunday. Jesse Jay Mays was born near Corvallis, December 20, 1873. When 2 years old his parents moved to this city, where he re-sided until his marriage with Miss Marle Hosteller, of Ohio, December 7, 1907. He was en-gaged in the mercantile business. Mr. Mays is aurvived by his wid-ow and two sons, William, 5 years old, and Paul, 2 years old; his ow and two sons, William, 5 years oid, and Paul, 2 years old; his mother, Mrs. D. B. Farley; two brothers, Julius and Oscar Mays, of this city; three sisters, Mrz. Otla M. Curtiss, of Yamhill, Or.; Mrz. Olie Cochran, of Pullman, Wash., and Mrs. Frank Williams, of Junction City.

...........

ocrat. Governor Lister is to take part in the dedication of the new Cheney Nor-mai School building April 13 and that night will address a Jefferson day banquet of Spokane Democrats. Runaway Girl Held at Centralia. CENTRALIA, Wash, April 10.—(Spe-cial.)—Notified by the girl's parents, the police Thursday night arrested Olga Feacy, a 15-year-old girl, who ran away from her home near Menlo, as she alighted from a train here. The fugitive was returned to her parents.

perat.

its agents,

Appointment on Washington Board of Control Expected.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 10 .- (Spe cial.)-Governor Lister will leave Moncial.)-Governor Lister will leave Mon-day for a trip to Eastern Washington, and as the result of this visit it is an-ticipated that he will announce the appointment of a member of the Board of Control to succeed H. T. Jones, who retired April 1 at the conclusion of 12 years' service. The position un-doubtedly will be filled by appoint-ment of an Eastern Washington Dem-cerat