"PEACE SUNDAY" IS HERE; DAY IS SET ASIDE FOR PRAYER

Methodist Ministers Will Co-operate With University of Oregon in Interdenominational Conference During Summer School This Year - Programme for Thirtieth Sunday School Convention.

Peace, I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you, Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

TODAY will be observed as "Peace Sunday" in many of the Portland churches. For the occasion special prayers for peace will be said, music chosen for its appropriateness will be rendered, and sermons on the general topic of the day will be given.

The most important events of the Peace I leave the product of the produc The most important events of the Fisher; past week were probably the meeting of the Methodist ministers of Portland, on Monday, and the semi-annual conference of the Presbytery held in Westminster Church on Tuesday and Wednesday. At the former meeting Dr. C, O. McCuloch took up the administra-tion of affairs and Dr. Ford retired as president. Dr. Frank L. Loveland's address on "Efficiency" was one of the best messages that has ever been given at a ministerial gathering here. Dr. Loveland's church has just completed a campaign for efficiency. The undertaking was successful, so the remarks of the leader of the campaign carried

The Methodist ministers will co-operate with the University of Oregon in an interdenominational conference during the Summer school this year. In a letter to the local association, Joseph Schafer, director of the Summer school, Activity Is Encouraging. "Since the original conception of the conference, nothing has been more encouraging to President Campbell and me than the action taken by the Port-land Methodist Ministers' meeting. We feel that this action, when it is brought to the attention of the body of ministers of your church will produce the result so ardently desired by you, and by us, of interesting all of them in the interdenominational conference Moreover, it will help other denominations to evaluate properly the significance of the movement which the conference represents ference represents.

Now in regard to the representation we are delighted to learn of the pos-sibility of securing the co-operation of your distinguished Bishop R. J. Cooke and we will write him at once asking his assistance. Yau are aware, doubt-less, that Dr. Loveland has already promised to deliver an address. We are sending a special invitation to Dr. Avison and President Carl G. Doney, urging them to be present. We are asking Bishop Cooke to serve as chairman on one of the five days of the conference."
