

MR. POINDEXTER TO RUN AS REPUBLICAN

Lone Bull Moose Senator, on His Return to Spokane, Gives Out Statement.

OLD PARTY PROGRESSIVE

Concerted Effort to Nominate Progressive for President is Predicted—Declaration Made Division Must Cease.

Spokane, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)—The lone Progressive in the United States Senate, Miles Poindexter, of Washington, announced here tonight that he would seek re-election on the Republican ticket.

Poindexter arrived at his home here today and after consultation with friends issued a statement which read in part: "I will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Senator. As the nomination is to be primarily progressive, I will have full opportunity to decide all questions connected with my candidacy. This is a simple opportunity for discussion and full consideration."

The record of the last Legislature is a lively reminder that if we are to hold and consolidate (to use a war phrase), the ground gained in recent years the division of progressives must cease.

There will be a concerted and vigorous movement by Republicans throughout the country to nominate a progressive on the Republican ticket for the President of the United States. When united the party is progressive, both in this state and in the Nation. Neither the Aberdeen convention in this state in 1912, nor the Chicago convention of that year represented the Republican party.

Each perpetrated a political coup d'etat by force and Machiavellian methods, with awards of patronage on the floors and at the doors. Their acts were void and of no effect. "Well, Senator, is this true what I hear about you?" queried Attorney T. T. Grant as he greeted Senator Poindexter, shortly after the Senator's arrival.

"Well, I don't know, but if you mean what I think you do, I guess it is," replied the Senator with a laugh.

Outlook is Discussed. Questioned regarding the political outlook and the feeling in the East regarding the present Administration, Senator Poindexter talked freely. "Many people in the East, though they do not believe in the Wilson policies and will not vote for the reelection of the President, believe that Wilson is much stronger than his party," said the Senator.

HARVARD MAN WAR VICTIM

Cousin of Medford Resident Dies Leading French Charge.

Medford, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—Word was received in Medford of the death of Andrea Champollion, cousin of Austin Corbin and Corbin Edgar, the Medford major, who died in France, March 23. M. Champollion was born in Paris, but was educated at Harvard, where he graduated in 1902. He was known to a number of property owners in the Rogue River Valley. When the war broke out he sailed from his home in New York and enlisted in the American Legion in the front trenches since the early fall.

3 CUT 150,000 SHINGLES

Record Made for 16-Hour Run at Ridgefield.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)—The shingle mill of the Bristol-McClelland Mill Company, of this place, which is located on the spur of the O.-W. & N. Company and Lake River, recently made a record run of cutting shingles for a period of ten hours. During this time 150,000 shingles were cut by three men, at the rate of 15,000 an hour.

Wallowa Farm Traded for $18,000.

LA GRANDE, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—One of the largest property transactions recently involves the transfer of title to a well equipped stock ranch near Union for a general merchandise store in Wallowa, in the north end of Wallowa County. The deal involves about $18,000. The Union ranch was owned by H. Bohlenkamp, of this city, and consists of 800 acres, 50 under plow. It has electrical and water equipment. The Golden Rule Company of this city owned the Wallowa store.

WASHINGTON SENATOR, HITHERTO PROGRESSIVE, WHO WILL RUN AS REPUBLICAN.

MILES POINDEXTER.

CHANGE IN LAWS URGED

ALLEGATION MADE THAT OLD OFFENDERS ESCAPE TOO LIGHTLY.

Frank Davey of Opinion That Act of 1911 Regarding Sentences is Not Interpreted as Intended.

SALEM, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—That section 15, chapter 127, laws 1911, which provides for indeterminate sentences to the Penitentiary, has resulted in numerous old offenders receiving light sentences was a statement made today by Frank Davey, bookkeeper at the State Prison. Mr. Davey for more than 20 years has been in close touch with the Penitentiary and has made a study of prison management.

"The law," he said, "provides that any person who has on two prior separate occasions been sentenced to serve a term in any penitentiary or reformatory shall not be entitled to an indeterminate sentence, as the act says, but shall be sentenced to serve a definite term of years. This enactment was plainly intended to insure a longer sentence for old offenders and repeaters, but under the practice of many of the courts it works out the other way and the repeaters are always anxious to have the sentencing court informed of their past convictions. This is the way it operates in many instances: The man whose present crime would draw an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years and who, by reason of the knowledge of the penitentiary officials as to his past record, would be forced to serve double his minimum or two years, before possible release, stands a chance of drawing a flat sentence of one year by having the court informed of two previous convictions. This has happened in several instances in this state.

NEW COUNTY IS PLANNED

SHERWOOD MAY BE NAME IF CAMPAIGN SUCCEEDS.

Principal Reason for Movement is Due to Railroad Facilities to Hills—Meeting Date Set.

SHERWOOD, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—President J. E. Morback, of the Sherwood Commercial Club, has called a meeting for April 22, at which time the new officers will be elected and many matters of great importance will be discussed.

One of the most important subjects for discussion is the question of opening the campaign for a new county to be apportioned from part of Yamhill, Clackamas and Washington counties and to be known as Sherwood County.

BABE STRAPPED TO SADDLE

Soldier Tosses Child Aside Thinking It Discarded Bundle—Town Taken by Turks, but No Murdering is Done.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)—To flee on horseback with his wife and four-week-old baby before an infuriated mob of Kurds was his lot, writes Frank F. Oster, Seventh-Day Adventist missionary in Persia. He fled from Maragha, leaving everything behind. His wife played her face to the next day. He reports many Christians and Moslems killed by Kurds at Mandooch and Urumiah.

Mr. Oster formerly resided in Portland, Or., and Walla Walla, Wash. His wife formerly was Miss Florence White, a daughter of Elder W. E. White, formerly president of the Pacific and North Pacific Union conferences of Adventists. Her home was in Oakland, Cal., for a time, and later at Walla Walla, where her father had his headquarters as the president of the North Pacific Conference, which includes Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon. Mrs. Oster, describing the hardships of Persian missionaries, says:

"The dreadful Kurds came down on Maragha, and we fled, as did nearly all Christians there. The City of Meendoch that the Kurds took before they entered Maragha, was plundered and burned by them. The children were thrown into the ice-cold river and the women were treated dreadfully. We bought a horse and left by night with the Russian army of 800 men retreating from Meendoch. I rode the horse with our four-week-old baby, while Mr. Oster led him. We left everything except what we had on our backs and could pack in the saddle bags. Mr. Oster carried a small grip on his back.

"The first 12 hours were anxious ones. The soldiers were afraid of attack any time; they marched in silence. When the baby cried the officers asked me to stop. The road was bad, for it had been snowing. That first night and day I was in the saddle for 14 hours without rest.

"We fell off the horse once right in a small stream, but a soldier helped us a bit. He thought the baby was a bundle of something which he thought we threw her over to one side of the road. Mr. Oster had fixed straps on a board. We put the baby near to the board, then the baby on the pillow, and a smaller pillow on top. Then baby and pillows were strapped tightly to the board and fastened to the front of the saddle. She seemed to enjoy the ride, and did not care whether her head was up or down, or how much she wobbled.

"The Kurds and Turks took this place also, but no murdering occurred. Now the Russians have returned, and we fear they will take vengeance on Maragha."

WEISER RANGE NEARLY COMPLETED.

WEISER, Idaho, April 17.—(Special.)—Built on Government land reserved for the purpose and provided by department assistance, the only target range in Idaho for the exclusive use of the State Militia is located on a 160-acre tract, three miles north of Weiser. The cost of the new range which is being completed by local Company L and under its supervision will be nearly $300,000. The range is furnished by the Government for targets and rifle pits.

PERMANENT APPOINTMENT OF PARK OFFICIAL MADE.

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND THICKNESS.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, containing about 60 cents a large bottle at drugstores, known as "Wyethe's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyethe's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.
