At San Francisco-Los Angeles 6, Oak-land 2. At Los Angeles-Venice 4, San Francisco 2. Portland won from Sait Lake yesterday in a sensational 15-inning battle, featured by Walter Doane's hitting and a near-fight between the visiting team and Umpire Ed Finney. Order was restored only after Manager Blankenship and Subalterns Shinn and Hallinan were banished to the clubhouse.

It was the longest game of the year, twice. Score: and the score was not 1-0 or 2-1, but 8 to 7, in Portland's favor. Doane was the here by virtue of securing four hits, the last of which belted Speas ome with the tally that sent about 500 half-frozen fans home to warm suppers. The weather was callly and intermittent rains during the forenoon and early afternoon kept most of the .ans at home around their radiators.

This free-club swinging was confined mostly to the earlier stages, however. After Chief La Roy succeeded Johnny Williams and Hall it was a mighty pitching duel between La Roy and Irve Higginbotham.

No sooner had Umpire Finney waved James to his death than he had the entire Bees' squad swarming around him with their stingers unsheathed for action. Blankenship tore in from the coaching line like a trapped grizzly. and the movies missed a good war

After a few minutes of wrangling, Umpire Finney restored order by kick-ing the three main disputants off the field under $5 or $10 plasters. Fays went to right field in Shinn's place. Both teams had numerous basemen on the paths in the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th innings, only to see them die from lack of a timely prod behind them.

Donne's Clout Ends Game. "Chief" La Roy began the 15th by nicking Captain Speas on the arm, and when Bill trotted down to first base the damage was done. Derrick sacrificed him along to second base and he scored on loane's single between Tennant and Gedeon. Tennant knocked the ball down and Gedeon tried to head off Speas at the plate in vain. During the strenuosity of the final periods La Roy purposely walked Gus Fisher on two occasions, Higginbotham rebutted by passing Ryan twice with the bases something loaded. Buddy's toil for the day was two hits in five trips. Zacher and Hannah grabbed three apiece, and Gus Fisher likewise three on his string before the aborigine began to exude bases on balls.

Fortland got off to a flying start. In the old days of Gregg, Steen, Krapp and Seaton a game would have been won by three runs in the first liming. But Seaton a game would have been won by three runs in the first inning. But the Bees couldn't see it that way in these parlous war times. No sooner had the dust cleared away than they began petiting Southpaw Callahan. Pat also lost control and walked one man across with the bases full. Covelenkie St. Faul... relieved the Chehalis portsider with one out in the second inning, and Shinn whacked another run in making it four and putting the Beavers into the eclipse.

Game Is Sec-Saw.

In the sixth Portland was behind 6-3, In the sixth Portland was behind 6-3, four runs in that session see-sawed the champs back into the lead 7-6. Ryan's double and a hit by Tennant evened the score in the seventh and neither team registered from the seventh to the fatal 15th.

Decision is Disputed.

If you listen to Waiter McCredie, most of the crowd and Umpire Finnay, you'll be assured that Shinn was out. On the other hand, the Sait Lake bunch is just as emphatic that Shinn was safe. Oakland, With Johnson in Hitting and Baserunning Streak, Is Thought to Be Trial Horse of Campaign.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT While injuries have sanded the track for the San Francisco Scals to some extent, results from the first four weeks games of the 1915 Coast League season indicate that the Seals are not to make any runaway race of it after all.

In fact, Wolverton's troupe is finding the sledding extremely rough and bumpy despite Ping Bodie, Harry Heilmann and a few other big league additions. The Seals are hitting tairly well but they are fielding poorly. Candidly, Francisco safeties well scattered until we are of the eginion that Wolverton the eighth, when three hits were will have to strengthen in one or two bunched and San Francisco tallied places if he expects to remain up in good society.

To our way of thinking Oakland is going to prove the trial horse of the campaign. When Tyler Christian hustled Jimmy Johnston and Red Kuhn into his lineup just before the gong began to ciang, he slipped one over on his brother manager and on all the donesters. the dopesters.
