Yesterday's Results. At Portland—Portland 5, Los Angeles 3, At San Francisco—San Francisco 4, Salt Lake 3, At Los Angeles—Oakland 3, Venice 2 (10 innings).

Portland's champs kept up their good licks yesterday by nicking Jack Ryan for 12 hits and making it three wins in a row over Los Angeles. Score 5 in a row over Los Angeles. Score 5 to 3. Southpaw krause nearly gave the fans the "willy nillies" in the eighth and ninth innings but he recovered from his wild streak before much damage was done. In the eighth, with the score 2-2 in Portland's favor, our premier southpaw walked three in a row and forced one tally over the plate. Abstein ended the fun by driving a long fly to left field, which same Elmer Lober plucked off the boards for the third out.

Inasmuch as three men were camped on the bags at the time, the shortness of the parabola described by the

Davis and Ryan Star at Bat.

Bobby Davis, of Portland, and Jack Ryan, of Los Angeles, each secured three hits, and the batting of Captain Abstein for the visitors was also note-worthy Abstein, to be sure, bagged only one hit, and it didn't count in the scoring Just the same Abby would have a just kick coming were we to forget his bit in this perusal of the game because it was his first and only swat of the week.

Los Angeles secured its customary lead as early as the third inning. In this stanza Buemiller telted Ryan and Maggert home with a two-base hit to centerfield, after Ryan's single and a walk. But the Beavers were up and coming like a band of Turks, and they sowed the game up in the fifth by virtue of lighting on Jack Ryan for five hits. Shortstop Terry contributed a boot that helped to the extent of one of the four runs scored.

Davis Storts Fireworks.

Davis began the fireworks by singling over second Krause went safe on Terry's bebble at short, and both were advanced by a well-laid bunt off the bat of Rederick Murphy, a young Dutchman recently of New Orleans, La. Derrick then scored two by bounding a hard drive off Ryan's shins into short left field. Derrick went all the way around to third on Speas' single to right. "Cap" pulled up at second on Wolter's throw across the diamond, and both registered on Stumpf's single through shortstop.

Bayless for Venice Lets Ball Roll Carisch beat out a hit to shortstop a moment later but it did not affect the heart throbs of anybody because of an odd experiment on the part of Stumpf on the bases. Bill must have beheld a mirage or perhaps he had before the came. Any eaten crab salad before the game. Any-way he tried to score from second base on Carisch's slow grounder to

Little Terry had the ball clutched in his hands before Stump rounded third and plowed homeward, and he was so dumbfounded at what Bill was trying and plowed homeward, and he was so dumbfounded at what Bill was trying to pull that he almost forgot to throw the ball at all. Of course, Stumpf was nabbed for the third out, else we might have had a couple more.

Big Bill stoned for this idiosyncracy the seventh when he drove the ball or three bases into deep left center field, scoring Derrick. Derrick was on Gardner. 1 0 0 00 Kanet. 1 0 0 00 from a dead ball. All told, the adding machine showed 12 hits for Portland as against eight for the Angels.

Yesterday's win gives Portland three games out of five and the best the Angels can do is to tie the series. Today's final game begins at 2:30 o'clock with Higginbotham stated to heave for Portland opposing Perritt or Hughes, Scoggins or Burns, or Love. Or mebbe Dillon will shoot Ryan back at us as he has been in only three of the five games thus far—one win and two defeats. The score:
