der impassioned style of singing. Her olde remains in excellent, healthy condition, in spite of the heavy demands made on it, and the instance is one that speaks volumes for the correct principles on which her voice-placing is established. At the end of a long scene her voice is as fresh and placing is established. At the end of a long scene, her voice is as fresh and as pure as at the beginning. In the third act, Miss Lynbrook was prettlly made up as a fair-haired court beauty, and her purple costume helped the stage picture she presented.

Miss Mackie, as the blind mether, made the most of that part and her sympathetic singing and acting were well done.

Ingar as Enzo, the ship captain, and later as a prince, was vocally splendid.

"There has been a growing disposition in this country and throughout the world to emphasize the evils of strong drink," he said, "but even the most enthusiastic advocates of temperance have been surprised at the ghastly light which the war in Europe has thrown upon the subject.

"It has been found that patriotism, that compelling force which throughout the ages has led men to offer their lives for their country, is no match for the appetite which liquor cultivates in its victims. Loyalty to sacchus, Gambrinus and Barleycorn is greater than loyalty to King or Emperor or Czar. The use of drink has been found to be so destructive of efficiency that the belligerent governments, not on moral grounds, hut purely on economic grounds, have been compelled to resort to restrictive measures."

In this patriotism, and the contribution.

The willingness of one neighbor to tell another neighbor in a private way of the benefit received from Peruna, explains the popularity of Peruna more than all the advertising that has been done.

The fear of the publicity undoubtedly prevents the majority of such people from writing a testimonial to be used in the newspaper. But in spite of that we are receiving fine testimonials continually.

ANEMIA -- Mrs. F. A. DeWitt, Marengo, Ohio, says: "I believe Peruna to be the best tonic. I recommend it for any run - down condition of the system," SPRING COLDS—Mrs. Rhoda Stufflebeam, Bunch, lows: "A Spring cold I took settled on my lungs. Coughed. Could not sleep. We feared consumption. Thanks to Peruna, I am a well woman today."

CATARRH—Mrs. Sadie Allen, Joseph, Oregon: "My little boy is entirely cured of catarrh of the ears by Peruna. Am thankful for your good advice." SPRING TONIC—Mrs. Wm. McRoberts, Brown Valley, Minn.: "Taken in Spring Peruna tones up the system, acts as a tonic. I consider Peruna a whole family medicine chest."

I How did they hear of Peruna?

I Simply because one neighbor is always willing to tell another one he has found a cure. Neighborly conversation of grateful patients has done more for Peruna than advertising. Much more.
