Again on Thursday Mrs. Berger entertained with a bridge tea, seven tables being arranged for the guests. An artistic musical programme was a feature of the affair, and elaborate refreshments were served.

Mrs. Berger is a prominent club-woman and popular matron, and her social affairs always are interesting and notable.

Interest of society folk will be centered tomorrow in the annual tea to be given by the board of directors of the Women's Exchange at the Exchange. The tea will immediately follow the annual election of officers, and will be a smart affair. There have been no invitations issued. The board of directors will choose a committee to receive the guests. The tea table will be under the supervision of Mrs. Everett Ames, Mrs. Julius Louissan, Mrs. C. E. R. Wood, and Mrs. Henry Coulter Cabell.

It is a source of much regret to the patrons of the dining and tea-rooms of the Exchange that they are to be discontinued at least for the present. The sale of handwork and the excellent home-cooked dainties always to be found at the Exchange will be sold as heretofore. Hundreds of consignors are benefited through the Exchange, many women having no other source of income except by selling their handwork through this medium, and special attention will be paid to this, the main feature of the organization.

Miss Harriet Clinton, a member of the June 15 class of Washington High School, surprised her friends by the announcement of her engagement to Matthew Howard, of Philadelphia, the news being made known the early part of the week. The wedding will be solemnized immediately after the close of school, June 25. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. E. J. Clinton and the late Howard Clinton. Miss Clinton is a singer of some note, studying with Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, and her fiancé is a graduate of the College of Music of Philadelphia. He is making a tour of the states at present, giving a series of concerts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Lenette Ferguson, fiancée of David Milton Clay, Jr., of Seattle, are passing several weeks at their attractive cottage in Seaside.

Mrs. F. D. Kautner will leave within a few days for Seattle, accompanying her husband, who will proceed to Alaska. Mr. Kautner will pass the next three months in Alaska, and after a two months' visit in the Sound city with friends and relatives, Mrs. Kautner will join her husband in the north. They will again take up their residence at the Hotel Nortonia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis Mead and Master George have returned home from a two months' trip, visiting both fairs and Coronado, Santa Barbara, Dal Monte resorts.

Among the Portlanders who motored to St. Helena on Monday to hear the music festival under the leadership of Dr. Emil Enna, of Portland, were Mr. and Mrs. John Clemon, Dr. and Mrs. Enna entertained the party at a dinner party at St. Helena Hotel.

A May day dancing party will be given by the young women of the Madeleine parish, Wednesday night, at the Irvington clubhouse. The patronesses for the affair will be Mrs. T. J. Seufert, Mrs. J. F. Clarkson, Mrs. William Ryan and Mrs. Joseph Cronan.

Mrs. Frederick G. Grinnell, prominent Spokane matron, passed a few days last week at Hotel Benson. She returned to her home Friday, and during her brief visit here was entertained informally. Her daughter, Miss Helen Grinnell, is the house guest of Miss Louise Hausner, and probably will remain for the balance of this week. Mrs. Philip Schuyler Kamm and Mrs. Walker Willis Kamm were hostesses for a charming informal luncheon on Thursday, honoring Miss Grinnell, with whom they attended school.

Mr. and Mrs. William Louis Friedner are being showered with congratulations upon the arrival of a son born May 8. He is to be named William Louis, Jr.

Miss Cornelia Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Stanley, who has been attending school in Miss Bennett's in New York, will return to Portland, June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Dent Mowrey were honor guests for the charming little soiree musicale for which Mrs. Donald Spencer was hostess on Friday afternoon. An artistic programme was given by Mrs. Virginia Hutchinson and Otto Wedemeyer. Mr. Mowrey, who is a well-known composer-pianist, contributed several of his own compositions.

Society will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, who accompanied their daughter, Konrad Delbruck, to her home in Germany, are at present sojourning in Italy, where they expect to remain for a couple of months.

The fourth annual banquet of the Knights Templar Club was held at the Multnomah Hotel on Wednesday night. About 200 guests attended. The dinner was preceded by a reception and was followed by dancing and cards. The principal speakers of the evening were Frank McCrillis, president of the club, who acted as toastmaster, and spoke in behalf of the club; William David, eminent commander of Oregon Commandery No. 1, who responded on behalf of Oregon Commandery; the Rev. William Wallace Youngson, prelate of Washington Commandery 15, who responded on behalf of Washington Commandery, and the Rev. Frank L. Loveland, past grand prelate of Iowa, who made the principal address of the evening, taking as his subject "The Social Chivalry of the Templar Knights."

An orchestra played during the evening. Card honors fell to Mrs. L. A. Bailey and William H. Monroe.

Miss Mary A. Smith, whose engagement was announced early in the week to Thomas W. Gerber, shared honors with her sister, Miss Elma Smith, whose wedding will be an event of May 20, at a charming party for which Mrs. A. J. Boy was hostess Tuesday afternoon. The affair was held at the clubhouse, and later in the afternoon a delicious collation was served, the table being artistically decked with yellow roses, all the appointments being carried out in yellow and lavender. Enjoying the affair were:

Mrs. N. P. Gale, Mrs. Alice Venable, Mrs. E. S. Hinman, Miss Hattie Ellery, Miss Maude Penney, Mrs. M. W. Durham, Mrs. S. J. Cochran, Miss Elma Smith, Miss Mary Anne Smith, Mrs. Earling Sound, Mrs. A. J. Roy, Mrs. Joseph Gerber and Miss Anne Walker. Miss Smith and Mr. Gerber have chosen Thursday, June 24, for their wedding day. It will be a church affair, celebrated at noon, in the First Congregational Church. Miss Elma Smith will be bridesmaid and Mr. Gerber's brother, Albion, will act as best man.

Miss Smith has been associated with The Oregonian as editor of the motion picture department for a year, and also edits the woman's section of the Bulletin, issued by the Multnomah Club. Miss Smith is a graduate of Washington High School, later taking a course in journalism at University of Oregon. She is the daughter of Mrs. L. A. Smith of Wasco, Or., and sister of Miss Elma Smith, who will be a bride this month. Mr. Gerber is the son of Mrs. John W. Gerber, a member of the reportorial staff of The Oregonian, coming from Anaconda, Mont., where he was also on the staff of the Anaconda Standard. Mr. Gerber has also been on the Oregon Journal and was in the employment of the Associated Press.

Willamette University Mayday festivities culminated in former celebrations of the variety's gala days. The affair began with a grand parade Thursday evening and concluded with a sacred concert Sunday afternoon. Friday witnessed exciting tennis tournaments between the classes; a track meet between Oregon Agricultural College and Washington University; a student banquet, and in the evening the annual junior prom. Saturday's events included a tennis tournament between Willamette University and Multnomah College; May morning breakfast on the campus near Lauzanne Hall; a baseball game with Chemawa Indians; the crowning of the May Queen, with attendant folk dances, etc.; and the junior play in the evening.

Redfern Corsets

Style Is What Counts!

Be fashioned by a Redfern Corset and you need have no fear of your figure appearance.

But you want a NEW MODEL. Corset styles this season are different from those of the past. You can gain the military lines of the mode correctly and comfortably in a Redfern New Model Corset.

The new Corsets show higher busts, straight back and front, carefully boned with supple rust-proof boning and represent the last word in corset design for shaping your figure fashionably.

There is also a slight curve-in at the sides of the waist following the natural lines of the figure—but in no sense does this relate to the wasp-like waists of a decade or so back. It is a pretty curve and thoroughly comfortable.

Made of exquisite materials. Designed by experts. Carried in complete assortment. You may be fitted in a Redfern Corset at

$5.00, $4.00 or $3.00

But no matter what you may care to pay, you will receive the same careful, skilled attention. You may, therefore, enter our Redfern Corset Shop confident that you will find exactly the model which will most attractively fit your figure, at the price you are thinking of paying, and that you will be assisted and advised in the finding of it by a corsetiere who really knows what will most comfortably and correctly meet your requirements.

Not how much we sell you, but how well we please you, is the motto of "The Quality Store of Portland."
