THREE STATES TAKE PART IN GREAT CELILO CANAL OPENING

Oregon, Washington and Idaho, Represented by Public Officials and Laymen, Participate in Grand and Spectacular Climax When New Waterway Formally Is Presented to People by Government.

The weekful of final formalities and formal finialities was preceded by a series of events of lesser importance. but all calculated as necessary steps in attaining the grand and spectacular climax last Wednesday when the new waterway fownally was presented to the people by representatives of the Government that built it and paid for it. As early as a week before that his-toric day the first vessel was sent through the canal. The steamer inland Empire was selected for this honor. She passed successfully through the locks and the channel, requiring less than four hours to complete the voy-

Prominent among those on board the Inland Empire were Joseph N. Teal, who has labored unceasingly for inland waterway development; N. J. Sinnott, representative from the Second Ore-gon Congressional district; Colonel J. J. Morrow, the United States Army en-gineer who has had charge of con-struction work at Cellio: Admiral W. P. Gray, commander of the allied fleets that participated in the formal exer-cises a week later, and many business men of The Dalles men of The Dalles.

was the first day.-That was the first day. The next day witnessed another prededicatory event it was the formation in Port-land of a large party of open-river en-thusiasts, who left on the steamer Un-dine on the trip up the Columbia and Snake Hivers for Lewiston, Idaho, head of navigation on the opened waterway. The Lindne party left Portland at 1 The next ) Oregon National Guard and Regular Army Troops From Vancouver Were Feature of Parade in Portland. (2) Boy Scouts Made Good Showing in Portland Parade. (3) Firehoat George H. Williams in Pageant on Wil-Inmette River. (4) Schoul Children Who Won New Lourcis by Pretty March Formations Under Professor Krohn.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

医 医胆酸胆酸

Immette River, (i) School Children Who Won New Laurels by Pretty March Formations Lader Professor Krohn.
Tive Humphrey, of Seattle: Representative school of the Chamber of Commerce, presided generatings from that organization. Rishop O'Kelliy, of Baket, prononneed the invocation.
Theident to the ceremonies: A group of the Chamber of the staff had charge of the spartde and co-operated with a committee of civilians in a arranging the various sections.
An American flag, prosented by the other to the flagpole at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Following the dedication at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Following the dedication at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Toilowing the dedication at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Toilowing the dedication at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Toilowing the dedication at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Toilowing the dedication at Big Eddy by a group of Grand Army veterant.
Tormance of the canal. A street parade for White rode at the bead of the point and the exterior of the day were the guesta of the Portian of Commerce at a blance. A therewards they attended the other in the investion was held at The balles. Mose of the day were the guesta of the Portian of the water of the day were the guesta of the Portian of the water of the day were the guesta of the Portian of the water of the day were the guesta of the Portian of the water of the day were the guesta of the portion the start of the day were the guesta of the the portion the start parade was most completions and area was frequently contained anong the speakers, A public dance was held on the pay and streat the towners.
The balance district of The Dalles. Most of the day were the guestion of the other the balance district of the balance. A public the twinting federal on the pay and the twinting of the other than the exercises of the day were the guestin. Captain L M. Clark a

TRADING PORTAGE ROAD FOR CRAFT THAT RUNS ON WATER IS SUGGESTED

Addison Bennett Gives Truths About Happenings at Canal Celebration on Upper River and Comments on Some Details-Waterway Not to Work Miracles, but Cuts Freight Rates.

BY ADDISON RENNETT. FOR SALE, chean, one Portage Railway, in-chuding the franchisc. It has served its purpose, served it well. Will be sold chean or traded for any mort of craft that can run on water. Apply to Governor Withy-combe, Statehouse, Salem, or Joe Teal, Portland. By ADDISON RENNETT. Sullivan, Queen of Clackamas River; Beulah Hinckley, Queen of Calapoola River, and Wilberta Babbage, Queen of Willamette River. Most Beautiful Not Teld. For beauty viscolity In the served it well, will be sold cheap or traded for any mort of craft that can be sold cheap or traded for any mort of the day or traded for any mort of the day or the little rade. Of course there are degrees of any or the little rade of the day or traded for the day of the sold cheap or the little rade.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

what I saw, what we all saw, the young ladies, little misses and small hoys in their street stunts, and lit romething even better is not put on in Portland at the Rose Festival, some of us will ask why and wherefore. Be-oause there never was a crowd better entertained for an hour or two than we were by Mother Goose, the Pied Protect for an hour or two than who Lived in a Shoe, and their hun-dreds of youthful assistants. Give us, oh, give us, more children's games and children's frolles and misses' danches and youthful evolutions. As old or as young as we may be, we want to be taken back or Kept in childhood as often as we can. God bess the kiddles: let it be sald some day not far in the future that Portland ioves her children better than does any other city in the whole where we were

And to appear in The Oregonian at hold a candle to my Queens, with an assert will soor form the tempatizing of the state's cash (with Mrs. Kay, who has charge of basiness colt and Qimes as there are degrees of a source of the tempatizing of the tempatizing of the state's cash (with Mrs. Kay, who has charge of basiness colt and Qimes as there are degrees of a source of the tempatizing of the tempatizing of the state's cash (with Mrs. Kay, who has charge of basiness colt and Qimes as the present.
 Smail Parcel Is Spied.
 Smail Pa

THREE FOLD WELCOME IS GIVEN CELEBRATORS

Professor Lyman at Wallula Extends Greetings in Name of Past, Present and Future and Closes in Name of Old Oregon.

Professor W. D. Lyman gave the following address of welcome at The Dalles-Cellio Canal celebration. May 4, at Wallula: O National and state governments, and fellow citizens of the Norther the Wallula zephyr, exhales the and fellow citizens of the North- | fragrance of the dead leaves of history. west: It is my honor to welcome you Prescut Is Trlumphunt.