HIGHER PRICE FORECAST

HOOD RIVER GROWERS CHEERED BY HORACE W. DAY'S MESSAGE.

Visitor From New York Reports Conditions Favorable to Increases for Apples.

HOOD RIVER, Or., May 15.—(Special.)—Horace W. Day, member of the firm of Sigmond & Day, operating one of the largest fruit distributing houses in New York, brought a message of optimism to Hood River fruitgrowers this week.

Mr. Day before leaving Thursday night for Yakima, said: "I left Sacramento Tuesday night in a pouring rain that was followed by a furious wind storm. It was said that the wind caused injury to the early varieties of cherries, while the rain interfered with the ripening of the late varieties."

"Such conditions are unfortunate for the growers, for the fruit has been selling for large prices on the New York markets. The first carload of California cherries disposed of brought $4300, and as late as last Tuesday I noticed that some pony refrigerators at $25.00 to $5 a box.

"This storm was the worst in the history of the California fruit industry. The California grape crop will be about 65 per cent of last year. The plum crop will run from 50 to 80 per cent, owing to variety and locality.

Mr. Day said that in his opinion much larger net returns would be received by growers of the Pacific Northwest next year. "I have this judgment," he said, "both on the indications for a light crop, the general good financial conditions over the country and improved marketing facilities."

PORTLAND YOUTH HONORED

S. A. Herzog One of Seven Pledged by Washington Tau Kappa Alpha.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, May 15.—(Special.)—Tau Kappa Alpha, National Forensic Honor Fraternity, has added seven more debate men to its local chapter.

Sol A. Herzog of Portland, member of the variety club, was elected president of the Menorah Society, was one of the men pledged. Others were Henry Grant, Louis Kastner, Marsh Corbett, Phil Weiser, E. L. Weiser, Arthur Younger and Weslie Rennie.

Only men who have participated in intercollegiate debates or oratorical contests are eligible to be pledged. Washington's chapter was established six years ago, but the founders retained all the debating honors for so long that when they left school there were scarcely any eligible successors.

Within the last two years the society has been revived.

TWO NAMED ON BOARD

MEN TO PLAN FOR IDAHO ROAD SELECTED BY GOVERNOR.

Jerome J. Day and A. A. Parker to Look Over Prospects for North and South Rail Route.

BOISE, Idaho, May 15.—(Special.)—Impetus was given the plan to build a North and South Idaho railroad when Governor Alexander Wednesday announced the appointment of Jerome J. Day, State Senator from Latah County, and wealthy mine owner, and Aaron A. Parker, of Grangeville, as the two North Idaho members of the commission authorized to investigate the feasibility of building the route.

The third member of the commission will be selected from Southern Idaho. As a state, Idaho proposes to stand behind its construction. There is, however, a railroad built from Lewiston to Grangeville in the north. There is also a line built from Welter to New Meadows in the south. This leaves an unbridged gap between New Meadows and Grangeville of more than 100 miles.

To reach North Idaho from the south it is necessary to travel through parts of Oregon and Washington over a lengthy web of railroads. There is, however, a railroad built from Lewiston to Grangeville in the north. There is also a line built from Welter to New Meadows in the south.

The Oregon Short Line, it is understood, has some valuable engineering estimates, for which the Governor has asked. It owns the new mountain road built from Nampa to the head of the Payette Lake, a short distance from New Meadows, and may take a hand in building the "missing link," relieving the state of the responsibility and giving to the Short Line a direct connection with Northern Idaho.

SURVEYS ARE OFFERED

UNIVERSITY WILLING TO REPORT ON SCHOOL SYSTEMS.

College of Education Work Reorganized and Broadened, and Professor and Instructor to Be Added.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 15.—(Special.)—A limited number of constructive school surveys may be had without charge by Oregon communities from the University of Oregon School of Education next college year. These surveys, if circumstances justify, may be as extensive as the one at Ashland, upon which an 85-page report has just been made that goes into nearly every imaginable detail of the Ashland school system. The idea of hostile criticism is avoided, the aim being merely to supply the superintendent and the school board with a careful estimate of the effectiveness of the different parts of the system.

The work in general of the School of Education will be greatly broadened next year. To the existing faculty, Dean H. D. Sheldon and Professors E. C. Ayer and F. L. Stinson, a full professor and an instructor will be added. A complete reorganization of work is being made. The under-graduate courses will specialize in providing students with equipment for high-school teaching.

A new line of graduate courses that will demand much individual initiative and considerable research work are intended especially for teachers and principals. The correspondence courses in education have also been completely reorganized.

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.
