Man, Going Ashere From Vessel With 18 Packages, Arrested and Confesses He Is Acting as Agent.

An alleged opium-smuggling pl was broken up yesterday by the Federal authorities, when James Flynn, a sailor, and Choy Wong, cook, on the British steamer Crown of Navarre, and Chew Sim, a local Chinese, were arrested, all charged with having opium in their possession. Flynn and Choy are held in the County Jail to await action by the grand jury, both having walved a hearing before United States Commissioner Frederick H. Drake yesterday, while Chew was released on

The Chinese cook on the steamer and a Chinese fireman sought to dis-pose of a quantity of opium to the local Chinese colony and used Flynn as the go-between, it is charged. He carried letters arranging the sale of 18 tins of the drug, but was caught by custom-house authorities when he came ashore from the steamer at Al-bina Dock with 18 packages of opium concealed on his person. H. F. Mc-Grath, Deputy Collector of Customs, and Assistant United States District Attorney Rankin secured a confession from Flyan that he was acting as from Flynn that he was acting as
