

SOCIETY

THREE PORTLAND GIRLS ACTIVE IN JUNIOR PROM WEEK AT UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Miss Helen Wortman, President of Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta Gamma daughter, Miss Helen Wortman, who is attending an Eastern school, and a school friend, Miss Margaret Kent, of Lansdowne, Pa. The latter two will leave Philadelphia for the Coast on June 2, arriving in San Francisco June 4. Shortly after that date, Everett Wortman, a student at Oregon Agricultural College, will join the party, and they will pass about three weeks in the South.

Miss Sallie Lewis, who has been in New York for the winter with her sister, Mrs. Harry Fairbanks, will return the latter part of this week to Portland.

Closing the week's festivities for Mrs. William E. Guerin was the charming informal tea for which Mrs. John F. Dickson was hostess yesterday at the Waverly Country Club.

Mrs. Herbert Holman will open her home at 747 Overton street on Wednesday afternoon for a tea for the guild of St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral. Every year for several seasons, Mrs. Holman is hostess at one of these delightful festivities for the guild of which she is an active member. Not only members of the church but their friends and anyone interested will be welcomed. A number of society matrons will assist the hostess in receiving and a bevy of attractive young girls will assist about the rooms. Several attractive musical numbers will be given. Miss Eileen Brong will contribute a reading. Miss Florence Holmes and Mrs. Ralph Hahn will sing and several others will appear in special numbers.

Mrs. John H. Burgard has issued cards for a large reception for the afternoon of June 3. There will be separate hours, part of the guests being asked from 3 to 4, and the others from 4 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Burgard is a charming young matron, and her social functions always are anticipated with much pleasure.

Miss Maude Bateham's fiancé, A. Fielding McClaine, Jr., of Spokane, arrived Friday and the young people have been extensively entertained, particularly the bride-elect, for whom many lovely diversions made the past week notable. The wedding will be an event of Tuesday high noon, and will be a simple church affair, to be followed immediately by a wedding breakfast. Miss Bateham's aunt, Miss K. M. Clum, of St. Paul, arrived last week to remain until after the wedding, and another aunt and cousin, Mrs. C. P. Johnston and Miss Johnston, of Seattle, and the A. Fielding McClaines, from Spokane, parents of the bridegroom-to-be, will arrive tomorrow.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week given for Miss Bateham was the informal tea for which Mrs. Medford Reed (Rosalind Kingsley) was hostess Thursday afternoon at her attractive suburban home near Linnton.

Miss Lucile Coppwell, A Popular Senior and A Delta Gamma

About 25 of the younger set called during the afternoon, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Harburt and Mrs. Maurice E. Crumpacker, who presided at the tea table, and Miss Katharine Graham, who assisted about the rooms. The table was pretty, with an artistic arrangement of white anemones, Richmond roses, and wild maidenhair ferns. Wild flowers and ferns also adorned the living room.

Yesterday Mrs. Maurice E. Crumpacker presided at a charming luncheon, honoring Miss Bateham, and several other small and informal affairs have been given for this attractive belle.

her sister and honor guests. The drawing-room was aglow with baskets and bowls of yellow iris, and a profusion of Caroline Testout roses and water lilies were used in the dining-room. For the first hour the tea urns and ices were presided over by Mrs. Grace Gray Kamm, Mrs. Harry Smart, Mrs. Lloyd Bates and Mrs. Bruce Stewart; the next hour Mrs. Wilbur Pelton Reid, Mrs. Herbert Scott, Miss Alice Autzen and Miss Marjorie Read served. Assisting about the rooms were Miss La Velle Young, Antoinette Mears, Elizabeth Peacock and Naomi Beckwith.

Little Miss Smith arrived at the home of the Preston W. Smiths last week and is being showered with floral greetings.

Mrs. Joseph Andrews, who has recently returned from the Hawaiian Islands, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frederick Leslie Warren.

Miss Elizabeth Dodge, a member of the old New York Dodge family and daughter of the well-known Cleveland

LITTLE MISS ENTERTAINERS SCHOOLMATES.

Miss Ruth Cozard. Little Ruth Conrad entertained about 20 of her classmates and their teacher, Miss Sherwood, at a dainty party Saturday, May 15, in honor of her 8th birthday.

Dodge, passed the week-end in this city on route from San Francisco, where she has been attending the biennial convention of the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. James A. Dougherty returned to Salt Lake City with her sister, Mrs. Charles Whitley, for a short visit.

A charming little luncheon was presided over by Mrs. George S. Whiteside on Tuesday, the guests including Miss Borden, of Boston; Miss Munger, of New Haven; Mrs. David Loring, Miss Sullivan, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright.

One of the most successful musical teas ever given at the Patton Home was that of Tuesday arranged and managed by Mrs. John H. Burgard. An unusually fine musical programme was a feature of the afternoon, contributed by Dent Mowrey, well-known pianist; Dom J. Zan, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton Stowers, Miss Nona Lawler, Norman Hooper, Waldemar Lind, and Charles E. Stolte, who accompanied the soloists at the piano.

Delightful readings by Misses Elsie Cobb, Estelle Bromberg and Ruth Bromberg were an added attraction. Dozens of prettily gowned women called during the afternoon and were received by Mrs. D. H. Rand, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. Arthur Callan, Mrs. Frederick O. Daly, Mrs. Abraham Tichner, Mrs. H. T. Clarke and Mrs. Roy O. Yates. Mrs. A. J. Meier and Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal presided at the tea table, assisted by the Misses Margaret Haeder, Sybil Brown, Hildreth Humason, Esther Maegley and Wilma Young. Mrs. Daniel Kellaher was in charge of the refreshments, and Miss Mary Stuart Smith presided at the candy table and was assisted by Misses Sara McCully, Elizabeth Jacob, Nan Pennoyer Russell and Rhoda Humelin.

The second of the series of afternoon teas for which the Waverly Country Club is sponsor will be given Wednesday, and Mrs. William MacMaster and Miss Failing will be hostesses. Nearly a fortnight ago the premiere of these affairs proved to be such a tremendous success that the club will give them during the summer months, thereby assuring those who wish to motor and take tea a gala time.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum, of Honolulu, have arrived for a short visit with relatives. While here they will be the guests of Mrs. Adolph A. Dekum and Mrs. John Gill on Portland Heights.

"Everywoman's Road," a pageant-play by Josephine Hammond, is appealing to society women, of both the younger and older set. It was produced by Reed College students at the Helling Theater, June 1 and 2, with a matinee on Wednesday at 2. The affair is for the benefit of the Woman's building fund, and the list of prominent folk who are acting as patronesses assures a brilliant success.

A partial list of patronesses is: Mrs. L. R. Alderman, Mrs. A. H. Averill, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. George L. Baker, Mrs. E. A. Beale, Mrs. Henry Berger, Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle, Mrs. Joseph Bilderback, Mrs. G. L. Buland, Mrs. Thomas Spivey, Mrs. E. C. Cady, Mrs. Mrs. John F. Carroll, Miss Ruth Catlin, Mrs. A. D. Carlton, Mrs. R. C. Coffey, Mrs. Elliott Corbett, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. J. D. Corby, Miss Anna Belle Crocker, Mrs. Adolph Dekum, Mrs. R. G. Dieck, Mrs. Eliza C. Dolph, Mrs. R. L. Donald, Mrs. Frederick Eggert, Mrs. L. G. Elliot, Mrs. Thomas Lomb Elloit, Mrs. A. C. Emmons, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Mrs. J. P. Ewing, Miss Henrietta E. Failing, Mrs. W. B. Fehelinger, Mrs. Aristino Felts, Mrs. W. L. Finley, Mrs. W. B. Foshay, Mrs. William Truitt Foster, Mrs. G. T. Frankel, Mrs. R. C. French, Mrs. Louis Gerling, Mrs. John Gill, Mrs. Franklin T. Frif, Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. William House, Mrs. Joseph G. Houston, Miss Mary Frances Isom, Mrs. Jacob E. Kandler, Mrs. James B. Kerr, Mrs. William M. Ladd, Mrs. Frances Larabee, Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. Julia Lippitt, Mrs. Julius Louisson, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Dr. Mary MacLachlan, Mrs. M. McKinlay, Mrs. S. V. Mars, Mrs. E. J. Mautz, Mrs. E. G. Mears, Mrs. H. C. Miller, Mrs. Richard W. Montague, Mrs. A. C. Newell, Mrs. Richard Nunn, Mrs. J. M. Pipes, Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. R. L. Sabin, Mrs. Ben Sellink, Mrs. Sig Sichel, Mrs. Frederick Strong, Miss Ceola Swigert, Mrs. E. T. Taggart, Mrs. Gus W. Talbot, Mrs. Robert Tate, Miss Halle Thomas, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Cal-Abby Whiteside, Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Charles E. Wolcott, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Mrs. Albert E. Doyle and Mrs. Dan J. Malarkey.

Among the many charming affairs given to honor Miss Jeanette Thomas and Mr. Smith was the dance for which Mrs. Marguerite Dosch Josephyn was hostess last week. The Josch residence was aglow with garden flowers, and at the supper hour Mrs. Fremont Orlando Downing and the Misses Elizabeth Creadick and Camille Dosch presided at the table. In addition to the honor guests, Miss Thomas and Mr. Smith, there were Misses George, Stanley, Mrs. Herbert H. Calvin, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler, Misses Winnifred Huber, Dorothy Haines, Katharine Holbrook, Margery Hoffman, Shanna Cumming, Evelyn Carey, Roswell Dosch, Mr. and Mrs. Downing, Miss Creadick, Miss Dosch, Hunt, Kendrickson, King Tyler, Ernest Ruppe, Jack Worcester, Joseph Hill, Jack Price, Mr. Cauley, of Oregon City; MacCormac Snow, Harry Lytle, Richard Chubb, Walter Gold, Hughes Barnard, J. Ross Fargo, Howard Ross, Howard Charlton and the hostess.

Flowers and messages of sympathy are finding their way to Mrs. Frederick G. Bufum, who is convalescing from a recent operation. She still is unable to see her friends.

Other social affairs honoring the young people were the tea for which Mr. and Mrs. John Claire Montsith were hosts last Sunday, the attractive luncheon presided over by Miss Frances Fuller at Hotel Portland on Monday, the dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Will-

EVERYTHING THAT'S NEWEST FIRST AT THE EMPORIUM

New Palm Beach Suits and Dainty White Frocks

WE feature the two Monday at Portland's Emporium. For Summer wear—outing, travel, beach and mountains, nothing is more practical than the new

Palm Beach Cloth

It is an Egyptian warp and mohair that is superior to linen because it retains shapeliness. We're showing the newest, snappiest models in Palm Beach Suits. Norfolk, semi-Norfolk and belted effects. See them tomorrow—

$10.95, $12.50, $15.50

Graduation Dresses

A host of filmy new confections in Voiles, Nets and Organdies. Some made with heavy burnt-out embroidery. New tier and tunic effects—dainty little boleros and shirred yokes. Specially priced at

$5.95 to $19.50

New Handkerchief Linen Blouses $2.75

Smart semi-tailored model, with two patch pockets and large pearl buttons. Sheer handkerchief linen. Special Monday

124-126-128 Sixth St. EMPORIUM Just a step off Washington

Meier & Frank Co.

1857 1915 THE QUALITY STORE OF PORTLAND 7th, 6th, Morrison, Alder Sts.

Store Your Furs Here

for the summer in the atmosphere that the fur loves.

Here in our own new building, that is absolutely fire-proof, in vaults that have a cold, dry-air temperature refrigerated from our ice-making plant.

Free from moths. Free from dust. Free from moisture. Safe from fire. Safe from burglars and relieved from the creases of being packed or laid away in a hot, musty box.

Kept in good form by being hung on hangers that keep every garment in good shape all Summer long. All for a most moderate charge.

Fur Repairing and Remodeling

Done by high-class furriers at special price concessions if executed during the Spring and Summer season. Estimates submitted.

May We Send For Your Furs Now?

Drop us a postal or telephone Marshall 4600 or A 6101.

lam House Monday night, and the charming dinner party presided over by Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain on Tuesday night at the University Club.

Mrs. William E. Borah, wife of the Senator of Idaho, is passing a few weeks as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Max Lueddemann.

Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman entertained a group of friends on Thursday afternoon with a sewing bee, followed by the inevitable and refreshing tea.

Gaiety reigned supreme at the University of Oregon campus last week, when the Junior "prom" was held. It was one of the most notable events in the history of Eugene. Many Portland belles and beaux attended the festivities, Chi Omega sorority entertaining the following house guests from Portland—Misses Nellie Field, Mildred Copeland, Gene Spencer, Marie

—Photo by Grove. Miss Margaret Cartwright, Charming Little Maid, Who Led Dance Recital Last Week at Christensen's Hall.

(Continued on Page 4)

Superior Fur Storage

Avoid MOTH, FLAME AND THEFT by STORING YOUR FURS at H. LIEBES & CO. THE FURRIERS! Main 24, A 2440 (Messenger at Your Service) LOW SUMMER PRICES ON FUR WORK J. P. Plagemann, Mgr. 288 Morrison St., bet. 4th and 5th

Wedding Silver

New and Beautiful Designs

10% to 25% off regular selling price. This includes such well-known patterns as the Fairfax, Chantilly, Mother's, Shirley, Clevelly and King Philip.

Tea and Coffee Sets, Bread Trays, Sandwich Plates, Mayonnaise Sets, Fruit and Salad Bowls, Etc., all at 25% OFF. Call, convince yourself, we save you Money.

Delia Bloch
Largest Diamond Dealer in Oregon
283 Morrison Street, between Fourth and Fifth Streets.

PORTLAND MAIDS' ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED.

Miss Esther Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. William Ritter announce the engagement of their daughter, Esther, to Marshall W. Malone. Both young people have a large circle of friends in Portland. Miss Ritter graduated from Lincoln High School several years ago. Mr. Malone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Malone. Shortly after leaving the University of Washington he was made postmaster at Linnton, Or. At that time, he was the youngest postmaster in the United States appointed by the President.

Honoring Miss Agnes Miller, whose wedding to John R. Turner will be an event of Wednesday, Mrs. James McMenamin, Mrs. Burton Beck and Mrs. Ross Phillips entertained at the McMenamin residence yesterday with a miscellaneous shower. The guests included about 20 girls, all members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority, of which the honor guest also is a member, and Mrs. Thomas, of Des Moines, Ia. An effective color scheme of pink and white was developed with roses, sweet peas and peonies, and the favors and general appointments were of the same tones. Mrs. Fletcher Linn sang a few selections, and Mrs. McMenamin contributed several violin solos.

Miss Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller, and she is a charming and interesting girl. She is a graduate of Berkeley College. Mr. Turner is an attorney of this city, having studied at the law school of the University of Oregon, and he, too, is well known in Portland. A number of social affairs have marked the last few weeks in honor of the young couple.

Interest of lovers of outdoor sports, especially devotees of the saddle, centers in the annual Spring meet which is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, June 5, at the Portland Hunt Club grounds near Garden Home. A number of the women riders of the club will enter in mile-trot classes, and the little ones under 16 years also will have an opportunity to display their horsemanship in a pony race. The club will keep open house all day and tea will be served during the afternoon, a dance in the evening closing the festivities.

Miss Marie Haller was hostess for one of the prettiest teas of the week on Friday afternoon, complimenting her house guest, Miss Margaret Wiley, of Boston; Mrs. Herbert Cudlipp, a recent bride, and Miss Genevieve Matteson, whose wedding will be an event of next month. About 60 members of the younger set called during the afternoon, their handsome toilettes being enhanced by the artistic floral decorations. Miss Helen Haller received with

WE take pleasure in announcing our 25th anniversary. Thanking our many friends and patrons for their past patronage, trusting that we may continue to serve them for the next twenty-five years

Main Office and Works E. 3d and Ash
West Side Office 105 Broadway

Enke's Invisible CARMEN HAIR NET 5c

An invisible aid to beauty for that fashionable, neat, well-dressed appearance—wear Carmen, the Quality Hair Net. A style for every coiffure—a shade for any hair. Ask your dealer for the "Carmen Booklet"—Latest Styles in Hairdressing—it's free. Style 4 Carmen Net is 36 inches long with knotted ends. Look for the Carmen envelope 5c each at YOUR dealer's

Washburn & Park Co. 105 Broadway