Before you buy a cut price glove

Think of more than merely the appearance of the glove—consider what service you can expect it to give. How will they wash? Will the fabric pull and turn yellow and the glove lose its shape and become baggy? How will the tips wear?

In Kayser Silk Gloves every one of these features is guaranteed to give satisfactory service. That is why twelve thousand dealers and millions of American women prefer them—why more of them are sold than of all other silk gloves combined.

Be sure you get complete glove value. Ask for Kayser's.

Kayser Silk Gloves cost no more than the ordinary kind; two clasps are always 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and up; twelve and sixteen button lengths are always 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and up. The name "Kayser" is in the hem and with each pair is a guarantee ticket that the tips will outwear the gloves.

May 27, at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Ward, 1150 East Everett street, Laurelhurst, a special programme has been prepared, including bridge and 600.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Conquerors, the adult Bible class of the Millard-avenue Presbyterian Church, met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Olsson, 550 Fifty-ninth avenue, for the regular monthly meeting. Following the devotional services, led by Mrs. Merry, a short business session was held. The remainder of the evening was passed in social activities presided over by Mrs. Zeiforss, chairman of the social committee. The games, contests and music were greatly enjoyed.

In selecting companions for refreshments a novel plan was successfully carried out. Two huge pink roses were passed among the guests. On each petal of one rose was the first half of the name of one of the states of the Union. On the petals of the other rose were the last parts of the names of the states used in the first rose. The women plucked the petals from one rose and the gentlemen from the other. Those whose petals completed the name of a state were companions for the remainder of the evening. In serving refreshments Mrs. Olson and daughter were assisted by Mrs. J. D. Moore, Misses Elsie and Essie Strang and Mrs. J. H. Zehring. The next regular meeting of the class will be in the form of a social at the church the third Monday evening in June.

On Thursday evening Oregon Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templars, conferred the Order of the Red Cross upon C. H. Laughlin, T. M. Hamdell, R. C. McDaniel, H. F. McGrath, J. B. Argobright, J. B. Keefe and E. C. Morgan, after which the membership was entertained with remarks by D. B. Grant, grand commander of Oregon, and L. G. Clarke, deputy grand commander of Oregon.

The foregoing class of seven is the largest upon which the order has been conferred in the state.

The commandery was congratulated by Grand Commander Grant upon its remarkable progress and efficiency under the direction of Eminent Commander Davis.

The Order of the Temple will be conferred upon the same class Thursday, May 27, at which time the commandery will be favored with the attendance of Grand Commander Grant, Deputy Grand Commander Clarke and their staff.

It is expected this will be a memorable occasion in the history of the commandery.
