A special dancing party, which closed the series of "totally different" parties given by the Arcadians during the past year, was held at Christensen's Hall Tuesday night, at which a merry crowd of young people gathered.

Roses and carnations of red upon a background of evergreen formed the attractive color scheme of the hall. The name of the club in artistic red lettering was displayed across one end of the room. It was one of the prettiest and most successful of the dances given by the club this season.

The feature of the evening was waltzes by Misses Irene and Marie Watson, proteges of the Arcadians. The juvenile dancers swung through the intricate steps of the Highland Flinn, Dutch and Irish folk dances, and won much applause.

This was the concluding dance of the season for the Arcadians. Frederick L. Carlton, president of the club, announced that the regular subscription series for members would reopen in October.

LEBANON, Or., May 22.—(Special).—The announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Pearl E. Bradley to Carl Hollingsworth was made at a luncheon Saturday at the A. M. COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Just plain multifid cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifid cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

A Message to the Women of Portland:

Of all the stores in the city, I sincerely believe that this store is giving you the best opportunity to buy new suits.

By that, I mean that I am offering you the most desirable garments at the deepest reductions from normal prices, which at this store always are moderate.

This week I am offering all my Women's Fancy Suits, Sport Suits and Stroller Suits that have been selling at $32.50 and $29.50 for only $19.85. There isn't an old model among them; all are this season's styles.

Then at $13.85 I offer all my Fancy Suits that have up to now been selling at $27.50, $24.50 and $19.50. A small price, indeed, for suits so thoroughly good.

$11.85 buys a beautiful White Chinchilla Balmacaan that sells regularly at $15.

Whether you buy or not, come and see the style display. Each garment is a personal selection made in New York.

Vernon Follenashy, a 12-year-old boy, of Elk City, exhibited unusual grit this week, which almost cost him his life. Follenashy came upon a bear, which was held at bay by hounds belonging to a man named Hodges. He tried to kill the bear with a piece of wood, but the bear reared up and struck the boy with its paw, knocking him down a ravine. The dogs then routed the bear, which disappeared, and young Follenashy returned home.

"JANIE IS GOING TO TELL ME THE STORY OF HER BEAUTIFUL NEW SUIT"

"How She Got It on CREDIT. Want to Hear, Girls?"

"All right, Janie, we're listening! Oh, just turn around once first, so we can get another good look! Isn't she adorable in it?"

"Well, thank you, girls, for liking the suit so much. It's true that it is the prettiest suit I ever had. You see, I never went to CHERRY'S before. Let me tell you how it happened this time."

"I was down town the other day in some seedy-looking duds, and it seemed to me I met every single person that I didn't WANT to have see me looking so tacky. Finally I ran into an old friend of mine and while we had lunch together she told me that the stunning suit she was wearing came from CHERRY'S—and that she was going up there right after lunch to pick out a new Coat On CREDIT."

"Of course, I went along, and right away I fell captive to this suit. That's all my tale, girls, except for describing THE FASHIONS AT CHERRY'S, and that's impossible. They're the very newest and most exquisite Summer clothes in town! The address of the store where I purchased this suit is 339-391 Washington street, in the Pittock block."
