The Oregonian

(By Mail.)

How to Remit—Send Postoffice money or er, express order or personal check on your soal bank. Stamps, coin or currency are at managed by the postoffice address in ill, including county and state. Postage Rates—12 to 16 pages, I cent: 18 p 32 pages, 2 cents; 34 to 48 pages, 3 cents; 5 to 60 pages, 4 cents; 62 to 76 pages, 5 ints; 78 to 12 pages, 6 cents; Foreign ostage, double rates.

Eastern Business Office-Verse & Conklin New York, Brunswick building; Chicago Stenger building. San Francisco Office-R. J. Bidwell Com-pany, 742 Market street.

PORTLAND, SUNDAY, MAY 23, 1815.

A WORLD COURT FOR PEACE.

The most hopeful movement for the It was hopeful because it was proposed a practicable backed by sufficient force to compel justification the enemy points to a needs none. The advancement of that The Hague court is impotent because nations are not because nations are not because nations are not because nations. cause nations are not bound to submit their disputes to it for settlement ing and turning of close corners and because, when they do, the court among the apologists for any kind of has no physical force to compel recalcitrant nations to obey. seen that court ignored by the very any kind of peace, so long as it is nations which established it and The American, to find a passable excuse Hague treaties torn to tatters by the for the horrible Lusitania affair. It nations which signed them. Had the does not exist. Nothing can remove nations placed a club in the hands of the dark stain upon the conscience The Hague court, this could not have and character of its perpetrators or establishment of a world court, it is war. essential that proper fundamentalconditions be brought about. One consolation to be derived from the present war is the prospect that it will have this result. Each nation, great or small, which is bound together by common language, racial traditions, customs and ideas of government, must be permitted to become a self-governing unit, free to live its own life in its own way. Each nation's borders must be inviolate In order that this condition may exist, such anachronisms as Turkey must be extinguished. If the Austro-Hungarlan empire is to survive, it should reorganized as a federation of states, in which each nationality will as free to work out its own destiny as is any state in the American Union. Until this change has come, there will remain seeds of conflict which will can destroy them. Were Austria or Turkey to appeal to a world court for subject people, the moral sense of the ganization for maintenance of peace would break down

The principle of national autonomy established, the nations might unite in ounding a court which would undertake to adjust all disputes of a character capable of judicial settlement. There should be no more questions of the court. There remain questions of vital interest, honor and independence, which are not justiciable and which G. Lowes Dickinson in the Atlantic Monthly proposes to submit to a world council of conciliation, party to a quarrel from taking such snap judgment as Austria attempted on Serbin; it would compel the disputants to deliberate; it would suggest solution which could not be suspected of partiality. If this suggestion were rejected, Mr. Dickinson would trust the diplomacy of the disinterested nations to prevent war, for he does not propose to bind them by treaty to individuals now, as it always has been. enforce the awards of the council. He is not "ruling out war as impossible"; he is "merely endeavoring to make it He thinks that "the attempt in the an undue proportion of insane patients. present stage to make the enforcement of an award compulsory would not make for peace."

Mr. Dickinson's judgment is probably sound as to the inception of the scheme. History abounds in promising schemes which, through attempting to do too much at the outset, accomplished nothing at all and were vrecked. Compulsion should at first be applied only to enforce decrees of the world court on justiciable disputes. York has passed a law on the subject than it has ever been since the method of procuring acceptance and other states contemplate similar of an award by the court of concilia- action. It is quite practicable for each bered 100,000. They had among them tion being left to decision of the pow- individual state to establish its own bold fighters and gifted poets. ers in each case. An award might be system, but there are obvious advan- old Icelandic literature, consisting so obviously just that the powers tages in uniformity. might be willing to enforce its acceptance. In that case a mere threat of force might suffice. As the world confidence, it might be vested with outlined would probably include all necessary a knowledge of the state law venturers crossed the seas to Iceland, the nations of Europe and America. It would be capable not only of keeping peace within the civilized world. rope and America was combined for defense, the specter of the yellow peril eral law providing for uniform bonds original tongue than any of the rest which is conjured up by those who imagine a modernized, militant China sweeping over the world would disonly by force can civilization with- different laws. stand barbarism, for barbarism recognizes no other authority. Not until the great literature in Democrats and those pretended Retime is ripe for you to wake, for you the whole world has been subdued by farmers, there is no valid reason why which it is enshribed. civilization and enlightenment can it should be confined to them. We armies and navies safely be reduced to need a land mortgage system, National vian genius has always been demothe dimensions of a mere police force. That we may realize our hopes of rural apart and the divide is but a level FORTLAND, OREGON.

The Columbia River and its tribulumbla to the Kootenay River. The

Entered at Portland, Oregon. Postoffice as second-class matter.

Subscription Rates—Invariably in advance:

Subscription Rates—Invariably in advance:

Subscription Rates—Invariably in advance:

The Coules matter and income equally long sweep northward and before turning south. Rivers once a mile and a half apart thus return mingle after flowing hundreds miles in opposite directions. It is not generally realized that almost exactly one-half the length of the Columbia River is in British Columbia.

MORE FIGURES OF SPEECH.

The Benton County Courier, copperhead of the 1915 brand, defending the destruction of the Lusitania and the slaughter of non-combatant men, innocent women and helpless children. has several times directed the following query to The Oregonian:

If an American should insist on riding on the ammunition wagon in Carranna's army and Villa's soldiers blowed up the wagon, would The Oregonian have President Wilson uphold the right of citizens to travel" by isclaring war on Mexico?

A blowed-up wagon might be a grammatical casus belli, but hardly an occasion for war on Mexico. somewhat more accurate figure for our Ingenious Corvallis strategist would among civilized nations was the World be for him to imagine an omnibus Court Congress, which met at Cleve- loaded with women and children, on its way, say, to Paris, far in the rear not given up to pious aspirations for of the allies' lines, and under the direction of a non-combatant chauffeur. means to settle international disputes An enemy troop appears, and without without war. That means is practi- warning blows up the omnibus and over. Pennsylvania is about to erect cable because it is a world court kills the women and children. For a monument to her fame, but she

There is much twisting and squirm murderous violence, so long as it is We have anti-American, and the advocates of any kind of peace, so long as it is island. Before the nations can be united in of the needless crimes of the great

INSANITY AND IMMIGRATION.

Dr. F. L. Griffiths' recent address fore the Pilgrim's Club, of Salem, comfort to the rest of us. The Euromakes lively and instructive reading. pean war has almost extinguished the His opinion that the common reports export trade by which they obtain the as to the increase of insanity are par-

But the real increase is startling enough. No exaggeration is required abundantly in Iceland, and animals to make it impressive. Dr. Griffiths accounts for part of the growth of most forbidden by the surface condi-insanity by a supposed falling off in tions of the country and its climate. bear fruit in war and no world court the quality of our immigrants. He The Winters are not so severe as one refers to "the sturdy New England might imagine, but they are long and stock" with unstinted admiration and there is not enough warm Summer ald against any other nation which gives us to understand that most, or weather to grow grain. The whole was supporting a rebellion of their all, the original settlers of the colonies were sound in mind and body. world would revolt and the entire or- This is perhaps true, with certain among civilized nations having been ing largely vagabond gentlemen, dis- their volcanic tendencies, there is comsipated younger sons and the like.

Oregon pioneers were of this stock. A Missouri. Exception might also be taken to his belief that recent immigration following the year 1848 was.

The first settlers in Iceland came gration following the year 1848 was, This body would prevent either of course, wholly exceptional in its from Norway, the great mother of deal more eminent than could ordinarily be expected to leave their homes nobles, disinherited ne'er-do-wells and for a foreign land. With that excepion the quality of our immigration has been about the same in all periods. In one sense it is composed of picked They are the most hardy and adventurous of the social classes from which they come and there is little sequently came under the Danish great deal less likely than it now is." ground for fearing that they furnish crown. Iceland is too far away from On the contrary, many investigators been too courageous in spirit to be are of the opinion that the most prolific source of insunity is the native farmer stock which suffers mental government, they are in all important impairment from the barrenness and particulars self-governing, fully as isolation of the life it is compelled by circumstances to lead.

LAND MORTGAGE BONDS.

The states are not waiting for Fed-cured by farm mortgages, and as there the great monuments of European might suffice. As the world would inevitably be differences be-gained authority by inspiring tween state laws, we might have fortyequity jurisdiction over non-justiciable market. The form of each would be our universities. The University of disputes and the court of conciliation different and the rates of interest. Wisconsin is a famous seat of old Iceterms and character of security would landic studies. It is likely enough that under which it was issued. He would all the Scandinavians spoke the same be in much the same position as a language, but as their paths diverged man in the old days of state bank with time, so did their speech. of protecting civilization against currency, who looked at the market landic is now as much a detinct lanbarbarism. When the power of Eu- reports every morning to learn how guage as Swedish, Norwegian and much his money was worth. A Fed- Danish, but it is more like the old, peace, we must induige in no dreams of peace. Credit Foncier in France. Although today, no rich and no very poor, Most private borrowing is far easier in the tarles provide a curious geographical city is as much entitled to these fathey are so still. The people are sturdy party will stand for, but is for the humanities" and "to study. T. C. Elliott in an article on cilities from the Government as the in mind and body, perhaps because carly-day fur trade tells of an old farmer. He, too, could save much portage from the source of the Comoney in interest and commission, exert themselves so vigorously to pros-age they are but a mile and a half credit by enabling banks to issue notes There are none at all in the interior lican party is the party of plutocracy woman's new visions. She, too, other a slowly moving, fixed asset.

MOLLIE PITCHER.

Naturally Mollie Pitcher's memory omes to the front in the Pennsylvania campaign for woman suffrage. Fa-mous for her exploits in the Revolutionary war, she was one of the first of American feminists. Mrs. Dustin, of Massachusetts, was another, and Ann Hutchinson preceded both them. But none outshone Mollie Pitcher in the brilliancy of her deeds. Her husband, as all schoolchildren know, was a gunner on the field of Monmouth, where Washington immortalized himself by swearing at the faithless General Charles Lee. The contest was bitterly fought and the blazing sun beat down upon the struggling troops. Perhaps it was the unbearable heat that finally broke through Washington's hitherto imperturbable calm and caused him to ebuke Lee as he deserved. At any rate the historic oath came out in all its glory, and good Americans love the from Father of His Country for shouting it just when it counted for most.

Mollie Pitcher's gunner husband was shot down by his cannon's side, She stepped into his place and served the gun valiantly until the battle was The advancement of ICELAND.

The arrival in New York of a number of gentlemen from Iceland has awakened much interest in their native They came in an Icelandic steamship, the Gull-floss, which is the first vessel to sail directly from their ountry to the United States since the historic voyage of Leif Ericson in the year 1000 of the Christian era. Our icelandic visitors have come to look over the prospects of improving trade between their country and the United Their home lies a long way outside the currents of the world's life, but they do not escape entirely on "The Prevention of Insanity" be- the shoals and eddies that bring distially misleading is doubtless true, somewhat restricted possibilities of life Many more cases of mental defect are among their native volcances, glaciers noticed by doctors nowadays than and mountain pastures. Jonathan formerly and asylums are so much Thorsteinsson, who has been spokes-better conducted that patients are man for the visitors, says that Iceland nore readily intrusted to their care, has today 300,000 cattle and perhaps For this reason insanity seems to have 2,000,000 sheep, very respectable numincreased far more rapidly than it ac- bers for a community of 90,000 people.

A nutritious species of grass grows square miles, and fully an eighth of it is covered by glaciers. A great nummodifications. The early settlers of ber of small lakes still further re-virginia were not particularly admir-able either for health or morals, beparatively little room left for human seek new outlets for their products, great many of them came from the and they naturally turn to the United Southern or Middle states by way of States, the land which their forefathcharacter. It was a genuine flight of maritime colonies, about the year 870, defeated revolutionists from Europe They included all sorts of hardy adand was composed of men a great venturers with their no less hardy fol-deal more eminent than could ordibold chieftains who sought in a new land the opportunity to win fame and power. They founded a feudal republic which for some four centuries was virtually independent of home control, but in 1284 the Norwegians effected the conquest of the island, which subruled tyrannically. While they are today formally subject to the Danish much so as Canada and Australia. The Island is now barren of all trees except some dwarf evergreens, but in the time of Leif Ericson it had great forests which protected the soil and probably increased its fertility. At any rate, Iceland was more populous then

The inhabitants in those days numlargely of sagas, or songs narrating As it is proposed to issue bonds se- the exploits of the warriors, is one of The buyer of a bond would find in the year 870, when the first wild adferent bonds issued under forty-eight Stranger things have happened than a in scope, applying to urban as well as cratic. Mr. Thorsteinsson tells us that and the divide is but a level secured by his commercial paper. The Kootenay makes a long bonds we are discussing would mobil- along the coast. Nor could motoring trusts. lumbla, which in turn has made an ing a quickly moving, liquid asset, the of its surface suited to human habita- ence with the Republican kind of pro- mand of life the space and means tion, Mr. Thorsteinsson paints an gressivism under the Roosevelt and through which to grow, must learn reagreeable picture of its life. The laws are enlightened and equitably admin-observe any lively satisfaction with the grim realities." She is taught istered, the clergy are liberal, educa-tion receives better attention than ai-tocrats of Wall street and the trusts. long, laborious evolution of the earth tion receives better attention than almost anywhere else in the world, povers the erry is unknown and a flourishing Wilson progress into depression, hard upward way by choosing between "the two natures of one body locked in pride may scorn the modest charms of with the plutocrats that they want no the lone island in the northern ocean, more of it. The real progressives are must choose between these two nabut the philosopher, as he scans our in the Republican party, they com-daily tale of crime, slaughter and pose the vast majority of its members, poet, "Would God that I were there."

WHAT IS WATER WASTE?

It is asserted by the supporters of iniversal' meter installation that that policy will prevent water waste thereby reduce the need for adding and enlarging the distributing mains and will postpone necessity for never been definitely defined. Aside threshold.

sons, all of which are not duplicated cupied their minds. piled in other cities where conditions tation as agents of destruction.

re wholly dissimilar. and experience elsewhere. viously where there are miles upon been justified by events. miles of flats, apartments and tene-ments abutting on the sidewalks, irri-gation of lawns and flowers is not so The people are as martial as they many cases in the bath. Consump- deal of its habitual jollity. don of city water is thereby reduced. land.

any man of wealth in the Middle West nobly done. and the envy of his neighbors.

o buy table waters or install cisterns. shrubbery, but there is a period of moment. three months in every year when rainfall is scant. Continuous irrigation in that perood is necessary to keep lawns green, flowers blooming, shrubbery alive. We know of no city where conditions approach those in Portland, unless it be Seattle. A larger proportion of premises in Seattle is metered Portland, but a portion, at least, of the press condemn the meter policy there as a piece of extrava-Los Angeles has an abundant supply of water obtained by gravity. Europe and the people have always But the Los Angeles aqueduct is nearly ten times as long as the Bull Run pipelines and cost approximately five pedestal with an urn of roses at either times as much. It traverses an arid region where it is planned to use sur- significance which is heightened by plus water for irrigation. It is practical business policy in Los Angeles to conserve use that a revenue may be obtained from the surplus to help pay off the enormous burden of in- cle. Truth, her mentor throughout but liberal use of water encouraged by season, what will be the effect of her meaning and mission.

Installing meters at all premises? If The play impresses one we are not willing to undergo deprivation, maximum consumption will not be obviated nor construction of a headworks reservoir postponed. ise of water we shall pay for them. not with cash, then with personal inconvenience, dirty walks porches, burned lawns, withered roses advance of Everywoman from and drooping shrubbery.

MR. BRYAN'S IDEA OF PROGRESS

sublican party is still divided into tery men call life." property, on the lines of the there are no social problems in Iceland ther divides the progressives into ening. Everywoman ends "awake and cities than in the country, the man well-to-do. The laws were fair and Republican who is in favor of any melt and merge to spheres illimitable." who desires to build a home in the just in the ancient feudal republic, and progressive policy that the Reupblican She goes "with open arms to class" the people's health. Ambition and general are for once in agreement strife, the one which wastes and that hatred, is tempted to exclaim with the and they are as fully determined to have no more standpat control as they are to have no more Democratic rule. The Republican party will resume the march of progress forward which was interrupted by Democratic victory.

BEVIVING GAIETY.

For some weeks after the war broke out Paris and London were shrouded constructing a reservoir at the head- in gloom. The capital of France saw waters. What is water waste? It has the hosts of the invader at her very leaks, violation of sprinkling soon a fleet of Zeppelins might sail regulations, carelessness as to closing overhead raining destruction through faucets, and a few other wholly inci- the air. In both cities the street evils that can be curbed by lamps were extinguished lest they proper inspection, we doubt that there show good marks to the airships. The is actual waste of water in Portland. theaters closed. The tramp of re-Portland citizens use the city water cruits filled the ears of the anxious abundantly and for a variety of rea- people, while solemn forebodings oc-in any other city in the country. A But the war with all its horrors has laudable and, in some respects, a progressed several months without the World." There is Jephtha's daughnecessarily liberal use of water is now bringing upon either capital the ruin ter, "undaunted, brave, self-sacrificed that was feared at first. The Zepto the clear-burning flame of love." no other basis than statistics compelins have not lived up to their reputer. Then follows Ruth, the "nourisher of the clear burning flame of love." The tramp of the invading hosts has re-Hydraulic engineers provide estimates showing the number of consumers a water main of a given size the foe. What the future may bring and heart"; Brunhild, "who source with Siegfried past the Morning star." ecessarily computed on observation prophesy, but the gloom is notably nd experience elsewhere. If the lightened. All France is proud of her consumption on metered systems in redeemed reputation. The current large cities like New York enters into stories that she was a decadent nation the computations the statistics can only waiting for the first bold freenot be fairly applied to Portland, Ob- booter to carry off her spoils has not important an incident to water con- ever were. They have known how to umption as it is in a city of de- defend themselves and have done it waste." ached homes and flowers like Port- with the galety that made their nation Nor are conditions in the Middle in old-time wars. It would not be sur-Western states parallel. In most cases prising to see her leading the Eurothe water is "hard" and is not suited pean procession again within the next to laundry use as it comes from the few years as she did so often in the erywoman, of all God's creatures, has through and his leg splintered by a faucet. Countless consumers of city past. Parls in particular is expe-water there construct disterns or set riencing a jubilant reaction. The theaout tarrels in which the rain is col- ters have reopened and the life of foriorn girl waif staggering under a ected for use in the laundry and in the boulevards has resumed a good water is thereby reduced. Georges Ohnet, a French man of the stage, sits wearly on the symbolic another did a similar service for his Mississippi Valley and letters, fears that the reaction from seat of stone and "gnaws with fam- arms, "snatched the flag from the In the Mississippi valley and letters, lears that the reaction from thoughout the East Summer climatic melancholy may go too far if it is not ished wolfishness a black crust of hands of a dying comrade and, conditions differ from those in Port-checked. The comedies to be seen at bread." From this and the following brandishing it aloft, led the men for-There is no dry season except the theaters are, he thinks, "especially visions of the magnificent pageant ward to victory."

Everywoman learns that "the home ward to victory." in exceptional years. Ordinarily pre-cipitation is almost sufficient to keep tions." And he laments that "daring" grass green throughout the hot vaudeville is coming into vogue at the that it in turn may build more noble weather. Nor is there the same en-couragement to use water for flower life is reverting to its normal tone did cultivation. In the yard of many a with that exaltation of the national woman needs "more brain, more brain factory. humble home in Portland are rose consciousness which comes from great to comprehend true values where the gardens that would be the pride of sacrifice and the conviction of duty shifting calcium lights of false opin-

London, too, is becoming more friv-There is every encouragement to olous than the British Jeremiahs ex-liberal use of water in Portland. Na- actly like. It has secured the presence Sipated younger sons and the like.

Nor has the "sturdy New England stock" held its own very well on its rockbound shores. The inhabitants of the New England hill villages, of the New England hill villages, of the New England hill villages, of the usual paths of vessels. ture has provided us with more than of a certain Mile. Desiys, not unknown territorial integrity if the principle whose descent from the Pilgrims is in but now the usual paths of vessels. There is a surplus, but no practical afford welcome relief to the harassed first named were equitably applied a direct line, are the despair of all blayed as to uncertain boundaries as to uncertain boundaries and a social workers. Dr. Griffths seems from the region of all blayed been beset with mines and a great many ports have been beset with mines and a social workers. Dr. Griffths seems from the region of all blayed been beset with mines and a great many ports have been closed. The residual purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is absolutely pure and the region of all purposes. It is also all purposes. It is also all purposes and the region of all purposes. It is also all purposes and the region of all the second of the region of all purposes. It is also all purposes and the region of all the region of all the region of all purposes. It is also all purposes the region of all the region of that can be had. It is "soft" and show that the ruling spirits of both therefore suitable for laundry pur- France and England are recovering poses. Portland residents do not have their disposition to let the men in the trenches do the worrying as well as Soil and climate are conducive to the the suffering, while the chosen of the growth of the choicest flowers and earth make the most of the passing

EVERYWOMAN'S ROAD.

From the beginning to the end of Miss Hammond's play, "Everywoman's valescing adult to be coddled when Road," there is a potent march of a new baby is on hand. Secretary thought. The reader feels the progress of the intellectual drama in the time in two months on arrival of little lines with their close logic and poetic beauty, in the symbolic stage settings and the costumes of the characters. Nothing that is presented to the spectator is meaningless. The stage is irranged with a thoughtfulness worthy of Maeterlinck. The ancient marble the Belgian survivors. sundial, the low marble bench, the end of the stage, are full of mystical the costumes of the Everywoman herself is clad in Justrous black, her gown and sleeves lined with flame. On her left wrist is a mana debtedness contracted in order to ob- the play, also wears a manacle on one wrist, nor is the spectator left in any doubt about the meaning of these policy as applied to Portland? If actual waste is but incidental and if when the Spirit of the Mind appears, what is generally termed "waste" is she is clad in steel blue, while Wit is in blue shot with flame and Will in ver-abundance, by lack of necessity blue shot with bronze. Athena, who to resort to substitute supplies, by sprang from the head of Zeus clad in opportunity to beautify the homes and full armor with a drawn sword in her y the annual recurrence of a dry hand, did not proclaim more clearly

The play impresses one first as an ingenious and splendid pageant. The numerous actors, their strange and be decreased by installation of me- beautiful costumes, the mysteriously ters, and consequently additions to suggestive decorations of the stage, enlargements of mains will not the rapid appearance and departure of successive bands of chanting agures. the haunting significance of the lights, If installation of meters curtails the all combine to charm the attention telligence. As a whole it depicts with vast and complicated symbolism the primitive slavish slumbers to the full liberty of truth, love and endeavor. At the beginning of the play she has been "sleeping for centuries and cen-Mr. Bryan is at his old game of turies." She has been "impelled by ifferent laws.

If the Scandinavian telling the readers of the Commoner instinct, inst publicans who assist them. In a to learn in conscious toil the compass rigned article he insists that the Re- and the depth of that God-given mysstandpatters and progressives. He fur- the means and progress of her awak nominal and real progressives. A eager for the road, a road no longer nominal progressive he defines as a circumscribed for me." Her "horizons party will stand for, but is for the humanities" and "to fill up her life

Everywoman begins her progress could be deal with a land mortgage per in the face of their difficult en- little effort to sugar-coat the pill in which she first appears to the wide Columbia rises in British Columbia, bank having authority to issue bonds vironment. The Island is but ten days' which is to be administered" to the intellectual horizons where she exer-The source of the Kootenay is about seventy-five miles north of the Columbia's and the two rivers flow parallel for that distance. But the Kootenay of the policy behind the Federal reflows southward and the Columbia flows are southward to the policy behind the Federal reflows southward and the Columbia flows for the columbia flows flows flows for the columbia flows f northward. At the old fur trade port- The law has mobilized the merchant's more easerly if it had better roads. patter to the effect that the Repub-

"weary of the torn and motley cloak that fools flung around her in the tures, and out of the choice comes all there is in life. "Ever out of the struggle 'twixt the joy and pain new life evolves," as the old Greek philosopher taught so long and long ago. Everywoman's pitiful history now passes before her in a symbolic pageant of the primitive cave women Egyptian slaves, a colonial dame with her toddling child, a telephone girl, a nurse, a teacher and dozens more. pathetic procession reminds her that her "back and hand and body have been made to bear a goodly brunt. She has been "so tollsome and so unintelligent in toil, so bound to fossiled lines, so selfishly unselfish and so good, so good." The world appreciates her goodness in a way of its own. "kneels down before your shrine, then quietly goes out and sells you into chains to feed its pampered and most bestial appetites." When the workers have passed by, the Spirit of Art arises at the call of Truth and reveals to Everywoman "the noblest Women of Then follows Ruth, the "nourisher of constancy"; Antigone, "swept with fires of transcendent love"; sweet Alcestis, and Joan of Arc, "who left a sheltered peace to lead her France to victory. "Her blood," says Art, "has dyed the fields where grow the lilies she so loved," but "the lilies are whitest where she bled." These women "lived integrities and so were strong. They built imperishable ideals which bave outlasted monument and state and men's decrees. They did not waste-they spent, they did not

But there have been wasters, plenty 'For centuries the rich have wasted wealth, the poor have wasted time, the ignorant have wasted the achievements of the wise." And Evheavy bundle of basted sweatshop along with the fellow who, when one clothing." The poor thing limps across cannon ball took off both legs and the stage, sits wearily on the symbolic another did a similar service for his and state must feed the single soul homes and states to breed more spien-She learns, too, souls." ion play," and she needs a hand them back their old hatistones the "trained in skillful ways and married next day for a quarter. to her mind and heart." Thus equipped she will fulfill her mission, which is "to toll with man until the God in Last week I passed a hair cut up man stands free."

rate power in Europe was practically rect threat of war Italy has been saying: "He sure your sins will find threatening Austria for several months. Instead of issuing an ultimatum Austria has countered with negotiations and diplomacy. Ten answering the door, because you never months ago every European nation can tell whether it is retribution or carried a chip on its shoulder. Now opportunity that is knocking. the only chip-bearer is the one important nation that has not yet had portunity should begin knocking until taste of modern warfare.

There isn't much chance for a con-McAdoo left the house for the first

Belgium receipts show a deficit and itary authorities to make it good. doubt the sum can be extracted from served, is careful to let it be known that another protest to Britain will characters, be made regarding the blockade of Germany.

The Administration, it will be ob-

Young Rockefeller clashed with his ross-examiner at the Washington Didn't think there was enough human emotion in William for that

As to a new submarine that can stay under a month, what America needs s one that can stand a year or so under water, if the F-4 is a criterion. It develops that when a Southern Oregon man dared a neighbor to shoot him the neighbor shot. But it never happens that way in melodrama. A dispatch reports that 7000 Turks vere killed in battle to avenge the death of a British General. Reads like a chapter from the dark ages. For General Miles to be expounding peace propaganda sounds as consistent as it would for Doc Jordan to shout for preparedness.

The steel industry is booming, Good! Now we'll all draw dividends on our A harsh and haughty millionaire steel stock and take in the Fair, more or less tame. Or else we've gotten used to the idea. Germany may offer to see the thing our way if we will help pull her chest-

Nevertheless, the war has grown uts out of the fire. It begins to appear as if the Britwould kick Kitchener out of the military kitchen Glad the weather is cutting up its apers well in advance of the Festival. Bryan is now busy trying to "mud-ly" the diplomatic waters.

Mount Lassen is now throwing mud And here election is hard upon us

Portland is now one great bed of

Gleams Through the Mist By Dean Collins,

The Women's Council.

The mothers and wives and the daughters They called them a council, and gathered

The case of red Mars, with much argument, And why the grim god of destruction should die: scant wore his chances of clemency

From the mothers and wives and the daughters of men. The mothers and wives and the daughters of men, They sat in their council, debating the Condemned and condemned and condemned him again, And cast their flerce hate in his blood-mottled face. A bate that would baffle the bitterest pen, From the mothers and wives and the daugh-ters of men.

The mothers and wives and the daughters They cursed savage Mars from the depth of their heart,

And far out of weary humanity's ken.

They hade the Destroyer forever depart.

And give his pale horizons back once again To the mothers and wives and the daughters

And while all this council acclaimed the That cast bloody Mare back, in chains, to The sound of war bugies, trumpeting free

Rang in through the hush of the council half there, And loud rolled the drums with their quickening beat, And loud rang the pave with the tramping of feet.

And thousands on thousands, with banners flung free, Rolled forth the great regiments unto the And the women looked out from the council

All men follow after the piping of Mara, O'er earth and o'er ocean and forest and And wer to the women, the mothers of

The mothers and waves and the daughters They called them a council 'gainst war, Mars whistled the half of the world to his

And they scurcely looked back as he ted them away. Ho-ho! And youf hopes are in ashes again, Ye mothers and wives and ye daughters of

Will Irwin tells us a war story about a soldier who, with both hands shot This man should go down in history

A news item tells of a party that used blg hallstones in the place of golf balls and found them very satis-

Probably none of the caddles held out on them and then tried to self Solemn Thought.

Title week I pass a hair out us Because I'm afraid that I'm catch cetd.

When an ancient crime comes home to roost, one finds comfort in the old

A good many people are shy about Besides we see no reason why opyou have snubbed her, so the chances are that it is retribution knocking at

Speaking of retribution, it is easy to tell it when you see it.

Retribution is the misfortune that hits another fellow and gives you a chance to feel especially virtuous bemeans are sought by the German mil- cause you didn't happen to be under it No when it fell

"Sir," said the Courteous Office Boy, we have today achieved a triumph Indeed."

"In our five-inch bookshelf for busy

the door.

men, we have arranged to furnish Chancer's Canterbury Tales in a single apsule." I marvelled with great admiration as the C. O. B. read:

> Pilgrims merry For Canterbury, Nice mixed bunch; Stop for lunch; Amusement fails: Start felling tales; Every one Joins the fun, From day to day, Along the way. Forme nerration Needs expurgation Some good stuff. Chaucer, the sport Who makes the report-Good tale teller,

The Russian campaign in the Carpathians reminds us of the well-known maneuvers of the King of France and his four thousand men.

Our Own Popular Song, Who always had his way, Called his young daughter, sweet and fair,

Unto his side one day; Twe picked a well-known magnate out, But she just soaked him on the snout And sweetly to him said:

My lover is boss of a scavenger cart; I scorn all inducements of gold: I love you devotedly." he said in part, When the tale of his love he told. Perhaps you may force me to be the post

Of this magnate, but O, my heart, Has went with the ash can, my spirit is tled To the boss of the scavenger cart. The harsh and haughty millionaire He viewed her with surprise,

He kissed his daughter sweet and fair, And teurs were in his eyes. You have done better than I thought When Cupid's shaft was sped, Then once seam she enid:

Just like the other one; and repeat meftly while the trap drummer beats on an ash