MR. BROWNE IS SUGGESTED

Writer Urges That Republicans Rally to Oregon Man for President.

ST. JOHNS, Or., May 22,-(Special.)-The interview in The Oregonian Sunday and the editorial following, concerning a coming or get-together of the Bull Moosers and Republicans for the purpose of agreeing upon Presidential timber satisfactory to all fac-tions of both Bull Moose and Repub-lican elements, contained statements calculated to arouse a spirit of activity in the minds of all who rejoice in party success and believe in party discipline and good leadership.

Mr. Clark said the declaration of Justice Hughes declining to permit the use of his name as a Presidential candidate climinates him from considera-tion and your editorial was to the effect that Mr. Barnes and Mr. Roose-velt both must be pushed aside as po-litical pilots. Mr. Roosevelt, belong-ing to another than the Republican party, probably could not expect, and his name would not receive, serious consideration among real Republicans, but the declination of Mr. Hughes at this time will not be taken seriously, in case the use of his name would proothers. equally capable and as well versed in statecraft.

Senator Robert M. La Follette refused to leave the party when his choice in the Chicago convention went to the wall. He has as yet not declined. He is able and, while regarded by many as radical, with responsibility, is conservative. He was on the ways and means committee that drafted and presented the McKinley tariff bill that was followed by Nation-wide prosperity. He was McKinley's right-hand man in the preparation of that great measure and at the request of its author made a speech on the floor of the House in behalf of the same. He believes in a tariff law so framed that the protection aforded American manufacturers shall equal the difference in the cost here and abroad. He is progressive and ought to be satisfactory to the Bull Moose element providing the spirit of conciliation is to govern and the personal hatred of a few individuals not to rule or be the selecting force. He carried Multnomah County against Mr. Rosevelt, which would indicate that he has earnest friends and active supporters here. He could defeat President Wilson if nominated.
