

GUN ENTHUSIASTS COMING FROM AFAR

Record Attendance at Annual Northwest Shoot Here Next Sunday Is Indicated.

GROUNDS SPIC AND SPAN

Cash Prizes and Trophies to Total More Than $3000 in Valuation. Portland Club Busy Preparing for Large Crowd.

If all the out-of-state shooters who have made inquiries are on hand when the first gun is fired next Sunday all previous attendance records for the annual Northwest shoot—scheduled for the Portland Gun Club grounds June 6, 7, 8 and 9—will be shattered by more than 100 contestants.

Nimrods from British Columbia, San Diego, Phoenix, Ariz., Montana, Wyoming and Utah have been communicating with members of the Portland Gun Club.

While next Sunday has been set aside for practice day, many of the entries will not be here until the opening event Monday.

Prize money to be distributed to the winners of the various events will be more than $3000 in valuation.

Members of the Portland Gun Club have told us that the Portland Gun Club has more attractions for the trapper than any similar organization west of Philadelphia.

"We pride ourselves on having the best shooting grounds on the Pacific Coast and some of our visiting friends have told us that the Portland Gun Club has more attractions for the trapper than any similar organization west of Philadelphia.

Spectators Provided For. "The trappers are so situated that spectators can remain on the porch of the clubhouse and see the shooters breaking the bluecocks.

"Out-of-town shooters should not forget their good receipts. Fifty shooters are entitled to receive a third fare and these are good to return after the Rose Festival, June 12.

Following are just a few of the out-of-state trappers who have sent word to the officials of the Portland Gun Club asking for entry blanks and literature about the annual Northwest shoot:
