

MAHARAJAH ROBBED; THIEF IS CAPTURED

Salt Lake Police Recover Box Containing Letters of Credit for 90,000 Pounds.

CHEST OF JEWELS MISSED

Prisoner, Who Posed as Member of German Nobility, Gains Access to Prince's Rooms as Vendor of Art Works.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 5.—Lorenz von Arnim, who claims to be a relative of General von Arnim, of the German army, is in jail here and confessed today to the theft of a strong box taken from the apartments of the maharajah of Kapurthala in a Salt Lake hotel Thursday, according to the police.

Von Arnim, the police say, has also revealed the hiding place of the box which, with its contents practically intact, is in the hands of the police. The box contained about $500 in foreign money and papers, including photographs in a secret compartment which Von Arnim did not open.

Among the papers are a receipted bill for $250 from a New York hotel, a receipt for $7000 for a private railway car, a letter of credit for $60,000 issued in Bombay, and another for $20,000 issued in London.

Von Arnim was arrested last night at Ogden, where he attempted to exchange English for United States money. He talked freely of the theft, the police assert, saying he obtained access to the maharajah's apartments here in the guise of a vendor of art works.

Von Arnim was arrested last night made several acquaintances in social circles, where he represented himself as a member of the German nobility.

PASADENA, Cal., June 5.—Minus about $1200, which was reported to have been taken by a hotel thief in Salt Lake City, Sir Jagajit Singh, Maharajah of Kapurthala, India, is here today with his maharane, who is said to have been the Senorita Delgado, a Castilian dancer, whom he met while attending the wedding of King Alfonso of Spain.

The thief in Salt Lake obtained not only the currency, but also the Indian prince's passports, it was said, but he missed a brass-bound chest, which, according to reports, contained a rare assortment of the maharajah's jewels. When asked if the report was true, the maharajah expressed the opinion that American newspaper reporters were impertinent.

"But," he added, "perhaps the papers have to be intimate to be interesting."

The royal party, numbering half a dozen retainers with 16 trunks, will remain four days.

PREMIUMS ORDERED BACK

Judge Galloway Passes on Mutual Fire Insurance Case.

SALEM, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Circuit Judge Galloway today directed the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Portland to return unearned premiums to the Oregon Merchants' Mutual Assurance Association and Horticultural Relief, which failed recently. The companies reinsured in the Portland company, the policies being canceled when State Insurance Commissioner Wells was appointed receiver of them to the contrary, because of a state law. Under the ruling of the court the policy holders will be entitled to the unearned premiums if they desire to cancel policies.

LIQUOR RAID CASES HEARD

Ernest E. Jones Convicted and Chinese Verdict Delayed.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Ernest E. Jones was tried and found guilty by Recorder Porter, of West Linn, and Lee Pong tried and the case taken under advisement by Recorder Loder, of this city, yesterday. The two were arrested Monday, following liquor raids made by Chief of Police Shaw and Sheriff Wilson.

W. Reynolds, the steward of the Moose lodge, will have a hearing Monday, and F. D. Cox and William Myers, Tuesday. The cases against the officers of the Moose lodge, against whom complaints have been issued, are held up pending the Council's decision on an offer of concessions made by the lodge if charges are dropped.

BAND PLANS MIXED

ENGAGEMENTS NOT KEPT

Organization Plays Often Enough, but Most of Its Concerts Are Impromptu, While Its Regular Dates Are Missed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(Special.)—The last remaining members of the Portland Police Band have drifted home. They did a lot of boosting for Portland while seeing the Panama-Pacific Exposition and had a good time themselves, but some of the officials of the organization have about the same kind of regard for police band tours that stranded operative impresarios have for that sort of business.

The visit of the Portland police was not all smooth. The band was on the rocks soon after arrival, but was saved by the intervention of Sergeant Ellis, who first of all deposed A. L. Spencer from the management.

Two factions developed within the band, one supporting Manager Spencer, the other backing Sergeant Ellis. The internal trouble first cropped out when the band arrived and decided that some of the arrangements which Manager Spencer had made were not suited to an organization representing Portland.

Engagement Is Broken.
Manager Spencer had made arrangements with the Empress Theater before leaving Portland, for a week's play, but the musicians, after arriving here, decided that the engagement had no attraction for them and refused to keep it.

It was then a case of "no funds" with the police musicians. Other possibilities on which Manager Spencer had based plans for a trip to San Diego were eliminated as beyond the scope of the band and the San Diego part of the excursion was called off.

The musicians stayed around San Francisco, playing often enough, but always impromptu. More trouble arose when the band had an engagement to play at the St. Francis Hotel for one of the visiting Governors. The orders were jumbled and when it came time to play, only three or four of the musicians were there.

On the same night the band was expected at the Oregon building, but the confusion over the first mistake kept the band from filling its second date.

Sergeant Ellis Departs.
About that time, Sergeant Ellis became disgusted with the lack of harmony within the organization and packed his suitcase, departing for Portland.

The minority faction then held a meeting and Manager Spencer was reinstated. It was then too late, however, to make arrangements for any official concerts at the Exposition grounds and the band gave several more impromptu concerts and then went home.

At the Oregon building, the officials hardly knew what the band was about to do. It was impossible for the band to make showing on its arrival because the plans of the organization were unknown to the officials at the Oregon building.

"We came down thinking that all arrangements had been closed and that we had only to fill the schedule. Instead we had all that to do after we got here," is the way one of the departing members put it.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WINS

Jury Refuses Verdict for Death of Girl Killed by Train.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—A jury in the Circuit Court returned a verdict for the Southern Pacific in the suit by Edward Summerfield, administrator of the estate of Alma Summerfield, who was killed a year ago when struck by the Shasta Limited near Canby. The road was sued for $2500.

The plaintiff alleged that the death of the girl was due to alleged defects in the eyesight of G. E. Kenny, the engineer. Mr. Kenny, on the stand, testified that his eyes were in good condition, and was corroborated by physicians who had examined him.

HINDENBURG IS CONFIDENT

German Field Marshal Says Victory Is Only Postponed.

HANOVER, via London, June 5.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, writing to a friend in Hanover, where the Field Marshal resided before the war, expressed a longing to walk among the trees of the city, adding:

"But the treacherous intervention of Italy has postponed the time for such recreation. The hours of the campaign will thereby be prolonged, but nothing can now change the final result. I am firmly convinced of this."

AIRMEN RAID ENGLAND

Details of Attack on Coast Towns Suppressed by Censor.

LONDON, June 5.—The War Office today permitted it to be known that German aircraft dropped bombs last night on the east and southeast coasts of England, but publication of further details was prohibited by the official censors.

It is said, however, that little damage was done and that the casualties were few.

BERLIN, via London, June 5.—A Constantinople dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger says:

"A German submarine which has been operating around the Dardanelles has arrived at Constantinople, where it received an ovation. The submarine flew the Turkish flag and its commander wore a fez."

TABIE DROPS BOMBS ON CALAIS.

PARIS, June 5.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Calais says that today about noon a Taube aeroplane flew over the city and dropped several bombs. One person was killed. The property damage was small.

BABE'S LIVING COSTLY

YOUNG JOHN JACOB ASTOR'S EXPENSES $30,000 A YEAR.

"Clothing, Supplies and Toys" Estimated at $5000, Professional Assistants $8000 More.

NEW YORK, June 5.—John Jacob Astor, now in his third year, the posthumous child of Colonel John Jacob Astor, who perished when the Titanic went down, has been living at the rate of approximately $30,000 a year, according to the accounting filed today with the surrogate by his mother, Mrs. Madeleine Force-Astor, who is his guardian.

The court allowed Mrs. Astor $50,000 for the maintenance of the little boy for three years. In the accounting filed today, Mrs. Astor asserts that she has spent $25,539 of her own money in addition for his maintenance.

Chief items in the accounting are one-third of the taxes of the Astor Fifth-avenue home (the taxes being approximately $30,000 a year), $8000 for professional services of physicians, lawyers and others, and $5000 for clothing, supplies and toys.

Edwards open their new store at Fifth and Oak tomorrow, Monday Morning. It is customary, when a firm moves into a new store, to have a grand opening and spend a thousand dollars for trifling souvenirs to give to folks who come for souvenirs only and never see the store or stock of goods offered. Edwards' way is different. We want the furniture shoppers to benefit by our opening, and we are willing to give twice the above amount to get you to see our new store and new stock, but we are going to give it in merchandise under price or for a great deal less than you can get it elsewhere. We know you will like trading at Edwards, once you get acquainted. We want you to get acquainted through some of these specials.
