CHILDREN THROW FLOWERS

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Damsie Have Ceremony, Performed 11 Years Ago by ex-Governor of Utah, Repeated in Portland.

She wanted to be a rose bride—and he was willing. So C. W. Damsie, automobile man of Seattle, and his wife of 11 years, Belle Bridewell, erstwhile grand opera singer, walked with the gay throng down toward the Courthouse Friday afternoon and, for the second time in their happy career, had a nuptial knot tied by Judge George N. Davis, of the Circuit Court.

Details Are Learned. Yesterday the news of the needless but none the less picturesque and odd ceremony came to light and with it some rather interesting facts. Mrs. Damsie, a contralto singer, opera singer with a grand opera company in Salt Lake some 11 or 12 years ago, she and Mr. Damsie met, and the ceremony afterward resulted at the home of the bride's parents in Salt Lake. The Bridewells, formerly of Georgia, were well-known members of the Mormon Church, as was the family of Mr. Damsie, but the present Mr. and Mrs. Damsie never quite kept to the faith of the Mormon Church. However, Governor Cutler, who was a personal friend of the Bridewell family, officiated at the ceremony, and among other prominent folk there were the late Professor Goddard, singer, and Professor Charles S. Kent, who recently was in Portland at the Panjants Theater at the head of "The Garden of the Rajah," a musical sketch.

A handsome two-story, rustic bungalow has been built and at this season of the year the home is simply surrounded by thousands of rare rose blossoms. The roses are at their best now and Mrs. Dieck, who took two blue ribbons with her Hood River roses at the Portland Rose Show last year, made an exhibit this year of a collection of Irish roses. Mrs. Dieck spends much of the summer season at "Topside," and Mr. Dieck usually joins her on week-ends. The Japanese caretaker at "Topside" takes great pride in the place, and keeps lawns and gardens neat and attractive. The Japanese gives special attention to a bed of Iris, the plants having come from Japan. Near the home is one of the most productive strawberry patches in Hood River. SECOND DIVORCE ASKED

Woman Remarried to Man Nine Days After First Decree Sues Again.

For the second time, Mrs. Lillie Gokey wants a divorce from W. H. Gokey, to whom she was married a second time nine days after she had been divorced from him. Her suit, asking $25 a month alimony, was filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday. The Gokeys were first married September 7, 1912. On September 3, 1914, Mrs. Gokey received a divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. She declared she was coerced into doing so, and the second ceremony was performed September 17, 1914. She left him January 7, she says.
