SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—(Special.)
—Portland is now on even terms with Oakland for series honors and all depends upon what happens tomorrow. With the Beavers in today's struggle it was simply a case of taking advantage of poor pitching that gave them a victory of 9 to 3.

Ray Boyd was unsteadiness personified during the two and a third innings he performed. Then the Beavers did better with Ables in the box than against the right-hander who had been performing.

been performing.

Erve Higginbotham stuck it out to the end. though he was threatened on several occasions, Jack Ness did mostof the scoring, just two-thirds of it, to be exact. He put the ball out of the lot in the fourth inning for a right-field homer and came right back in the sixth to switch with a four-base hit into the left-field bleachers.

In one of the early innings Hig was pounded for three hits, but luck was with him and he escaped the scoring evil.

Nearly all of the Northerners got away with at least one hit, while a couple of the lads stowed away three

The Beavers jumped into the lead in the second inning, and Oakland was not able to head them off after that.

> START GAME AGAINST PIEDMONT FOR SELL-

This photograph shows Ruba Maxmeyer as he was caught in the middle of a characteristic delivery while on the mound re-cently. Maxmeyer was formerly with the Portland Northwest League team. He will attempt to hoist Manager Wayne F. Lewis and his Sellwood team to a vic-tory in the Portland City League this afternoon against the league leaders. Maxmeyer has a pitching form all his own and is the seat of considerable fun when going good. He has consented to be at his best today. Here's The Label

1:20 o'clock, the Sellwood Merchants, who have been the cellar champions almost all season, will attempt to stop the winning streak of the Northeast Side aggregation, the Piedmont Ma-roons, while the second contest, which will start immediately upon the con-clusion of the first, will be between the East Side Redmen, with a much improved team, and President Clyde J. Rupert's West Side Monarchs. Randall's Reds have won four and lost seven games since the season opened, while the Monarchs have won six and lost five games. Should the East Siders win today they will be only one game from second place and tied one game from second place and tied with the downtown representatives. Earlier in the season the Redmen appeared to lack the necessary fight, but since acquiring the services of Pitcher "Red" Lund; Infielders Fritz McKeen and Bill Baird and Outfielders "Frisco" Edwards, all former stars on the Mb-Minnville. Or., team, they have put on an entirely new appearance.

In their game last Sunday with Piedmont they were fighting all the way and the Marcon nine was extremely lucky in nosing them out by a 1-to-0 score. Rupert's teasers will not meet the same club so easily humbled in the past, and his long-distance hitters may find it tough picking connecting with find it tough picking connecting with Lund's fast balls. This boy Lund has Lund's fast balls. This boy Lund has more speed than many semi-professional pitchers, and his control is above the average. Johnnie Shea, the Redmen catcher, works unusually well with the big feilow and knows the weakness of most of the West Side swatsmiths.

Chet Murphy, who has been going well for the Monarchs, will start on the mound, with "Doc" Blegg doing the receiving Runert will present with Manager Wayne F. Lewis will trot out what looks to be the most formidable aggregation that has represented Sellwood all secson. Heinie Wilson, the cently wen the American National tenders.

FAST CONTESTS DUE "Mich" Smith, Bill Deveny, Howard Nielsen and Southpaw Richard Maxmeyer have added considerable strength to the Merchants, and they hid fair to make the Piedmonters hustle to win. This will mark the first appearance since the 1911 season of "Rube meyer, who created much comedy while being carried on Nick Williams' Port-land Colts some few seasons ago. Countless pranks have been pulled on "Rube," but he says he will show the fans that his hat is still in the ring by letting the Maroons down with few hincles

The Marcons will present the same The Marcons will present the same lineup which has triumphantly carried them through everything they have met this year. The Marcons have lost only one game, and show no signs of letting up. Their star flinger, Emery Webb, will pitch, with Al Bartholemy doing the receiving.

Webb is the leading pitcher in the league and will twirl for the Marcons

CHAD IS FAST ON BASES

EX-BEAVER HAS 13 THEFTS TO HIS CREDIT WITH FEDS.

Kenworthy, Scaton, Groom, Borton and Krueger All Have Good Records With Outlaw Organization.

Chester Chadbourne, former Beaver, now with the Kansas City Federals, is listed as the fifth best base stealer in the outlaw organization, according to latest statistics. Chadbourne has snatched 12 bases in 47 games. Kenworthy, a former Sacramento ball tosser is numbered as the tenth best slugger. He has nine two-baggers, four three-baggers and one homer to his credit. His average is only 277 in the individual batting list, however.

Many other Coasters whose names are familiar here, are found in perusing the averages of the third major.

Tom Seaton, once of the Beavers, is well up in the pitchers' records. He had won nine and lest four games for Brooklyn when the averages were issued. Bobby Groom, who went to the majors from Portland before he hopped to Fielder Jones' St. Louis club, has listed as the fifth best base stealer in
