SEAL PITCHERS POUNDED

Stumpf, Bates, Derrick, Speas and Fisher Star With Bat—San Francisco Hurlers All Treated About Alike.

Pacific Coast League Standings.

Yesterday's Results.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—(Special.)—Proving just as adept at losing doubleheaders as the Beavers are at winning such sessions, San Francisco took a slump today that brought the Beavers up with a jolt when they finally realized what had happened.

Pitching that was unreliable is chiefly the answer for the double upset, although the fielding at critical stages was anything but of a brilliant nature. Elliott Dent was picked for facing number one and he responded nobly. Even two homers in that game by Bobby Jones couldn't prevent Portland from staging a 6-to-4 win.

Beavers Slaughter Pitchers. The second day was even worse. Reising, who opened up and Jack Skilling, who followed, were punched to the queen's taste for all manner of hits and runs. Finally Hooker Smith was to be called upon to top the slaughter, which ended with the visitors on the right side of 9 to 8.

Dent had pitched hitless ball for three innings, but he got his with trimmings in the fourth. He landed the first batter, Derrick. Then came the double. Stumpf swatted into center and Bates to right. Hillyard sailed a drive over the pitcher's head into center for the first of the runs. Fisher shifted with a left field single and Bates came home. Speas forced Gus and Lober walked. The score was tied, the Seals having made two in the second on Corhan's walk and Jones' home run.

Speas Starts Slugfest. It all happened with two down in the ninth. Speas waited for Hillyard and Fisher to be retired before he knocked the ball over the fence. Lober doubled into left and Bates beat one out down to third. A two-sacker by Davis against the fence sent along Lober for a score, and when Melan misjudged Derrick's line it gave the latter a two-put hit, and the Beavers two more runs. The Seals rallied in their half, but to the extent of two tallies only.

In the second game the Beavers took a three-run lead in the second chapter, and kept on in from thereafter. Bates smashed into a steal and bled between a wild pitch and a steal, bled himself to second. Hillyard and Fisher fled to the outfielders, and Bates for Speas with Lober's single into right tallied the first. Evans sent a fly to right that Melan dropped as promptly as he caught it. In consequence, the Northerners were three runs to the good. Incidentally they scored two in the fourth and four in the sixth. Score:

GREAT RACES RUN

Tabor, on Heavy Track, Goes Mile in 4:15.15.

MEANIX HAS NEW MARK

Hurdler Goes Over Low Sticks for Quarter Mile in Record Time.

Twenty-Nine Athletes Chosen to Compete in West.

BOSTON, June 26.—Athletes of the Eastern section of the country were pitted against each other on the track and field within the Harvard stadium today to determine those best fitted to represent the East in the National championship competition to be held at San Francisco August 6 and 7.

Most notable of the day's performances was the mile run of Norman S. Taber, representing the Boston Athletic Association. On a track sodden with morning rains, the former Brown University track star sped over the mile in 4 minutes 15.15 seconds. This was only 4.5 of a second behind the world's amateur record made by J. P. Jones, of Cornell.

Race Run Through Big Field. Only a slow first quarter, which Tabor spent in working his way through a small group of runners prevented him from reaching the world's mark.

W. H. Meanix, of the Boston Athletic Association, won the 440-yard hurdles in 54.45 seconds, two seconds better than the world's record, but doubt as to whether the hurdles were properly arranged caused the referee to refuse to let the time stand as a low mark.

The attempt of J. E. "Ted" Meredith, running with the colors of the Meadowbrook A. C., to set a new record for the 440-yard run was without success, although he won with five yards to spare in 43.5 seconds.

Negro Close to Meyer. T. Meyer, of the Irish-American A. C., won the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds. Meyer was almost overtaken by Irving T. Howe, the Colby-College negro, whom many believed to have won.

Two Finnish-Americans—Hannes Kolehmainen, of C. of New York, who won, and V. Kyronen, of the Millrose A. C., New York, who had traded places with him until all other runners were eliminated from challenging the lead, Kolehmainen's time—25 minutes 12.25 seconds—was only 5.25 seconds slower than his American amateur record.

Eastern Team Chosen. Twenty-nine athletes who will represent the eastern section of the country at the National amateur track and field championships in San Francisco next August were named tonight. Announcement of their choice was made by Frederick W. Rubien, of New York, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union.

RACE MEET CLOSES

Pretty Competition Given on Independence Track.

ALLERDAW FIRST IN PACE

Ducal Crown and Boaz Are Winners in Running Events, Both Finishes Being Exciting.

Pony Race Close.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., June 26.—(Special.)—The closing day's races of the Independence Driving Club was exciting from start to finish. The weather was ideal and the track in good shape. The opening event was a women's race with three riders up. Lady Zombro won by a narrow margin, with Gabe's breath's Picnic Pony second and Sorrel Top third. Will Block's Lassie also ran. The winning rider was Mrs. Ray. Then the four-and-one-half furlong was called, with seven horses to go. Tampa got away for a good lead but lost to Ducal Crown on the last quarter and finished third, with Alchemit coming in for second money. Ada also ran.

The first heat of the free-for-all pace was called with six horses to start. High Hoo got the pole and Allerdaaw second place, and in the getaway Allerdaaw sped away for a finish at first, leaving Hal Edo and St. Elmo fighting for second. In the finish Hal Edo took second with a small margin. St. Elmo getting third place, High Hoo coming in later.

The pony race was an additional event to the programme, a half-mile dash, with a standing start. There were eight at the go, and the finish was exciting, with Lady Zombro nosing Sorrel Top for first by a small margin. Old Spot was third.

In the second heat of the free-for-all pace, five horses started. Crochet did not finish in the first heat and started in the second. Allerdaaw, at the pole, got a good lead and finished first. St. Elmo got a better start than before and fought hard with High Hoo, and finished third. Hal Edo also ran. The horses were all overworked in the score-up.

The last and goodnight race of the meet was the five-eighths-mile dash, with nine riders up. They were 62 starters in scoring, but finally got away from the rubber with Sally Mint in the lead, with Boaz hard on the trail. Sally Mint dropped to third, while Boaz took the lead and finished first, with Sorrowsful a close second and Sally Mint a hard third. Time, 1:03 1/2.

A broncho-busting exhibition by some newcomers closed the day's events. Fred Bookor, of Portland and Vancouver, was starter in the harness races, and W. E. Percival, of Independence, started the dashes. Summary:

Four and one-half furlongs, purse $125.—Ducal Crown, first; Alchemit, second; Tampa, third. Time, 34.

Free-for-all pace, purse $150.—Allerdaaw, first; St. Elmo, second; Hal Edo, third. Time, 2:18.

Five-eighths-mile dash, purse $100.—Boaz, first; Sorrowsful, second; Sally Mint, third. Time, 1:03 1/2.

BEAVERS ARE STRONGER

J. J. RICHARDSON SAYS FANS WILL BE SURPRISED.

Players All Going at Great Clip and Bay Writers Are Said to Be Due for Changed Views.

"I'm for the Portland Beavers, Mac has them fighting like tigers." So said James J. Richardson, well-known baseball scout, yesterday upon his return from a fortnight's trip to the San Francisco Exposition.

"All the boys are playing great ball, and the local fans will see a different team when they return Tuesday afternoon. The San Francisco Post came out early in the week and said that the Beavers were the best team in the league from now on would be between Los Angeles, San Francisco and Salt Lake. Perhaps some of them will think differently after this series."

Mr. Richardson, who is with a local sporting goods house, saw Benny Henderson, the scout, and Benny Henderson, who he said had not been out of the aqua cart for nearly three months.

Judge McCredie also returned yesterday from the South, but he had little or no news to give out.

"Nothing much to say," said he. "The league meeting didn't amount to much. We talked over the proposed eight team expansion question, but there seemed to be some opposition on account of the weather up here. Yesterday all the teams gave up their receipts to Happy Hogan, Hap, it develops, was in debt, but this money from us goes to the widow, not to his creditors."

The Portland ball magnate said they had no candidate in sight for the infield utility job left vacant by the release of Milton Reed.

"For the present Lober and Speas are available," said he. "I don't want to bet 10 to 1 and will not add another unless we release a pitcher. I guess Walcott is having a hard job deciding on his pitcher selections. Rube Evans has not been going good yet, although I see he won a game today."

JOE TYLER DEFENDS TITLE Spokane Tennis Player Retains Idaho Championship.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 26.—The Idaho state tennis tournament, which closed today resulted in Joseph C. Tyler, of Spokane, successfully defending his title as state champion in a challenge match with Alfred Kettchenbach, of Lewiston, 6-3, 6-3, 3-7. In the finals in the men's doubles Tyler and Kettchenbach defeated Max Wood and H. S. Gray, both of Lewiston, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, 8-0.

Tyler and Miss Marie Kettchenbach won the mixed doubles event from Miss Margaret Hoffman, of Portland, and Max Wood, 6-2, 6-3.

Miss Marie Kettchenbach won the ladies' singles and she and Miss Kathryn Luhn, of Spokane, took the ladies' doubles in the final events.

"Does your trip East mean anything important?" he was asked. "I have talked with Colonel Ruppert, and Captain Huston about their proposed new ball park," replied Mr. Johnson. "I also have inspected about half a dozen pieces of property which I am considering. Some of them are on Manhattan Island and others in the Bronx and Queens, but no decision will be reached for some time."

"Don't you believe that the Yankees should be strengthened in view of the unusual public interest in them this year?"

"Yes, the team needs several first-class players and I am doing my best to get them for Messrs. Ruppert and
