

VANCOUVER REGIONS OBSERVING FOURTH

Colonel Baker, in Command of Barracks, Marshal for Big Celebration Tomorrow.

MILITARY PARADE FEATURE

Churches Hold Special Services Today; Marathon Skating Contest Opens Festivities and Field Meet Will Be Held.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., July 2.—(Special.)—Lieutenant Colonel David J. Baker, Jr., in command of this post and at the head of the Twenty-first Infantry, veteran Indian fighter, veteran of the Spanish-American War, and of the Army of Cuban Pacification, veteran of the Philippine engagements and a member of the Chinese relief expedition, has been chosen grand marshal for the great celebration to be held in Vancouver and in Vancouver Barracks Monday, July 5. Colonel Baker will ride at the head of the parade in full dress uniform and will be accompanied by his aide, Captain George S. Thompson. The first Infantry band will be in line with two battalions of the Twenty-first Infantry, under command of Major William Broock.

The fire-fighting apparatus of the post will be in line of the parade in Vancouver for the first time in history.

A military field day has been arranged. Several hundred dollars in prize money have been set aside. More than 10,000 attended the last military field meet at the post.

Airman to Make Flights.

The big attraction is Fred DeKor, a well-known aviator, who will give several thrill flights, starting at 3 o'clock.

DeKor has a military tractor biplane, and declares that it responds quicker than any other machine made. He can loop the loop in a smaller space than other makes. He has been an aviator for six years and can build the machine himself.

Several times he has had offers from the Mexican armistice at $1000 a month. It is said, and according to many of his friends he has been asked to fly for European countries. He is one of the three American aviators who do the loop the loop, flying the loop, the spiral death dive and tango. In an exhibition flight he went higher than 8000 feet, according to his manager.

Accident Met on Way East.

DeKor was on his way east when an accident befell him at Medford, Or. After remaining there for ten days he continued on his journey, and his stop-over at Vancouver, Wash., tomorrow will be a side issue. He is expected to enter the proposed cross-America flight, some time late this summer.

Many of the principal cities of the United States are sending him congratulations in the air, and press notices are flattering. At one time while trying out a machine at Brownsville, Tex., he tumbled over the Mexican line, and before he knew it he was fired upon by Villa soldiers, but without much damage.

Another thing he has done which has created a great deal of interest was to hunt game from his machine. This was one of the things that other aviators have not attempted to do much with.

During his stay in the air DeKor will race an auto aviator, who will try anything else that will form any kind of competition. Races of all kinds with the thrill in them have been placed on the program for the Vancouver Fourth of July celebration committee.

Special car service has been arranged to handle the big crowds.

Field Meet Events Varied.

Among the interesting events will be a well-attended contest, bayonet fencing, mile relay race, carrying a message, a pack race, a foot race, a skiff race and equipment race, shelter tent pitching, tug of war between companies, by battalions, boxing astride parallel bars, javelin throw, race by a section of the machine gun platoon, hurdle races and a baseball game between the soldiers and the All-Stars of Vancouver.

The soldiers have been training for several weeks for the contest. Among the officers who will be officials at the big tournament will be Captain Robert S. O'Leary, Captain Murray Baldwin, Captain E. S. Knox, Lieutenant George A. Barker, Lieutenant B. Schneider, Lieutenant J. M. Hobson, Jr., Lieutenant Gustav J. Genser, of the post, Dr. C. M. Taylor, well-known football captain of the University of Oregon, and Captain Cedric Miller, of the University of Washington football team, and Randall Miller, secretary of the State College of Pullman, also will be officials and judges.

Marathon Skating Is Held.

The athletic programme will start at 1:30.

The celebration of Fourth of July and Americanization day began last night, when 40 boys competed in the Marathon race, which started at 8 o'clock.

Patriotic services will be held in every church in the city tomorrow. The big community sing, at 8:30 today, was led by G. Hartshorn Whipp, the Portland Ad Club quartet, and leading musicians of Vancouver.

Tomorrow morning, at 5 o'clock a salute will be fired at Vancouver Barracks. The biggest parade in the history of the city will be held at 10:30.

A dance will be held on the pavement on Eighth street on the north side of the city park at 7:30 Monday night and prizes will be awarded for the best walkers.

UNION PIONEERS GATHER

Dunham Wright Speaker at Annual Reunion Held at Imbler.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—Pioneers of Union County held their annual reunion at Imbler today. Hot weather did not hamper the attendance and patriarchy of trekking days hobbled and chatted with men and women who often meet only at the pioneer reunions. Many of those present came here with the Iowa train in 1852.

"Top" Thomas, caretaker of the City Park, is a brother of the first white child born here. He is R. Thomas, a resident of Portland, Dunham Wright, proprietor of the Medical Springs resort, ex-Legislator and one of the typical frontier plainmen, was the principal speaker.

A feature of the meeting was a huge chorus of children of pioneers. Grandma McKinnon, of La Grande, who is in her 87th year, motored to Imbler and attended.

IDAHO TOWN HAS BIG FIRE

Several Hurt When Cataldo Hotel, Store and Residence Burn.

WALLACE, Idaho, July 2.—(Special.)—Cataldo, a small town about 15 miles from here, was visited by fire at 4 o'clock this morning, which caused about $15,000 worth of damage. The fire originated in a hotel, spread to a store and dwelling house, consuming the three buildings.

The dwelling was not insured. The store, the property of W. P. Dwyer, was insured for $2000 and the hotel was partly covered by insurance.

The cause of the fire is not known. It started at an early hour, when all in the hotel were asleep, and many narrowly escaped, several being slightly injured.

This fire, after the big Masonic Temple fire here, which was entirely covered by insurance, hits the insurance men heavily. Herman J. Kosal, James E. Howarth and Whelan Kingsbury are the insurance men affected.

ALL AT UNIVERSITY MEAN BUSINESS, SAYS PROFESSOR

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, July 2.—(Special.)—The maturation and earnest student body that ever gathered in one place in the State of Oregon for serious study, is the way Dr. Joseph Schafer, director of the University Summer school, characterizes students gathered on the campus this week for the six week session.

"The average age of the men students is probably more than 20 years," declares the director. "An extraordinary proportion of them are college graduates and now are studying for advanced degrees. Many of them are returning for their second or third Summer session. County and city superintendents and high school principals are especially numerous. It is a student body that should inspire the faculty to do its best."

As to the age of the women students, Dr. Schafer could not be tempted to make an estimate in figures, except to say that they were "very much younger than the men. The 'rah-rah' boys and 'college girl' type, however, is almost entirely lacking. The young graduate who takes Summer school work to make up for deficiencies in the regular term is known in Summer school parlance as a "dunker." This was followed by a seven and one-half mile cross-country bicycle race. Tonight there was a massed band concert of 160 musicians, street dancing and fireworks.

The men's log-sawing contest was won by Wyatt Cremo, 15-02, with Freeman Lubbes, 15-05, second; Daniel Stephenson, Jr., 15-20, third.

STUDENTS ARE LAUDED

Sumner Enrollment Is Expected to Double Last Year's Record. Men in Classes Older.

Sumner, Idaho, July 2.—(Special.)—The maturation and earnest student body that ever gathered in one place in the State of Oregon for serious study, is the way Dr. Joseph Schafer, director of the University Summer school, characterizes students gathered on the campus this week for the six week session.

BAKER IS FESTIVE

Two-Day Patriotic Celebration Closes With Street Carnival.

BAKER, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—Baker closed its two-day Fourth of July celebration tonight in a carnival of revelry. The business streets were jammed with old and young, bedecked in fantastic headgear and armed with many kinds of noise-making appliances. The crowd was so dense that it was practically impossible to keep traffic moving.

The crowd was one of the largest ever in the city, and fully 5000 visitors participated in the events of the day, which opened with concerts by four bands.

The principal feature was the annual parade, more elaborate than any in years. The striking features were the children's flag, composed of more than 200 little ones, who perform the parade who more than a mile long and is considered one of the best ever seen in Baker. Those in charge of the float composed of Baker boys, the parade was very much followed by a seven and one-half mile cross-country bicycle race. Tonight there was a massed band concert of 160 musicians, street dancing and fireworks.

The men's log-sawing contest was won by Wyatt Cremo, 15-02, with Freeman Lubbes, 15-05, second; Daniel Stephenson, Jr., 15-20, third.

BLIGHT CAUSE STUDIED

OUTBREAK IN BENTON, LINN AND LANE THOUGHT CURBED.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—The recent outbreak of fireblight in the orchards of Benton, Linn and Lane counties is more extended and rather more severe than thought from the first survey. Professor C. I. Lewis, horticulturist of the Agricultural College, has returned from an investigation of conditions in western Linn and found the disease well established as far as Albany. Cases were also found just across the river from Corvallis within a short distance of the town.

"Blight is worse in the quince" now, and because of the lateness of its bloom quince is the chief agency of distribution most to be feared at this time. The disease is spread quite largely through insects working in pollination, although it has other means of travel. In its worse forms it has died down now and probably will remain quiescent until next Spring unless abundant warm rains this Summer revive it earlier.

"We hope to be able to confine the disease within its present limits by securing active co-operation of the orchardists there is no reason why we should not be able to do so. Mr. Parks, horticultural commissioner of the Second District, including the three counties affected and the counties of Marion and Lincoln, is in charge of the campaign."

BRIDE OF DAY REPENTS

DIVORCE ASKED AT EUGENE FEW HOURS AFTER WEDDING.

EUGENE, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Mary Jane Carter Moomly, aged 34, broke a record today. She never thought about the record, but at 3 o'clock this morning she walked into the County Clerk's office, the same that she left at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with a marriage license. She wore a determined look. She had come all the way from Carter, 25 miles from Eugene, before 3 o'clock, and a family of children trailed in after her.

After she had been in the office between the desk and the girls in the office became busy over their books.

"But you were married only yesterday afternoon, by protestants, in a legal separation from Charles W. Moomly, aged 36, a cook, residing at Carter, Or., and Mrs. Mary Jane Carter, aged 34, also of Carter. Both had been previously married, and they went directly from the Clerk's office to that of the County Judge to be married late yesterday afternoon."

"That don't make any difference," came a cold, bitter reply; "no man can live with me, drunk."

She was asked details and the girls in the office became busy over their books.

She also expressed surprise when she found that she could not make immediate arrangements for a divorce.

The license issued yesterday was to Charles W. Moomly, aged 36, a cook, residing at Carter, Or., and Mrs. Mary Jane Carter, aged 34, also of Carter. Both had been previously married, and they went directly from the Clerk's office to that of the County Judge to be married late yesterday afternoon.

LA GRANDE EAGLES PICNIC

LA GRANDE, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—The La Grande Eagles of Eagles in a park it has purchased for that purpose today opened its annual picnic on the Grand Ronde River opposite the city Park and there threw its gates open to the public and brother Eagles of Eastern Oregon.

Patriotic activities tomorrow, at which Grand Army and Women's Relief Corps, as well as Spanish-American Veterans will occupy seats of honor, are planned. Dancing, carnival attractions and other entertainment features will make up the programme of the picnic, which will last into Monday night. This constitutes the city's celebration of Independence day, other attractions having sidestepped this day to avoid a conflict.

EUGENE PLANS SALES DAY

EUGENE, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—Eugene will have a public market day, at which the farmers may bring to the city produce, probably once a week, and offer it for sale, according to the plans of R. D. Hooper, manager of the promoter department of the Commercial Club.

The date for the first day has not yet been set, but it is proposed to set aside a place, probably about the public plaza, where the farmers' wagons can be parked and where the sales can be made from the back of the wagons.

The farmers in the district have asked that some such plan be developed.
