Smart society danced on Monday night at the Waverley Country Club to celebrate Independence day. Society danced on Tuesday night at the Burns dance was the attraction at the club. Again on Wednesday night society tripped the light fantastic—the modern dance—and this time it was the Ernest Tucker who entertained. Thursday night the Waverley Country Club again with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal as host and hostess. The Tuckers had about 50 guests at their home on Hoyt street. Hostesses and rooms with their enchanting decorations presented a charming appearance. On this occasion, as on the others, the guests wore the loveliest of Summer gowns, many of them suggesting just a bit of the quaint old-fashioned design that is so becoming.

The Teal dance was for Miss Ruth Teal and her guest, Miss Virginia Scully, of New York. For this party the clubrooms were decorated with rare skill and all the appointments were of the most attractive.

The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Meyer, of New York, afforded an inspiration for delightful entertaining. Mrs. Meyer is sister of Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, who is a woman of great charm and of gracious manner. Mrs. Meyer was entertained at a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Meyer took keenest pleasure in a fishing trip which he made in company with Joseph N. # Say "Eastern"

And the association of thought at once pictures in your mind an ideal, exclusive shop of women's finery. A shop where women enjoy shopping because of its pleasant surroundings, its early showing of beautiful and correct styles, its perfectly pleasing service and its moderate prices that place high-class merchandise within the reach of all.

Just Arrived

Few new models in Ladies' Suits, Coats and Dresses. The styles are magnetically charming, the material of which they are made are pure and appealing, the finishing touches interpret the art and skill of modern designers and the prices, in spite of all, are modest. Make it a point to see them tomorrow—you will enjoy it. Correct for early Fall wear.

New Extra Large Suits

We specialize in showing very pretty and attractive models in smartly tailored Suits in extra sizes up to 46 bust and odd sizes from 41 to 51 bust for extra large and corpulent women. Every garment is a type of sedate conservatism and becoming dignity, very moderately priced.

In the Waist Section

We show numerous new styles in dainty waists. Masterpieces of America's foremost style—creations exquisitely beautiful in colors and design; good for immediate wear and the very thing for early Fall use, at very reasonable prices. Credit, your privilege—use it—it costs you nothing.

There was once upon a time a rule that said: "Tis always dull in society in July and August." Well, it may prove to be dull in the latter month, but so far July has been as full of smart events as the ordinary fashionable season in winter. The week just passed was without doubt one of the busiest of the year.

Beginning with Monday and continuing through every day there was a succession of dinners, dances, teas, recitals and all sorts of smart festivities that keep the exclusive set busy. High-speed motors were scarcely fast enough to carry the young folk from one gathering to another. There are many lovely visitors here this season and their hostesses and friends have shown genuine delight in entertaining them. While many society folk went out of town for the holiday week-end, many of them returned on Monday night to participate in the round of gaiety that made the week fairly radiate with social brilliancy.

Miss Katherine Hart gave a luncheon Monday at the University Club in compliment to Miss Virginia Scully, of New York, who is the house guest of the club. Her guests included Mrs. George T. Willett, additional guests were Miss Teal, Miss Esther Tucker, Miss Joan Mackenzie, Miss Elvyn Mills and Miss Margery Hoffman.

Another event of Monday was a house party given by Vernal Beach, who entertained at his country place near Salem. Mrs. Beach chaperoned the party and among those who shared the pleasures of the occasion were Miss Evelyn Carey and her house guest, Miss Ruth Zelle, of San Francisco, and Miss Claire Wilcox. They returned to Portland in time to attend the dance at the Waverley Country Club.

Miss Amy Robinson, A charming Sub-debutante.

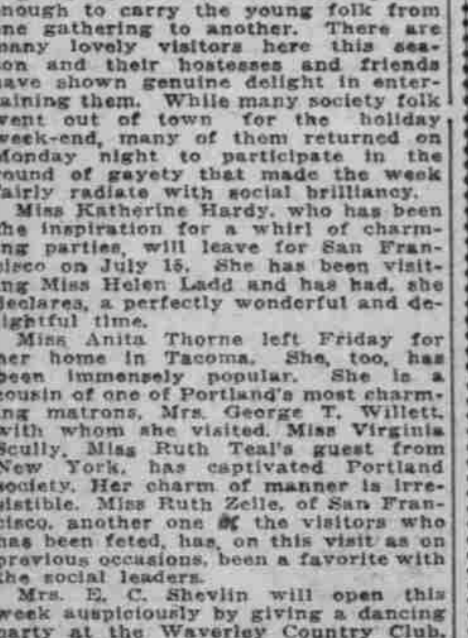

Miss Jean MacFarlane, One of the charming Members of the Younger Set.

Miss Ina Boatman, An attractive and Popular Society Girl.

Miss Anita Thorne left Friday for her home in Tacoma. She, too, has been immensely popular. She is a cousin of one of Portland's most charming matrons, Mrs. George T. Willett, with whom she visited. Miss Virginia Scully, Miss Ruth Teal's guest from New York, has captivated Portland society. Her charm of manner is irresistible. Miss Ruth Zelle, of San Francisco, another one of the visitors who has been feted here, has also been a favorite on previous occasions, been a favorite with the social leaders.

Mrs. E. C. Shevlin will open this week auspiciously by giving a dancing party at the Waverley Country Club. She will honor Miss Hardy and Miss Helen Ladd. On Tuesday Miss Sally Hart will give a unique entertainment, a swimming party and supper for a congenial group of the younger set.

The fact that Mrs. Patrick Campbell is to appear at the Hellig Theater this week will offer an excuse for many matinee and evening line and box parties. Her home is in Astoria, spent a fortnight as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Ridehalgh, and was extensively entertained.

Miss Mignon Allen, popular member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, whose home is in Astoria, spent a fortnight as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Ridehalgh, and was extensively entertained.

Mrs. W. W. Ridehalgh gave an evening of dancing and cards for Miss Allen. Her guests included the Misses Florence Hermann, Florence Kendall, Irene Finley, Marjorie Arnold, Viola Wood, Grace McKenna, Downs McMillan and Eloise Hall, Neal Kendall, Bob McMurray, Ralph Wilcox, Kenneth Fox, Clayton Patterson, Raymond Buckley and Charles Fleishman.

Plans for a lawn fete, to be held July 22, on the grounds of Holy Redeemer parish, Portland boulevard and Williams avenue, are being made.

Holt and Prescott Cookingham were hosts at one of the most delightful of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Whalley, and her sister, Mrs. T. W. Muir, at their home, 293 West Park street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mears will entertain tomorrow night at a dinner party for their daughter, Miss Antoinette Mears, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. J. Mears, at the Mears residence and will later attend the Shevlin dance at the Waverley Country Club. Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Mears, Miss Virginia Meneffe, Miss Virginia Burns, Miss Helen Honeyman, Miss Harriet Holbrook, Mrs. Nell Malarky, Richard L. of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Whalley, and her sister, Mrs. T. W. Muir, at their home, 293 West Park street.

Among those who entertained at dinner that evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, who had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrill; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Dr. and Mrs. George Whitehead and Wirt Minor.

Much merriment was afforded the society folk who watched the contests at the Waverley Club last Monday, and those who participated had an enjoyable time. It was a novel occasion and full of unique festivities. The water sports were full of thrills. Mrs. Walter J. Burns and Miss Carrie Flinders tied for first place in ladder golf and Kurt Koehler won distinction in the men's contest. Mrs. Victor Johnson won honors in clock golf and among the men, E. F. Whitney and C. F. Whitney tied for first. Miss Shanna Cumming, who is a distinguished society belle, a gifted artist and an all-around favorite, showed her versatility by winning the canoe race and first place in the obstacle race. Charles E. Miller won the men's canoe race and A. W. Holman the obstacle race. There was a good old-fashioned potato race, in which honors went to Miss J. E. Young and Mr. Holman. Miss Clementine Lambert and J. B. Stephenson showed proficiency in the canoe tilting, and Miss Sally Hart was a star performer.

Among those who entertained at small dinners at the Waverley Country Club last night were Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Miss Henrietta E. Fallin, Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mrs. C. F. Swiger and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Teal.

Miss Amy Robinson is one of the younger girls who is enjoying many of the smart functions of the year. She has assisted at several afternoon teas in which the sub-debutantes and St. Helen's Hall graduates have been invited to participate.

Miss Ina Boatman and Miss Jean MacFarlane, who finished this season at St. Helen's Hall, are among the charming girls who are immensely popular.

Headed by Mrs. J. André Foulhoux, a committee of Portland society women is to hold a benefit for the French Red Cross Society. Appeals have been made by the American, German and English Red Cross societies, but this is the first benefit for the French Society. It is to be decidedly unique in character. The women in Portland are to send in the name of Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman at Gearhart, 100 cakes, and these will be sold for the cause. They will not be ordinary cakes, far from it. They will be the choicest, most delicious confections imaginable. They will be made from recipes that are profound secrets in some of Portland's ultra-fashionable families. Mrs. Foulhoux will be assisted here by a bevy of society girls, who will make arrangements and will pack the cakes.

An Oregon girl who has made a success on the stage is Miss Ethel B. Bradley, who has returned from New York after an absence of two years and a half. She is visiting her mother, Mrs. Alexander Braak, at Milwaukie. Or. Miss Bradley has many friends who are entertaining for her. She has been connected with Klaw & Erlanger's "Son Nur" company.

Mrs. Henry S. Hostetter, Jr., of Washington, D. C. is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. G. Whitehouse, at the latter's home, 833 Kearney street. Mrs. Hostetter is sharing the pleasures of the Summer time festivities. She was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward Cookingham, at the dinner given by the Cookinghams at the Country Club on Thursday night.

"I'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO DRESS LIKE YOU, LUCILE!"

"You Can, Myra. I'll Take You to CHERRY'S."

Women are enthusiastic about the latest Summer fashions on display at CHERRY'S. They are on Washington, at 225-231, in the Pittock block.
