

SOCIETY

Mrs. Kathryn Patterson of California Entertained by Mrs. E. J. Jaeger, Grove Photo

Miss Harriette Hogan of Aberdeen, Wash. Grove Photo

Mrs. I. Van Dusen, a Recent Hostess Grove Photo

Miss Alice Wilhelm Who Returned From Wellesley Grove Photo

Ethel Yerkes was bridesmaid and John Maloney, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The singing of the choir was especially beautiful. Frederick Goodrich presided at the organ, and the soloists were Mrs. Rose Friedle Gianelli, Miss Tina Ledwidge, Miss Grace Dawson and Albert Gianelli.

The bridesmaid in her girlish gown of white crepe meteeur, came in the arm of her brother, Frederick Friedle. Her long court train was draped from the shoulders, fastened with sprays of orange blossoms, and her long tulle veil fell in spray-like cascades to the hem of the train.

The bride party and the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. John Maloney, received at a large reception from 3 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Senator Benjamin Tillman, of South Carolina, Mrs. Tillman and Miss Tillman, who were guests of Mrs. Henry W. Hughes, will visit Alaska, accompanied by Mrs. Hughes and her two children, when they return for another visit in Portland.

Mrs. Katherine Daly presided at a daintily appointed luncheon and auction bridge Wednesday, in honor of Miss Jackson, of Chicago, who is visiting here on her way to the exposition.

Mrs. W. H. Groh entertained with seven tables of bridge on Wednesday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and hydrangeas.

At one of the prettiest weddings of the season Miss Leola Danforth Ball became the bride of Lieutenant Henry George Hemingway Wednesday evening.

The bride was beautiful in her wedding gown, which was an exquisite creation of Duchesne satin, the tiny bodice edged with satin orange blossoms and a filmy wedding veil caught with blossoms.

Miss Faye Ball's gown, a beuffled frock of pink crepe chiffon, was attractive and her bouquet was of pink roses. The bridesmaids were in dainty lace frocks with becoming hats of turquoise tulle, and carried pink sweet peas.

The Princes belongs to a fine old California family. She is an aunt of Mrs. Will Crocker, one of San Francisco's society leaders, and also of Mrs. Arno Dosch, who was Miss Elsie Sperry, of the Bay City.

Princess Poniatowski is well known to some of Portland's leading business men, who have met him in San Francisco, where he was prominently identified with the grain interests of the state.

Miss Leabella Macleay entertained yesterday at a tea for several of the younger smart set.

Annuaire and former students of Monticello Seminary (Geoffrey, Illinois) will gather informally today for tea at the home of Miss Harriette Johnson on Portland Heights.

From Portland, Miss Erickson will go to Tacoma, where on Tuesday she will be the guest of the Puget Sound Alumnae of the Tacoma Country Club.

Announcements have been received telling of the marriage of Miss Julia Wallrich to John Longman Burke, of this city. The ceremony took place in Chicago on Tuesday, at Holy Angela Church, Bishop McGarvick officiating.

An anticipated event of next Tuesday is the wedding of Miss Monica Montgomery to Francis Wilson Benefield. The ceremony will be solemnized in the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church.

A beautiful wedding of the week was solemnized Wednesday morning when Miss Louise Friedle became the bride of Harry A. Maloney, the service being read at the solemn high nuptial mass by Rev. Father McNamie in St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral.

Miss Grace Ethel Patton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Patton, of Missouri avenue, was one of the attractive brides of the season.

DOWN at the Fair you see Fall Suits galore! It's Autumn there—as far as style is concerned.

Brand new, exclusive arrivals in Fall Suits every day now. Pleats and folds seem the most prominent note. Lots of jaunty Norfolks. Not a woman who sees them but will be delighted—with the styles—with the quality—with the prices!

$22.50 $24.75 $27.50 $29.50

TAFFETA Dresses—so quaint and charming, fashioned in the tier effects, both plain and accordion pleated.

One adorable model harks back to Colonial inspiration, with its separate laced bodice, full skirt, white collar and cuffs. They range in moderate price-steps from $12.50 to $23.50

Suits Coats Dresses $10!

Splendid, practical garments for knockabout wear. Sold at two and three times this cleanup price.

124-126-128 Sixth St. EMPORIUM Just a step off Washington

Salvatore checks his own marbles and takes great care in finishing details. Among the Portlanders who are deeply interested in art are patrons of the museum are Miss Failing, Miss Henrietta H. Failing, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Colonel and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Brewster, Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, William M. Ladd, Julius L. Meier, Mrs. Leo Hoffman and many others as prominent socially.

Many of the younger girls of smart society are students at the art museum and during the holidays they are enjoying sketching trips, on which they are really doing some clever work.

Roosevelt Thompson, of New York, and Harold Saylor, of Philadelphia, who have been visiting at the Joseph N. Teal residence, have gone to California. While here the young men were entertained at numerous delightful dinners, outings and dancing parties.

Miss Virginia Scully, of New York, who is Miss Teal's guest, will go with the Teals to Gearhart next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornton Ladd entertained at an auto outing and picnic Thursday, taking their guests out the Columbia Highway for the drive and entertainment. Frank L. Babbott, of Brooklyn, was the honored guest. Mr. Babbott is a brother of Mrs. William Sargent Ladd.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fuller, Jr., of San Francisco, were among the recent visitors in Portland. They were guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Giesy and Paul Giesy.

Henry Teal entertained at a luncheon for six guests on the roof garden of the Nortonia Hotel Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehrman, of San Francisco, have arrived in Portland to visit Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ehrman.

Colonel and Mrs. J. J. Morrow will leave for the East on August 5. Colonel Morrow will visit his brother, Dwight W. Morrow, at his summer home on Long Island and Mrs. Morrow will visit her sister in New Jersey and friends in Washington. They will go to Panama in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr have returned from a visit in California.

Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell left on Thursday for a short visit in the Sound cities.

Many of the Portland society folk are anticipating the golf tournament that will be held at Gearhart on August 23 to 28, inclusive. Miss Margaret Johnson, of Spokane, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Morden. Miss Johnson formerly resided in Portland, where she has many friends. She was at one time connected with the Library here, but is now in charge of a branch library in Spokane, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Johnson, reside. Miss Johnson has been visiting the fair in San Diego and San Francisco, and she will leave tomorrow for Seattle, on her way home.

Mrs. Lionel D. Gordon (Madge Brightbill), whose Wedding Took Place in Oregon City on Wednesday. Grove Photo

Mr. James D. Hart was hostess recently for Mrs. Henry S. Hostetter, of Washington, D. C., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. G. Whitehouse. Additional guests entertained by Mrs. Hart at the Automobile Club were: Mrs. Charles F. Swigert, Mrs. D. A. Shindler, Mrs. William E. Jones, Mrs. Allen Ellsworth, Mrs. Philip Hart, Mrs. Carl Wessinger, Mrs. E. L. Brown and Miss Ella Stephens.

Another attractive affair for Mrs. Hostetter was a luncheon given by Mrs. Ellis G. Hughes at the Mallory.

Just now the probability of an American girl becoming a Queen is interesting society. So many innovations have been introduced and so many strange things have happened since the war began that even this is possible. Princess Monticello is the oldest girl college west of the Alleghenies. It will open in September for its seventy-ninth year.

From Portland, Miss Erickson will go to Tacoma, where on Tuesday she will be the guest of the Puget Sound Alumnae of the Tacoma Country Club.

Announcements have been received telling of the marriage of Miss Julia Wallrich to John Longman Burke, of this city. The ceremony took place in Chicago on Tuesday, at Holy Angela Church, Bishop McGarvick officiating.

PORTLAND GIRL BRIDE AT PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Grace Ethel Patton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Patton, of Missouri avenue, was one of the attractive brides of the season. Her marriage to Clyde C. Saylor was solemnized on Wednesday at her parents' home. Rev. W. T. Kerr officiated and William Lowell Patton, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

Mr. Clyde C. Saylor (Grace E. Patton) Bushnell Photo

buffet supper was served. Miss Alice Fox and Miss Lenore McGregor assisted.

The house was a veritable bower of pink and white blossoms, and the bridal party received under an arbor of pink roses.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Hemingway left for the coast, where they will spend the first part of their honeymoon. Later they will go to the exposition in California and visit in Chicago, New York and Washington, D. C., before going on to Savannah, Ga., where they will make their home.

The bride is extremely popular in Astoria society and since the announcement of her engagement she has been extensively feted. She is a graduate of the Astoria High School and attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Lieutenant Hemingway is a graduate of the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., and is in the Coast Guard Service on the Yamachewag.

Among the guests at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Ball and children, of Portland; Mrs. Charles Cusick, Eugene Cusick and Miss Katherine Ball, of Albany.

The residents of the Rose City Park district who are interested in St. Rose Church are looking forward to the lawn party which will be the event of next Thursday night. The festivity will be a formal welcoming for the new pastor, Rev. Father O'Farrell, who came recently from Woodburn. Many of the prominent maids and matrons of Rose City Park will assist in receiving and in serving iced and other dainties.

Prior to her departure for California a large lawn fete was given on the grounds of the home of Miss Credence Evans. Japanese lanterns were plentifully strung through the trees, giving a picturesque effect as the young people danced the popular and classic dances, after which dainty refreshments were served in old-fashioned style. About 50 couples were present, the guest of honor being Dr. Anna Louise Natho, of Danville, Ill., who was on her way home after touring the Pacific Coast. Assisting Miss Evans in serving were Mrs. Harrison Boyer, Mrs. Lena Lewis, Miss Charlotte M. Callwell and Mrs. Evans.

Miss Marguerite Thomas was hostess Saturday at a prettily planned tea for Mrs. Gerald Thomas, who, with her little son, George Lewis Thomas, is visiting here from Fresno, Miss Lucille Bronaugh, Miss Clarice Bliss, Miss Mary Alice Wittenberg, Miss Lucile and Miss Alice McDonald assisted the hostess.

An interesting event of Tuesday at Oregon City was the delightful bridge party given at the picturesque home of Dr. C. H. Meissner, overlooking the bluff. Mrs. Meissner entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. Fuller, of Boston, Mass., who is visiting at the Meissner home. The house was decorated with ferns and pink roses and presented an attractive appearance.

The guests were: Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. John Risley, Mrs. L. L. Pickens, Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Mrs. I. Stipp, Mrs. E. M. Bland, Mrs. Orange Eastham, Miss Fannie G. Porter, Miss Beas Dalton, Mrs. Shawman, Mrs. Buzard, Mrs. Varas, Mrs. J. E. Walker, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. Earl Latourette, Mrs. E. J. Dalton, Mrs. A. A. Price, Mrs. H. T. Straight, Mrs. H. C. Elliott, of Portland; Mrs. Percy Wells of Bamson, Mrs. Hendry, Mrs. Eber A. Chapman, Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. Meissner, Miss Lillie Meissner and Miss Grasshorn of Portland.

the refreshments, the ass with which each hostess filled her part in the well-arranged ensemble combined to make this an almost flawless social event. The home and grounds are among the largest in Rose City Park and lend themselves peculiarly to outdoor entertaining.

Solos were sung by Mrs. J. C. O'Day, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. William A. Mullen. Mrs. Mullen and Mrs. Beaumont were accompanists. Miss Dorothy Carpenter gave a reading. All the numbers were well received, the reading by Miss Carpenter being exceptionally clever. Out on the lawn, under the trees, the punchbombs were presided over by Misses Dorothy Carpenter and Charlotte Mooney. Presiding over the tea in the dining-room were: Mrs. G. S. Cole, Mrs. Clinton Mooney, Mrs. James F. Morrell and Mrs. Thomas F. Harrington.

Mrs. H. R. Caswell and Dr. and Mrs. George Armstrong Liggett were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bagley during the past week. Dr. Liggett is one of the most able clergymen of Greater New York. Mrs. Caswell and Mrs. Liggett are prominent members of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Hazel Johnson and her brother Claude are passing the Summer with relatives at Victoria, B. C. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, of 412 East Twenty-first street North.

Mrs. Ted Lansing and Miss Hazel House were among the Portland passengers aboard the Beaver who plan to spend the Summer at San Francisco (Continued on Page 4.)

W.S. Settle

Patent Blank Portland, Ore. Exclusive Apparel for Women

All Remaining Cloth Suits Up to $67.50

at $18.75

A Few Palm Beach Suits at $8.95

STYLISH FOX SCARFS for Smart Beach and Auto Wear

Winners of two highest awards at P. P. I. E., and 58 gold medals and awards at previous exhibitions.

Security Cold Fur Storage Vault Temp. 12° Below Freezing. Furs conformed to this season's styles, at Summer Schedule

Phones—Main 24, A 2440. H. LIEBES & CO. FURS J. P. Fingemann, Mgr. 233 Morrison St., Bet. 4th and 5th.