A visit of note was paid the city of Portland Wednesday evening, July 21, by Governor Edward F. Dunne of Illinois, accompanied by Mrs. Dunne, and their family, and a party of friends of the Governor, including many state officers of Illinois.

At the depot the Governor and his party were met by a reception committee consisting of Joseph Jacobson, W. G. Gatens, James H. McMenamin and Mrs. McMenamin, Miss Mabel G. Livesey, Daniel J. Malarky, Colonel David M. Dunn, Walter E. Evans, Joseph Jacobson, C. C. Chapman and Mr. Brewer, and were immediately escorted to the Commercial Club where a sumptuous dinner had been spread.

After partaking of the dinner, a few minutes were taken up in addresses of welcome to the visiting tributes to Portland, its people and their hospitality. After dinner the party was taken for a short automobile ride about the city, returning to their train at the Union depot at 8:15 and immediately departed on their southern trip.

There was a jolly birthday surprise party at 74 West Killingsworth avenue on Wednesday night in honor of W. H. Wheeler, who was 60 years old on that day. The party took light refreshments and many presents. They played progressive "500." Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Ferrington.

The guests were Nora Christie, Mr. F. Thompson, Mrs. J. T. Small, Mrs. A. Stuchell, Mrs. Jessie Hamblet, Mrs. A. M. Arnold, Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mrs. Harry Weygrand, Miss G. Linea, J. S. Montgomery, G. A. Hammond, A. M. Johnson, F. W. Brenegar, Mr. and Mrs. Burge, Mrs. P. W. Brown, Mrs. J. W. Gilstrap, J. M. Stuchell, J. T. Small, L. D. Artell, Frances C. Chapman, Edna Montgomery, Grace Thompson, Donald Thompson, Mr. E. S. Sawyer, J. H. Butler, Malcolm Montgomery, Mrs. James Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. J. E. Ferrington, Mrs. Ella Wheeler and W. A. Morse.

The last meeting of the sewing circle of George Wright Relief Corps, which was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Reed, was well attended. Among those present were: Mrs. Mary E. Chamberlain, Cora Godshall, Lillian Calkins, Mary E. Belknap, Mattie E. Elmore, Edna Ferguson, Ines Smith, M. Worrick, Mary Hunter, Mary Hawes, Elizabeth Luckey, Maggie Greene, S. Hamilton, M. Howard, Josephine Mowers, Cora Goodnow, Margaret Wall, Della Eley, Leah Hicks, Katherine Herman, Elizabeth Page, May Reed, Elizabeth Griffith, Cora Pike, Fannie Leonard, Emma Cooper, Bowen, Della Mickle, Mary Wallingford, Cora Penney, Sara Taylor, Emma Henderson, Marion Whitcomb, Grace May Vail, Margaret Becker and Margaret Reed. Visitors were Messames A. Ogilbee, M. C. Henderson, B. Griffith, M. E. Murphy, Edna E. Rokand and Ella Magruder. Reading, music and sewing occupied the time.

The Ministerial Association of the Christian Churches of Portland with their wives were delightfully entertained at a lawn party Tuesday night by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crawford at their home, 1386 Garfield avenue. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sawyer and Miss Verda Smith of Vancouver, were the guests of honor.

Electric lights with shades of delicate design cunningly hidden in Summer house and shrubbery lent an artistic and beautiful effect to the well-kept grounds. Sweet strains of music, as mysterious as it was delightful, floated from top of a large plum tree from a concealed device designed by the host.

An informal address by Rev. A. L. Grim, of the Central Christian Church, was one of the many pleasant features of the evening's entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served.

One of the most delightful events of the past week was the party given by Miss Violet Mary Grayson at her home, 809 Northgate avenue, in honor of Miss Van York, who recently returned from New York. The house was elaborately decorated with ferns and sweet peas. Several selections on the piano were played by the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Preston entertained on the piano and violin. Other guests sang and played. Dancing concluded the evening and a buffet supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Preston and Louis Spitznberger, the Misses Collette Lucia Burtolomey, Alta Pearce, Ruby Haas, Julia Remlinger, Pauline Klukka, Ruth Vireo, Rose Sprague and daughter Fanny. She has taught in the Corvallis public schools for five years. Mr. Arpke has been prominent in farming for some time, but will devote his entire time to teaching in the State of Washington.

The guests were limited to relatives and intimate friends. Bishop Castle performed the ceremony. The house was tastefully decorated and appropriate music was rendered before and after the ceremony. Lunch was served, after which the bridegroom and bride took the train for Newport, where part of their honeymoon will be passed. Mr. and Mrs. Arpke have hosts of friends.

Miss Helen Ruth Beecher, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beecher and Norman Annett of Seattle, were married Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. C. D. McCulloch, D. D., officiating. A reception was served afterwards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCulloch. Mr. and Mrs. Annett left in the afternoon for Seattle where they will reside. Mr. Beecher came from Evanston, Ill., to attend the ceremony and he will remain here for a vacation.

A recent marriage of interest was that of Miss Ethel Cathcart to S. M. Hart, which was solemnized Wednesday, Rev. J. H. Boyd, of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Agnes Gladys Cathcart, formerly of Toronto, Canada, and a niece of Mrs. R. McLennan. Mr. and Mrs. Starr will reside in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Richardson and Howard C. Flick were married Wednesday night at 1170 Omaha avenue, the Rev. J. Bowers officiating. Miss B. Lee is now in San Francisco and will arrive in Portland about August 1, accompanied by her children, Edith and Herman, and her sister-in-law, Miss Bertha Hart, of New York City.

Miss Louise Strout, accompanied by Miss Emma Strout, of Charleston, S. C., and Miss Edith Young, left Tuesday for San Diego. They will spend several weeks visiting the exposition at Los Angeles and other California points of interest.

Mr. Leonard Becker and son, Leonard Wesley, are sojourning in Los Angeles with relatives. They will visit the San Diego Exposition and the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco, returning to Portland in time for school opening.
