S ALEM, Or., July 24.—(Special.)—

Mrs. Mary Ramp, founder of Ramp
the foil one of the oldest living pioneer women of Oregon, recently observed her 86th birthday. She was the first woman to vote at a school election in this city, which was 25 years ago. For more than a dozen years Mrs. Ramp has been orippled, but she gets about in her wheel chair and says she is just as happy as at any time in her long life.

"These are the easiest times I have visited."

For many years Mrs. Ramp has been interested in equal suffrage and temperance. She gave the hall to the city law of the promotion of equal suffrage and temperance." With her husband, the late Samuel Ramp, and two babies, Mrs. Ramp crossed the plains, starting from Illinois in 1852. While crossing the Cascade Mountains another child was born. B. F. Ramp, of Brooks; Mrs. S. L. Huelen, of Waterloo, and Mrs. George Sturges, of Kings Valley, are children of Mrs. Ramp.
