CITY-WEARIED THRONGS REVEL IN GAIETIES AT THE BEACHES

Of Bustling Resorts on Pacific Coast, None Surpasses Seaside, With Its Varied Entertainments and Ample Accommodations for Visitors in Search of Dip in Surf.

The latest city improvement is the in-stallation of a public drinking fountain on the corner of Broadway and Seventh street. This is merely the beginning of a number that will be in-stalled later on. It is a handsome article and greatly appreciated not only by residents, but by the Summer visitors, as it is passed by all Seasiders going to and from the Postoffice.

The Moore grill has started entertainments and dancing at 8 o'clock every night and have an augmented and new orchestra, with the addition of a soloist, and the Jay March Fetters, who nightly give exhibitions of modern dancing.

For the benefit of the restroom number of energetic Summer visitors and residents gave an interesting and Well-presented vaudeville performance on Friday night at the Orpheum Theaof the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Dan J. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fetters and Clifford Carney. The Orpheum Theater management donated the use of the building and the affair proved one of the most delightful of the sea-

Skating parties are growing in popularity and vie with the swimming and bonure festivities. Fishing parties also are popular with the boys and many of the girls and the new recently completed to Tillamook Head is responsible for the picnics and hikes planned so frequently. Just where the boardwalk ends begins the most foot of Tillamook Head. The path was built by volunteer labor. The members of the Seaside Commercial Club made a holiday of the path build-
