

Society

Miss Ruth Wyman, Bridesmaid at Jones-Kirkpatrick Wedding.

Miss Isabel Macginn, Graduate of St. Francis Academy, Van Dyck Photo.

Miss Josephine Hoben, Popular in the Younger Set.

Miss Grace M. Earl, of Aberdeen, Guest of Miss Stella Krenn.

bridegroom is chief gunner's mate on the submarine F-3. At the marriage Miss Elizabeth Hoben presided at the organ and also sang "O Perfect Love" and "O Solitude."

Mr. and Mrs. Smolik will make their home in Honolulu.

Miller-Turner.
The marriage of Miss Maybelle Turner and Dr. E. H. Miller was solemnized Wednesday at the First Congregational Church. Rev. Luther R. Dwyer officiating. Miss Elizabeth Hayes was bridesmaid and Dr. Carl L. Stanley was best man. After the ceremony a supper was served at the Hotel Multnomah. The bride is the daughter of C. F. Turner, of Kansas City, Kan. Dr. and Mrs. Miller will leave this morning for a month's sojourn along the coast.

Heints-Pittenger.
Miss Ethel Pittenger, one of Portland's popular teachers, was married last Monday night to Oscar Heints, of this city. Dr. Hinson officiating. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the White Temple, which were prettily decorated. Miss Isabel W. Clark was maid of honor and Miss Hulda School played the wedding march.

Relatives and friends were present to extend good wishes and congratulations. A wedding breakfast was served the bride party at the home of Mrs. S. L. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Heints will visit Oregon beach resorts, and will be at home at 323 Graham avenue after September 1. Mrs. Heints is the daughter of Mrs. T. W. Pittenger, well known to old-time residents of Portland.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.
Mrs. Lizette Shute, after a visit in Hillsboro, has returned to her home.

Miss Rita and Miss Eleanor Prager leave Monday for a three weeks' visit in Spokane.

Miss Rebecca Stettin, of 177 Hamilton avenue, has returned from a month's stay at Long Beach, Wash.

Mrs. Henry Goldsmith, of San Francisco, who has been visiting in Portland, has returned to her home.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Ross left Thursday for Nova Scotia to visit Dr. Ross' mother. They will return September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wickman, of Rose City Park, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby boy.

Mrs. George Seelig and daughter, Ruth, and Miss Triebler have returned from a visit with relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs. G. A. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. E. Bennett, and Mrs. Graham, have returned from a visit to San Diego and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Naschke and son, Bertram, and Mrs. Lang, of Galveston, Tex., were recent guests of Herman Bach and Miss Bach.

Mrs. J. H. Bryce, of Sherbrooke, Quebec, with her two daughters, was a recent guest of Mrs. D. C. Shearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Naschke and Miss Hermine Bach have gone to California to visit the fairs before returning to Texas. Miss Bach will visit for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Selling have gone to San Francisco to visit the fair. They will be entertained later by relatives and friends in Sacramento and Petaluma.

Dr. Amelia Ziegler and Miss Zelma Savarin have returned from a visit to California, where they enjoyed the two expositions and were extensively entertained.

Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Shank will take several short trips "seeing Oregon" this month, while Dr. Shank has his vacation from his pulpit in the East Side Baptist Church.

Miss Mariette S. Dunn, of Portland, sailed on the Alameda from Seattle, July 25 for Alaska, where she will be married to Joseph H. Hoxzie, of Long Alaska, in August.

Miss Katherine Hoben, daughter of Captain Andrew Hoben, has returned from a short sojourn in Southern Oregon, where she visited friends in Marshfield, Empire and Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Spenger left last night for Salt Lake. They will return by way of the Yellowstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Edward Dooley accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Spencer.

Mrs. Glenn O. Graves, accompanied by her daughters, Eva and Norma, left this week for a month's sojourn in California. Dr. and Mrs. James L. Graves and children, of Fargo, N. D., will join the party later in the month.

Miss Thelma Garrett, of Seattle, who was the house guest of Miss Grace O'Neill, of Irvington, last Spring, is again visiting in Portland. Miss Garrett passed the last few months in California.

Miss Hazel Kreilich left for Seaside this morning, where she will join her mother and brother, who are passing the summer at their cottage, the Rosetta. She will have as her house guest, Miss Mari Sanderoock.

Mrs. Kavanagh, mother of Judge J. P. Kavanagh, and her daughter, Mary, left Wednesday for a three weeks' trip through California. They will visit San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and other points of interest.

Smolik-Southard.
The marriage of Miss Helen Eugenia Southard and Jerry Anthony Smolik was solemnized at the Holy Rosary Church Wednesday. The Rev. Father Lawler officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Southard, of East Burnside street.

The marriage of Miss Helen Eugenia Southard and Jerry Anthony Smolik was solemnized at the Holy Rosary Church Wednesday. The Rev. Father Lawler officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Southard, of East Burnside street.

Miss Ida Quigley and niece, Eleanor McClelland, of Shippensburg, Pa.; Miss Margaret Howard, of Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. Kate Guman, and daughter, of Minneapolis, Minn., are being entertained by the hostess.

PIONEER CELEBRATES 86TH BIRTHDAY.
A marked compliment was paid to the choir of the White Temple last Sunday night by the pastor, Dr. Hinson. The choir members who then completed their choir engagements for the season of 1914-15 were Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman, soprano; Mrs. Virginia Spencer Hutchinson, contralto; Norman A. Hoese, tenor and director; Hartridge Whipp, baritone; and Lucien E. Becker, organist. "I usually say what I think," began Dr. Hinson. "and I am personally responsible for what I say. I have been preaching for 25 years, and I wish to say to you people of this church that the music we have had from our choir for the past year has been the best I have ever heard in all my pastoral experience."

Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador to this country, has decided to found a scholarship with free tuition for one year to any American vocal student of German descent. All applicants will be heard by Frank G. Dossert, vocal teacher, Carnegie Hall, New York City. Mr. Dossert, it is stated, "will select ten voices, the best, in his judgment, to be heard by the Ambassador, or a committee of the latter's appointing. The lucky recipient of the scholarship in question will receive free tuition for one year, and if sufficient progress is made the successful student will be eligible to another year's free tuition. Subsequently, when these ten students are ready, each will be aided in securing a debut in opera in Germany."

Charles French, president of the Musical League, Chicago, his wife, Mrs. Florence French, editor of the Leader, and their daughter, Miss French, were guests at the beginning of last week of Miss Emille Frances and Miss Marion Bauer, at their brother's home, 130 North Nineteenth street. An interview with Mr. and Mrs. French on the future of symphony music in this city, appeared in The Oregonian of last Wednesday.

Miss Vera Kitchen, pianist, has returned from a trip to Los Angeles. She has been preparing in piano and recital work with William R. Boone, who has been the piano for the Western division in the prize piano contests arranged by the National Federation of Music Clubs to take place

MRS. A. E. BILLS.
Mrs. A. E. Bills, a pioneer of '52, celebrated the eighty-sixth anniversary of her birth on Sunday last by holding a reception at her residence, 101 North Sixteenth street. Mrs. Bills crossed the plains, along with her husband, the late Cincinnati Bills, from Indiana. She has become known from the Pacific to the Atlantic as the maker of the first American flag ever made in Portland.

Those present at the reception included: Mrs. G. V. James, Mrs. M. Spaulding, Mrs. F. A. Young, of Rockaway Beach, and Miss Edna Young, Miss James, Mrs. H. Sims (Glen James), Miss Spaulding, George Bills, Rae Spaulding and Mrs. Spaulding, Carleton Bills, Mrs. Bills and daughter, Henry Fries and son Samuel, Charles Menzies and son, Mrs. L. Manning, Mrs. Alcott, Mrs. S. Layton and Miss Layton, Master Peter Lineweaver.

tained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vosburg, Oak Grove, Or.

Mrs. Anna Kronbrodt, department president, and Mrs. Valerie G. Benvie, department secretary of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, have returned from Dallas, where they organized a circle, to be known as the William T. Sherman Circle, No. 30.

Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie and Mrs. A. D. Charlton are planning to go to Nehalem, where they will be domiciled at the Clubhouse. Mrs. Alice Webster will be there all Summer. Several members of the Psychology Club will be among the visitors at the Clubhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. S. Winchester and Miss Alice Winchester have returned from a delightful automobile trip around Mount Hood. They went from Portland by way of the Columbia River Highway, Hood River, The Dalles, Tygh Valley, Wapinitia and Government Camp.

A number of high school girls are on the Columbia River near Fairview in the camp of the "Merry Jans."

In the party are: Mildred Hawes, Wilma Webber, Elsie Moon, Olive Colpitts, Rachel Yerex, Doris Wolcott, Jessie McDonald, Rita and Lucille Reasing. Mrs. J. F. Reasing is chaperoning the girls.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Allen, of Oak Grove, are having a family reunion this week. Their sons are here from Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Oregon with their families. Rev. Mr. Allen is one of the pioneer Methodist Episcopal ministers of the Middle West. There are 29 members of the family visiting here for the reunion.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

Mrs. M. Christensen will go to San Francisco tomorrow to attend the convention of the American National Association of Dancing Masters, which will be held in the Hotel California across the bay from the Exposition. She will join Mr. Christensen, who has been to New York and has just received a diploma from the Castle school. Victor Christensen is still in New York, where he is coaching with a leading artist on the violin.

MONDAY: A Last Goodbye to Summer Apparel

All Fancy Suits
selling regularly $24.50 to $48.50

All Silk Dresses
selling regularly $24.50 to $32.50

$10

The suits are of gabardine, serge, wool poplin and novelty weaves; the dresses of silk poplin, crepe meteor, and crepe de chine. Early morning selection is advised, for the reason that quantities are limited.

Many other specials will be shown that are not advertised.

New Fall Suits and Coats are arriving daily and being placed on display.

BEN SELLING

Morrison at Fourth.

at the meetings of the Federation at Los Angeles. Miss Kitchen is estimated to be a pianist of more than ordinary talent, and one of the features of her recitals is that she plays all selections from memory, paying particular attention to interpretation. Miss Kitchen played this programme at Los Angeles in the district contest: "Sonata, Op. 11, No. 2" (Beethoven); "Woodland Sketches," "To a Wild Rose," "Uncle Remus," "To a Water Lily" and "From an Indian Lodge" (MacDowell), and "St. Francis Walking on the Waves" (Liszt). Miss Kitchen played these selections on the National programme: "Etude, Op. 25, No. 1" (Chopin), and "Echo de Vienne Valse" (Sauer), and she also played piano numbers at the Oregon building, Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco. She met many distinguished musical people on her trip, and says that the latter was one of the pleasant musical experiences of a lifetime.

GRADUATES WIN PLACES
Appointments of University of Oregon Students Announced.

EUGENE, Or., July 31.—(Special.)—The following appointments made this Summer of University graduates and former students to positions in Oregon high schools were announced today by Professor F. L. Stetson, of the university bureau of recommendations:

Luton Ackerson, superintendent, Lakeview; Rachel Applegate, Latin and German, Tumam; F. D. Carruth, principal, Brownsville; Mrs. Beas Young Clark, science and mathematics, Halfway; Peter C. Cronin, English and science, Tillamook; James T. Donald, principal, Haines; Meta Goldsmith, German, Eugene; Fred Hardisty, principal, Shedd; Louise Holsting, science and mathematics, Astoria; Helen Johnson, German and English, Halsey; Carolyn Koyl, teacher training, Creswell; Katherine Kirkpatrick, Latin and English, Florence; Elton Luch, English, history and athletics, McMinnville; Herbert Matthews, superintendent, Phoenix; E. V. McCormick, Latin and German, Graham; E. A. McQuay, principal of grade school, Ashland; Hazel McKown, music and special work, McMinnville; Mabel Miller, German and science, Arlington; William Murphy, science, Salem; Valde Newland, Latin and English, Florence; A. T. Park, principal, Hermiston; Ruth Peter, languages and science, Weston; E. Ennam, English and mathematics, Springfield; Mildred Riddle, German, Molalla; Agnes Ryder, Latin, English and physical training, Vale; Albert Schroeder, principal, Prineville; Alfred Skel, principal, Coburg; Beulah Stehne, German and English, Marshfield; Grace Tiffany, German and English, Stayton; Ellen Van Yokuburgh, German, Junction City; J. L. Whitman, science, McMinnville; Betsy Wootton, Mathematics, McMinnville.

WEATHER DELAYS MARKET
Threshing on Largest Acreage Plant- ed Near Monmouth Waits.

MONMOUTH, Or., July 3.—(Special.)—Hundreds of acres of wheat are standing in Polk County awaiting the threshing, which will start as soon as the weather clears. The largest acreage in many years is planted and much is expected to run 40 bushels to the acre. In some fields the wheat stood fully six feet high.

Considerable Spring oats will be harvested. Where vetch and oats were planted together the oats outyielded the vetch this year and the freeing weather had its effect. Harvest is expected to last 20 days, the longest period in years.

POWER COMPANY REPORTS
Spokane Corporation Shows Earnings for Year of $2,976,425.

BOISE, Idaho, July 29.—(Special.)—The Washington Water Power Company, of Spokane, has filed its annual financial statement with the State Auditor here for use of the State Board of Equalization.

The operating revenues of the company for the year 1914 amounted to $2,976,425.53, and the total operating expenses were $1,887,597.74, leaving $1,088,827.79 for payment of $1,094,863 dividend and interest deductions.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES
I Wish to Announce That I Have Received a NEW LINE OF FABRICS For the Fall Season. This Week I Will Take Orders for SUITS AT $40. Ladies Who Wish a Tailor-Made Suit Cut With Stylish Lines, Should take advantage of this Offer.

S. ARONSON
Main 5210. 425 ALDER ST.

Do You Perspire?
"Dry-Pits" Lotion positively diverts perspiration from the armpits, enabling one to discard shields entirely. Antiseptic, pure, harmless. Money refunded if unsatisfactory. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1. Manufactured by Dry-Pits Lotion Co., St. Louis, Mo. For sale by Skidmore Drug Co., Portland, Or.

Non-Plastique, Nature's Vegetable Jelly. The Fountain of Youth. What It Does. Each treatment removes fine wrinkles, corrects sagging and deep lines in 15 minutes. Builds up the weakest underneath. Prevents wrinkles from developing. Nothing known to science is equal. Send 2c for booklet or call at office for a complete outline of all Nink-Marr toilet preparations, which represent the highest possible standard of purity. Office 9, second floor, 396 1/2 Washington St., Portland, Oregon. Free demonstrations. Agents wanted. Also on sale at Woodward, Clarke & Co.

FALL SUITS
EARLY ARRIVALS OF FALL SUITINGS NOW BEING SHOWN. Exquisite Materials, Made in Latest Styles, Guaranteed Fit. Reasonable Prices. I Will Please You. A. LIPPMAN, 402 Morrison. Ladies' Tailor.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY GETS CHICAGO PROFESSOR.
Robert F. Clark.

A new dean and professor of sociology and economics has been elected for the coming year at Pacific University in the person of Robert F. Clark, of the University of Chicago, a young man of wide experience in Eastern institutions. In 1902 he received his A. B. degree from Oberlin College and has since received the degrees of M. A. and Ph. D. from the University of Chicago.

Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador to this country, has decided to found a scholarship with free tuition for one year to any American vocal student of German descent. All applicants will be heard by Frank G. Dossert, vocal teacher, Carnegie Hall, New York City. Mr. Dossert, it is stated, "will select ten voices, the best, in his judgment, to be heard by the Ambassador, or a committee of the latter's appointing. The lucky recipient of the scholarship in question will receive free tuition for one year, and if sufficient progress is made the successful student will be eligible to another year's free tuition. Subsequently, when these ten students are ready, each will be aided in securing a debut in opera in Germany."

Charles French, president of the Musical League, Chicago, his wife, Mrs. Florence French, editor of the Leader, and their daughter, Miss French, were guests at the beginning of last week of Miss Emille Frances and Miss Marion Bauer, at their brother's home, 130 North Nineteenth street. An interview with Mr. and Mrs. French on the future of symphony music in this city, appeared in The Oregonian of last Wednesday.

Miss Vera Kitchen, pianist, has returned from a trip to Los Angeles. She has been preparing in piano and recital work with William R. Boone, who has been the piano for the Western division in the prize piano contests arranged by the National Federation of Music Clubs to take place

MRS. A. E. BILLS.
Mrs. A. E. Bills, a pioneer of