weather for garnering the grain has been friendly.

The prime crop, unusually heavy in most parts of the county, probably will bring at least $1,000,000 into the coffers of the growers. Packing plants are being put into shape to handle the crop, though the price this year, on account of the war, is $\frac{1}{2}$ cents for a base, which is three cents cheaper than

Some farmers near Vancouver are stacking their second crop of alfalfa. The potato crop will be the largest in the history of the county, without doubt.

INJURED MEN REST WELL

Railroad Man Says Engine Bell Gave Warning to Convicts.

SALEM, Or. Aug. ?.—(Special.)—Superintendent Minto, of the State Penitentiary, announced today that the convicts injured Friday when a switch convicts injured Friday when a switch engine struck an automobile truck in which the men were riding, were resting easily and that none would die. F. L. Burckhalter, of the Southern Pacific Company, in a statement made today, said the engineer of the locomotive was ringing the bell when the collision occurred. He said the driver of the automobile truck turned his machine 45 feet from the track, throwing it over the curb and sidewalk. ing it over the curb and sidewalk.

Governor Withycomb said he would suggest to the management of the prison that automobiles carrying convicts stop at railroad crossings so that the drivers may look out for approaching trains.

LINN PLANS SCHOOL FAIRS

Three Industrial Exhibits Will Be Held This Year.

ALBANY, Or., Aug. 7.—(Special.)— Three industrial school fairs will be held in Linn County this year, accord-ing to arrangements perfected today by County School Superintendent Jackson. There will be one each in the northern central and southern portions of the county, and the dates are so arranged that all of the exhibits may be shown at each fair.

The first will be held at Scio September 8, 9 and 10 in connection with the annual Linn County Fair. The second will take place at Harrisburg on October 8 and 9 in connection with that city's annual Potato Show, and the third will be held in Albany October 15 and 16.
