Portland Rallies Toward Close, but One Short-Evans and Kahler Give Fine Exhibition, but It Is All Wasted.

Yesterday's Results. Portland-Verson 4, Portland 2.

At Los Angeles - Los Angeles 7, Oakland L BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Irve Higginbotham, pitcher for the Portland champions, is a staunch booster for earlier starting games at Recreation Park. The big rightat 3:04 o'clock yesterday and could not get away until 3:15. During Higginbotham's one and one-third innings, Vernon scored four runs on the Beavers, amidst one of the saddest pitching scenes ever staged by the Teuton. Higg couldn't tell whether the home-plate was registered at the Imperial Hotel or the Multnomah and not only did he exude two wild pitches, but also made an execrably-timed heave past third that was directly responsible for two of the tallies.

Needless to say, those four runs were sufficient, and Vernon won another game from Portland by a score of t "Turn about is fair play"-yes indeed-but the series now stands four games for Vernon and one for the Killilay "Beans" Corhan, Who Re-Mackmen.

"Doe" White Holds Beavers,

"Doc" White surprised everybody by ordering Southpaw "Doc" Lake took a free-hitting contest from White out to do the pitching for Ver- San Francisco here today, 9 to 7. Eight non-these two being one and the errors, three home runs, five twosame gentlemen. Later on, in the eighth inning, Manager "Doc" White to reordered Southpaw "Doc" White to remove his sparse skeleton from the single through short and Hillya followed with his second two-bagge "Doc" decided it was time to beat to cover. So he beckened to Charle Chech to cor in off the sidelin where the ex-Angel had been work ing like a Trojan all week. Chec finished the matinee. Charley permit ted both of "Doc's" heritages to seor on Derrick's single and Fisher's sacri fice fly, but that was all.

McCredie's Choice Poor.

The game finished 4-3 and a lot good pitching on the part of South went to the bow-wows. Walter Mack ought to hire one of those soothsaying bugs to tell him which pitcher to start. Nearly every time he picks one said flinger blows up, and then somebody that has fizzled the day before colls up like a worm cut in three places and pitches a whale of a losing relief The knockout of the sunny afternoon however, was the presentation of a baby perambulator to Fred Derrick by his teammates. They all crowded around the home plate as if it were a dairy lunch. Fred is the paw-paw to a baby girl, and while baby girls are not worth much on the hoof, the Georgian responded neatly by singling to No more buggies being available, Derrick died on first base.

and Derrick booted the puny tap, both going safe. Bayless bunted and sacrificed the runners along one base. Without thereupon inced a sizzling two-bagger over third base and scored two. Berger opened the second by doubling to center. Spencer lined out to Derrick, for both these runs, because of the error. We don't know anybody who more deserved to be charged with them unless it's the Belgians.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.-Sal Lake took a free-hitting contest from move his sparse skeleton from the diamond in favor of Charley Chech, but the famous Chicago portsider was in these long enough to make the Beavers look like kindergarteners.

"Doc" simply slowballed and hookballed every one of the boys to death, except Stumpf and Hillyard. In the seals' shortstop, was hit by a pitched bail in the first inning. An after the side had been retired he walked over to Jack Killilay, the Sail Lake twirler. An argument ennued, during which Corhan is said to have struck Killilay on the point of the jaw. This made the count 4-1 in favor of Vernon.

IS WON BY TYLER

Spokane Veteran Beats Van Dyke Johns in Gruelling Four-Set Match.

MISS LIVINGSTONE VICTOR

Scattle Champion Easily Puts Out Miss McDonald in Finals, Despite University Girl's Attempt at Lobbing Game

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 14 .- (Special.)—For three gruelling sets today. Van Dyke Johns, of San Francisco. holder of the Washington State tennis championship, withstood the terrific at-tack of Joe Tyler, of Spokane, the Northwestern title-holder, in the final Northwestern title-holder, in the final match of the men's singles event at Blackistone field, and then cracked. Tyler wrested the crown from the Californian, 5-7, 6-4, 7-5, 6-6.

Playing a steady, aggressive game that won him the Northwestern championship in Tacoma, the Inland Empire wizard wore down his opponent until the thought the time was rine, and then he thought the time was ripe, and then shot a dazzling array of shots at the title-holder which swept him off his feet, and whirled through the final set six games to nothing.

Johns opened the match like a real champion. He drove the cut stroke of his opponent repeatedly for points, and had taken four straight games before Tyler became thoroughly warmed up. Then Tyler, strengthened, broke into #### his opponent's service.

Johns Wins Service. With the score five all, Johns won on his own service after a game which went to deuce three times, and then broke into his opponent's service for the deciding game. The score was 7-5.

Johns started the second set by winning on his own service while Teler ning on his own service, while Tyler came back and took the next game after some brilliant rallies and some great returns on Johns' part. Tyler's great returns on Johns' part. Tyler's service was working beautifully. Both players then lost on their services, after which Johns, by remarkably accurate placements, took the next game, making the score 3-2 in his favor.

Tyler did some great playing at the net in the next game, which netted him the victory and brought the score up to three all. He uncorked some fancy returns, which gave him the set, 6 games to 4, and brought the score by sets to 1 and 1.

The Californian furnished the pret-The Cantorman furnished the pretiest exhibition of the match in the third set, when he took the first game, dropped the second and then brought the score up to 5 to 1 in his favor by annexing the next four games in succession. Tyler fell down badly in these games.

Miss Sarah Livingstone, of Seattle, who has got into the habit of winning who has got into the habit of winning three or four championships every year, added one more to her list today, when she defeated Miss Mayme Mc-Donald, the University of Washington champion, in the finals of the women's singles in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3. The university girl, who won her way into the linals over a select list of entries, tried to play the same style of game which brought her to the big match of the tournament, the lobbing game, but Miss Livingstone could not be conquered. Miss McDonald humped nearly every return of the champion's far into the air, and it looked for a while as if she had hit upon the key of Miss Livingstone's weakness if she has any, but the champion drove the high lobs to points time after time and emerged the winner easily.

feated Sam Russell and R. W. Fulton, both of Scattle, in three sets, 6-2, 7-5, 6-4. Tyler's terrific driving and accurate placing were features and was a large factor in the victory.

Miss Livingstone and Van Dyke
Johns had little trouble winning the mixed doubles finals in straight sets.

6-3. 6-2.
The women's doubles finals went to Miss Livingstone and Mrs. Bragdon, who defeated Miss Goodfellow and Miss Lambuth, 6-3, 6-2.

SCHEDULE IS

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE CHANGES ALLOTMENT OF GAMES.

Spokane Club, Deprived of Closing Series on Own Grounds, Is Only One to Object.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 14.-A new schedule for the remainder of the Northwestern League baseball season was given out here tonight by Robert L. Blewett, president of the league, All the directors have given approval except President Farr, of the Spokane club, who objects to being deprived of the closing series of games on the home grounds. To comply with Farr's de-sire would mean that two clubs would have to make the trip to Spokane, which, the other directors say, would be too expensive. The new schedule
